Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2018-12-07 The Nasty Woman and the Neo Femme Fatale in Contemporary Cinema puts forward the theoretical notion of the nasty woman as a means of examining female protagonists in contemporary culture and cinema particularly films directed by women The phrase is taken from an insult thrown at Hillary Clinton during the 2016 Presidential election debates and reclaimed by the feminists worldwide The volume also draws from the figure of the femme fatale in film noir Piotrowska presents the nasty woman across cultural and mythical landscape as a figure fighting against the entitlement of the patriarchy The writer argues that in films such as Zero Dark Thirty Red Road Stories We Tell and even Gone Girl the nastiness of female characters creates a new space for reflection on contemporary society and its struggles against patriarchal systems The nasty woman or neo femme fatale is a figure who disrupts stable situations and norms she is pro active and self determining and at times unafraid to use dubious means to achieve her goals She is often single but when married she subverts and undermines the fundamental principles of this patriarchal institution For students and researchers in Cultural Studies Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies Film Studies and Psychoanalysis in Film Studies The Nasty Woman and the Neo Femme Fatale in Contemporary Cinema offers an original way of thinking about female creativity and subjectivity It is also a proud celebration of feminist and female authorship in contemporary Hollywood

The Neoliberal Imagination in Contemporary Literature Tammy Amiel Houser, 2024-08-06 This book examines the relationship between empathy and neoliberalism as it unfolded in the aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis and through the turbulent 2010s. Via close readings of contemporary novels as well as various non-fictional texts, it traces the changing approaches to empathy in the post-financial crisis imagination, highlighting a crucial re-conceptualization of empathy as a boundaryless force untethered to local or social circumstance. This reconceptualization implicitly aligns empathy with the neoliberal ethos of globalism and distances it from the traditional notion of sympathy. Via complex dialogue with the novelistic tradition of sympathy, contemporary novelists highlight the problematics of boundaryless empathy while exploring ways to resist neoliberal views and values. Analyzing engagements with empathy in post-2008 literature and culture, the book sheds light on the underlying affective dynamics that enabled the persistence of neoliberalism after the 2008 financial crisis, alongside efforts to challenge its dominance.
