Social Justice and Transformative Learning Saundra M. Tomlinson-Clarke, Darren L. Clarke, 2016-03-10 The similarities between the United States and South Africa with respect to race power oppression and economic inequities are striking and a better understanding of these parallels can provide educational gains for students and educators in both countries Through shared experiences and perspectives this volume presents scholarly work from U S and South African scholars that advance educational practice in support of social justice and transformative learning It provides a comprehensive framework for developing transformational learning experiences that facilitates leadership for social justice and a deeper understanding of the factors influencing personal national and global identity The Complete Book of Colleges, 2013 Edition Princeton Review, 2012-08-07 Profiles every four year college in the United States providing detailed information on academic programs admissions requirements financial aid services housing athletics contact names and campus life Towards a holistic approach to support learners at risk of interrupted development Macalane J. Malindi, Johnnie Hay, Thabo Makhalemele, 2024-02-23 The COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes It is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated Researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development In this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners Data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented The findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education Life Orientation and curriculum development

Creating Life-Long Learners Todd Stanley, 2015-07-30 Wanted for the global workforce thinkers and those who can teach them Where K 12 instruction once centered on content and memorization today s educators want most of all to teach their students to think critically and perceptively What better way than with project based learning PBL Author Todd Stanley provides a teacher friendly step by step approach to implementing PBL focusing on the 21st century three R s readiness responsibility and relevance Educators will be prepared to put this practical methodology to work right away as they learn how to Use project and classroom management skills to create a positive productive learning environment Develop curriculum around ten different project types Link projects with today s standards Teach students how to effectively collaborate and bring out the best in each other Readers will find an abundance of ideas and clear guidance along with new strategies for instilling the skills students need for tomorrow s workforce If you are looking for a way to produce higher level thinkers you really need to read this book It is a recipe for successful life long learners Tamara Daugherty Teacher Lakeville Elementary School Student lead project based learning fuses today s classroom with the demands of the fast paced future Students need to be able to interact and problem solve not just with each other but also within the community and with technology This book is a guide for helping educators make that jump with their instruction Debra K Las Teacher Rochest Public Schools Student Motivation and Quality of Life in Higher Education Marcus A. Henning,Christian U. Krägeloh,Glenis Wong-Toi,2014-12-17 Higher education is a high stakes process involving engagement with curricula and often entails coping with the onslaught of assessments and examinations This process creates a level of intensity that impacts on the student experience in higher education It is therefore important to consider not only the motivational aspects of learning but also quality of life issues as they have profound effects on students Quality of life affects the way students interact with their formal education and has wide reaching effects on future careers and their ability to coordinate everyday events Integrating these two concepts student motivation and quality of life brings together the explicit elements that underpin learning in the higher education context creating links between the affective and social aspects of the student life This synthesis is integral to improving student retention and quality of life and has important ramifications for educationalists administrators pastoral care and academic support service personnel and students themselves Some highlights of the book include Applied Positive Psychology in Higher Education Internationalisation and Quality of Life A Taiwanese Perspective The Computer Assisted Learning for the Mind CALM Website Teaching Skills to Increase Resilience The Oxford University Peer Support Programme Addressing the Wellbeing of Students Higher Education and Student Stress Reclaiming Light Liberty and Learning Improving academic quality of life through attribution and motivation focused counselling Health and Wellbeing in Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity Catherine Meads,2020-04-28 This is a collection of published papers from a variety of authors from around the world on the topic of the health and wellbeing of minority sexual orientation and gender identity populations Some of the included papers focused on health inequality and inequity and some focussed on healthcare delivery Many showed how health inequities in LGBT groups of people were found across a wide variety of political environments and health and wellbeing topics and frequently inadequate healthcare delivery The increasing interest in research in this area which has been neglected in the past shows its growing importance Creating Engaging Discussions Jennifer H. Herman,Linda B. Nilson,2023-07-03 If you have ever been apprehensive about initiating classroom discussion fearing silences the domination of a couple of speakers superficial contributions or off topic remarks this book provides strategies for creating a positive learning experience Jennifer H Herman and Linda B Nilson demonstrate how to create the conditions to facilitate deep and meaningful learning as well as to assess the effectiveness of discussions They identify analyze and solve common problems in both classroom and online discussions and in both small and large classes They take a direct practice oriented approach that in acknowledging common challenges provides principles guidance on design examples of activities and techniques and eight detailed case studies These cases demonstrate successful approaches that faculty across disciplines and from a variety of institutions have adopted in their face to face blended or online courses at the undergraduate or graduate level The case

authors begin by describing the original pedagogical challenge they faced and explain how they addressed it and assessed the results of their innovation They also offer practical recommendations to readers who may want to try their strategies Intended for faculty this book will be equally valuable for educational developers who can use this resource in their programs and private consultations At the graduate level this book can serve as a text or workshop resource in college teaching courses and teaching assistant development programs The final chapter provides a set of resources and activities including discussion questions on the case studies writing prompts and jigsaw formats that are equally appropriate for individual study or for use in workshop environments You ll never again have to suffer such a profound silence that as described by a contributor to the book she could hear the crickets chirping outside Climate Change, Energy, Sustainability and Pavements Kasthurirangan Gopalakrishnan, Wynand JvdM Steyn, John Harvey, 2014-09-25 Climate change energy production and consumption and the need to improve the sustainability of all aspects of human activity are key inter related issues for which solutions must be found and implemented quickly and efficiently To be successfully implemented solutions must recognize the rapidly changing socio techno political environment and multi dimensional constraints presented by today s interconnected world As part of this global effort considerations of climate change impacts energy demands and incorporation of sustainability concepts have increasing importance in the design construction and maintenance of highway and airport pavement systems To prepare the human capacity to develop and implement these solutions many educators policy makers and practitioners have stressed the paramount importance of formally incorporating sustainability concepts in the civil engineering curriculum to educate and train future civil engineers well equipped to address our current and future sustainability challenges This book will prove a valuable resource in the hands of researchers educators and future engineering leaders most of whom will be working in multidisciplinary environments to address a host of next generation sustainable transportation infrastructure challenges This book proposes a broad detailed overview of the actual scientific knowledge about pavements linked to climate change energy and sustainability at the international level in an original multidimensional multi effects way By the end the reader will be aware of the whole global issues to care about for various pavement technical features around the world among which the implications of modelling including data collection challenging resources saving and infrastructures services optimisation This is a complete and varied work rare in the domain Dr Agnes Jullien Research Director Director of Environmental Development Safety and Eco Design Laboratory EASE Department of Development Mobility and Environment Ifsttar Centre de Nantes Cedex France An excellent compilation of latest developments in the field of sustainable pavements The chapter topics have been carefully chosen and are very well organized with the intention of equipping the reader with the state of the art knowledge on all aspects of pavement sustainability Topics covered include pavement Life Cycle Analysis LCA pervious pavements cool pavements photocatalytic pavements energy harvesting pavements etc which will all be of significant interest to students researchers and practitioners of pavement engineering This book will no doubt serve as an excellent reference on the topic of sustainable pavements Dr Wei Hsing Huang Editor in Chief of International Journal of Pavement Research and Technology IJPRT and Professor of Civil Engineering National Central University Taiwan Pathways to Success Through Identity-based Motivation Daphna Oyserman, 2015 Focusing on when the future self matters and how to reduce the shortfall between the self that one aspires to become and the outcomes that one actually attains Oyserman introduces the reader to the core theoretical framework of identity based motivation IBM theory Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2012 Leave no child behind UNESCO, 2022-06-20 To leave no child behind UNESCO developed the first global report of this scope on boys disengagement from education bringing together qualitative and quantitative evidence from over 140 countries This report provides an overview on the global situation on boys disengagement from and disadvantage in education It identifies factors influencing boys participation progression and learning outcomes in education It also analyses responses by governments and partners and examines promising policies and programmes Finally it includes recommendations on how to engage boys with education and address disadvantage While girls continue to face severe disadvantages and inequalities in education the report shows that boys in many countries are at greater risk than girls of repeating grades failing to complete different education levels and having poorer learning outcomes in school No less than 132 million boys of primary and secondary school age are out of school They urgently require support As this report shows supporting boys does not mean that girls lose out and vice versa Addressing boys disengagement not only benefits boys learning employment opportunities income and well being it is also highly beneficial for achieving gender equality and desirable economic social and health outcomes Handbook of Education Policy Research Janelle Scott, 2025-07-17 The second edition of the Handbook of Education Policy Research the largest volume published in AERA's history addresses a variety of policy and contextual issues in early childhood K 12 and postsecondary education that have received extensive empirical attention during the past 15 years With the pandemic and social turmoil as a backdrop the editors build on the breadth and depth of the first edition while expanding the scope of the project to include subjects methods theories and analyses that have contributed powerfully to the study of education policy and politics in the 2010s and 2020s The field has become more comprehensive and inclusive and the authors represent a diversity of racial ethnic and gender identities and intellectual and disciplinary orientations Most chapters come from multiple authors reflecting the multi sourced development of research in education policy since the first volume was published This compilation consists of 70 chapters and nine commentaries that map past present and future directions of the field and richly attend to critical issues of interest to students researchers policy makers and practitioners The Oxford Handbook of International Refugee Law Cathryn Costello, Michelle Foster, Jane McAdam, 2021-06-02 The Oxford Handbook of International Refugee Law is a comprehensive critical work which analyses the state of research across the refugee law regime as a whole Drawing together leading and emerging scholars the Handbook provides both doctrinal and theoretical analyses of international refugee law and practice It critiques existing law from a variety of normative positions with several chapters identifying foundational flaws that open up space for radical rethinking Many authors work directly in the field and their contributions demonstrate how scholarship and practice can mutually inform each other Contributions assess a wide range of international legal instruments relevant to refugee protection including from international human rights law international humanitarian law international migration law the law of the sea and international and transnational criminal law Geographically contributors examine regional and domestic laws and practices from around the world with 10 chapters focused on specific regions This Handbook provides an account as well as a critique of the status quo and in so doing it sets the agenda for future academic research in international refugee law
