Myth, Identity, and Conflict Anamaria Dutceac Segesten,2011-09-16 Myth Identity and Conflict A Comparative Analysis of Romanian and Serbian Textbooks by Anamaria Dutceac Segesten is an examination of how history and politics became entangled in Romania and Serbia In it Segesten asks questions like Is myth present in the history textbooks of Romania and Serbia If so are there differences in the ways these myths define the in group and the relationship with the Other between a country that experienced interethnic conflict Serbia and a country that did not Romania Do textbooks affect the odds that conflict will occur Segesten's findings confirm the presence of mythologized versions of the past in the history textbooks of both countries over the entire fifteen year period studied 1992–2007 despite claims for professionalization of textbook making. Myths of noble origins of heroism and victimhood appear in both cases Segesten finds the language to be ideological and in favor of the ethnic majority even if over time there is a slow tendency towards moderation especially in Romania probably due to the influence of the European Union. Ultimately Myth Identity and Conflict by Anamaria Dutceac Segesten questions the alleged power of history textbooks to make a difference in ethnically divided societies prone to conflicts Bringing the Dark Past to Light John-Paul Himka, Joanna Beata Michlic, 2013-07-01 Despite the Holocaust's profound impact on the history of Eastern Europe the communist regimes successfully repressed public discourse about and memory of this tragedy. Since the collapse of communism in 1989 however this has changed Not only has a wealth of archival sources become available but there have also been oral history projects and interviews recording the testimonies of eyewitnesses who experienced the Holocaust as children and young adults Recent political social and cultural developments have facilitated a more nuanced and complex understanding of the continuities and discontinuities in representations of the Holocaust. People are beginning to realize the significant role that memory of Holocaust plays in contemporary discussions of national identity in Eastern Europe This volume of original essays explores the memory of the Holocaust and the Jewish past in postcommunist Eastern Europe Devoting space to every postcommunist country the essays in Bringing the Dark Past to Light explore how the memory of the dark pasts of Eastern European nations is being recollected and reworked In addition it examines how this memory shapes the collective identities and the social identity of ethnic and national minorities Memory of the Holocaust has practical implications regarding the current development of national cultures and international relationships

Fotea, Andrew R. Thomas, 2017-10-26 This book explores the increased necessity of organizations to encourage human talent in the globalized economy with particular emphasis on the impact in Eastern Europe. Featuring contributions presented at the 7th Annual Griffiths School of Management International Conference on Business and Ethics GSMAC organized by Emanuel University of Oradea this book presents in depth analysis of the economic social and religious implications of the transition from low cost of labor to increased human talent in Eastern Europe and offers multiple theoretical and practical solutions. In 2004 Klaus Schwab president and founder of the World Economic Forum stated that the old era of capitalism and socialism is being replaced by a new era of talentalism. The true competitive advantage of organizations and nations is increasingly becoming human talent defined as the ability to have new ideas that have value. Nations and organizations are exploring ways to reform their education systems and organizational structures in order to train, foster and encourage human talent. In Eastern Europe since the fall of communism in 1989 the competitive advantage of the region has been low cost of labor. However, since the integration within the European Union millions of Eastern Europeans have left their home countries rendering the low wage competitive advantage almost obsolete. In addition the migration of able working individuals has left behind mainly children and pensioners placing a disproportionately heavy burden upon public and government services. It is within this context that the contents of this book explore the impact of the increased need of high human talent on Eastern European countries. Featuring contributions around topics such as poverty healthcare management cross border cooperation education systems and religious influence on economic development this book will be of interest of scholars researchers students and policy makers interested in the business development and economic growth of Eastern Europe.

When the Future Came: The Collapse of the USSR and the Emergence of National Memory in Post-Soviet History Textbooks

Li Kurbatov, Sergiy Bennich-Björkman, 2019-11-30 This captivating volume brings together case studies drawn from four post Soviet states Russia Ukraine Belarus and Moldova. The collected papers illustrate how the events that started in 1985 and brought down the USSR six years later led to the rise of fifteen successor states with their own historicized collective memories. The volume's analyses juxtapose history textbooks for secondary schools and universities and how they aim to create understandings as well as identities that are politically usable within their different contexts. From this emerges a picture of multiple perestroika's and diverging development paths. Only in Ukraine a country that recently experienced two popular uprisings the Orange Revolution and the Revolution of Dignity the people themselves are ascribed agency and the power to change their country. In the other three states elites are instead presented as prime movers of society as is historical determinism. The volume's contributors are Diana Bencheci Andrei Dudchik Liliya Erushkina Marharyta Fabrykant, Alexandr Gorylev Andrey Kashin Alla Marchenko Valerii Mosneagu Alexey Rusakov Natalia Tregubova and Yuliya Yurchuk.
