Straley, 2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma'arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the

Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void The Broadview Guide to Writing - Revised Canadian Sixth Edition Doug Babington, Don

LePan, Maureen Okun, Nora Ruddock, 2016-12-15 Increasingly writing handbooks are seen as over produced and overpriced One stands out The Broadview Guide to Writing is published in an elegant but simple format and sells for roughly half the price of its fancier looking competitors That does not change with the new edition what does change and stay up to date is the book's contents For the sixth edition the coverage of APA Chicago and CSE styles of documentation has been substantially expanded the MLA section has now been fully revised to take into account all the 2016 changes Also expanded is coverage of academic argument of writing and critical thinking of writing about literature of paragraphing of how to integrate quoted material into one's own work of balance and parallelism and of issues of gender race religion etc in writing The chapter Seeing and Meaning Reading and Writing About Visual Images is entirely new to the sixth edition
