Life Of Boris English Edition:

Permanent Evolution Yuri Tynianov, 2019-10-01 Yuri Tynianov was a key figure of Russian Formalism an intellectual movement in early 20th century Russia that also included Viktor Shklovsky and Roman Jakobson Tynianov developed a groundbreaking conceptualization of literature as a system within and in constant interaction with other cultural and social systems His essays on Russian literary classics like Pushkin's Eugene Onegin and works by Dostoevsky and Gogol as well as on the emerging art form of filmmaking provide insight into the ways art and literature evolve and adapt new forms of expression Although Tynianov was first a scholar of Russian literature his ideas transcend the boundaries of any one genre or national tradition Permanent Evolution gathers together for the first time Tynianov's seminal articles on literary theory and film including several articles never before translated into English

Zhivago's Secret Journey Paolo Mancosu, 2016-09-01 Paolo Mancosu continues an investigation he began in his 2013 book Inside the Zhivago Storm which the New York Book Review of Books described as a tour de force of literary detection worthy of a scholarly Sherlock Holmes In this book Mancosu extends his detective work by reconstructing the network of contacts that helped Pasternak smuggle the typescripts of Doctor Zhivago outside the Soviet Union and following the vicissitudes of the typescripts when they arrived in the West Mancosu draws on a wealth of firsthand sources to piece together the long standing mysteries surrounding the many different typescripts that played a role in the publication of Doctor Zhivago thereby solving the problem of which typescript served as the basis of the first Russian edition a pirate publication covertly orchestrated by the Central Intelligence Agency CIA He also offers a new perspective aided by the recently declassified CIA documents by narrowing the focus as to who might have passed the typescript to the CIA In the process Mancosu reveals details of events that were treated as top secret by all those involved vividly recounting the history of the publication of Pasternak's epic work with all its human and political ramifications

European Literature and Theology in the Twentieth Century David Jasper, Colin Crowder, 2009-06-17 The central themes of this collection of essays are the mystery of time past present and future and the problems of redemption They are concerned with modern literature the threat of meaninglessness in the postmodern condition and the possibility of salvation In an age of deferral and difference this book addresses itself to eschatology and apocalypse and redemption in through but particularly of time itself Hell and madness are never far away yet the reconfiguration of time and the breaking in of the transcendent continue to suggest theological possibilities beyond the wastelands of the twentieth century To those possibilities we look in hope

The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature. It highlights the place of translation in our culture, encouraging awareness of the issues raised, making the translator more visible. Concentrating on major writers and works, it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean, from Swahili to Russian. For some works, e.g. Virgil's Aeneid, which have been much translated, the discussion is historical and critical, showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions. Elsewhere, with less familiar literatures, the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available. The Guide is divided into two parts. Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions, a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English, and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text, e.g. poetry, oral literature. The second, much longer part, consists of entries grouped by language of origin; some are devoted to individual texts, e.g. the Thousand and One Nights, or writers, e.g. Ibsen, Proust, but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre, e.g. Chinese poetry, Spanish Golden Age drama, or of a national literature, e.g. Hungarian, Scottish Gaelic. There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators.

Art in Zion Dalia Manor, 2004-12-03 Art in Zion deals with the link between art and national ideology and specifically between the artistic activity that emerged in Jewish Palestine in the first decades of the twentieth century and the Zionist movement. In order to examine the development of national art in Jewish Palestine, the book focuses on direct and indirect expressions of Zionist ideology in the artistic activity in the yishuv, the Jewish community in Palestine. In particular, the book explores two major phases in the early development of Jewish art in Palestine: the activity of the Bezalel School of Art and Crafts and the emergence during the 1920s of a group of artists known as the Modernists.

The Publishers Weekly, 1898 The Severed Head Julia Kristeva, 2025-03-04 Informed by a provocative exhibition at the Louvre curated by the author, The Severed Head unpacks artistic representations of severed heads from the Paleolithic period to the present. Surveying paintings, sculptures, and drawings, Julia Kristeva turns her famed critical eye to a study of the head as symbol and metaphor, as religious object and physical fact, further developing a critical theme in her work: the power of horror and the potential for the face to provide an experience of the sacred. Kristeva considers the head as icon, artifact, and locus of thought, seeking a keener understanding of the violence and desire that drives us to sever and, in some cases, keep such a potent object. Her study stretches all the way back to 6,000 B.C.E. with humans' early decoration and worship of skulls and follows with the Medusa myth, the mandylion of Laon, a holy relic in which the face of a saint appears on a piece of cloth, the biblical story of John the Baptist and his counterpart Salome, tales of the guillotine, modern murder mysteries, and even the rhetoric surrounding the fight for and against capital punishment. Kristeva interprets these capital visions through the lens of psychoanalysis, drawing infinite connections between their manifestation and sacred experience and very much affirming the possibility of the sacred even in an era of faceless interaction.

Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies
