

GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST

God

The Bible states that God created everything including us. He has authority to tell us how to live. Sin is the rejection of God's authority over us. God is loving, and he is righteous. Therefore, God cannot ignore sin and leave the guilty unpunished.

Man

Man rejects God and is guilty of sin. Since Adam, sin has corrupted every part of our human existence. Our entire being is under sin's power. The penalty of sin is physical and spiritual death. Our final destiny is eternal, active judgment in hell.

Christ

Jesus is truly God and man. He came to die on the cross as a substitute for his people and to pay sin's penalty. Jesus rose from the dead, assuring us that God's wrath is satisfied. Sinners can be freed from sin's power and reconciled with God.

Response

We must repent from sin and trust in Jesus alone to save us from sin and the coming judgment. When we believe in Jesus, all our sin is placed on Jesus, and the perfect life Jesus lived is credited to us. We are saved by grace alone through faith alone.

Synoptic Gospels and the Psalms as Prophecy J. Samuel Subramanian, 2007-01-01 The Book of Psalms is one of the most frequently cited books in the New Testament The Synoptic Evangelists seem to read the Psalms not primarily as prayers but as prophecies of the future They discovered in its language prophecies concerning the life and ministry of Jesus and attempted to show how Jesus life was prefigured in the Psalms Samuel Subramanian examines the topic within the broader use of the Old Testament in the New Testament that of the prophetic reading of the Psalms in the Synoptic Gospels and in the context of Second Temple Judaism Although others have treated individual psalm quotations as prophecy my work is the first to examine all of the psalm quotations within the Synoptic Gospels in this light and the first to demonstrate that these excerpts were used prophetically In some cases these psalm quotations were used by the Synoptic Evangelists in a manner that is thought to fulfill a prophecy from or about Jesus within the gospel narratives even though this particular use of the psalms by the Synoptic Evangelists has not been widely recognized previously This study shows how similar exegetical techniques of looking for prophecies in the Psalms was practiced by non Christian Jews of the period     Themes from the Gospel of John Michael Hickey, 2021-05-20 This book seeks to uncover the underlying message of the Gospel of John through its four major themes and several sub themes The major themes discussed are The Logos Prologue The Book of Signs The Book of Glory and The Epilogue The many sub themes interspersed throughout the Gospel are The I am Sayings Faith and Believing Knowing and Unknowing Light and Darkness Seeing and Blindness Ascent and Descent Life and Death Abiding and Discipleship Bread and Water Love Two Extended Allegories Judgment and the World Son of Man Son of God and Spirit Paraclete and Truth     The Gospel of John Leader Guide Amy-Jill Levine, 2024-08-20 Unlock the hidden depths of John's Gospel The leader guide contains discussion questions and session plans for a six week study of The Gospel of John by Amy Jill Levine It includes opening and closing prayers optional activities and session goals for each week and is designed to be used with the book and DVD John's Gospel offers readers a new language of being born anew of living water of wind and spirit of the I am that enhances how we understand the divine how we experience the world and how we participate in the mystery of faith With her characteristic wit and charm Amy Jill Levine introduces readers to the world of the Gospel of John by unpacking the stories in their original context along with examining how the text is read today This book considers the Gospel of John in its entirety moving through the Gospel and exploring the prologue the wedding at Cana the Samaritan woman at the well and the woman caught in adultery the healing of the man at the pool and the man born blind foot washing Mary Magdalene and Doubting Thomas and the Lamb of God     Spirituality of the Gospels Patrick J. Hartin, 2025-01-15 Within each of the four gospels there is a foundational spirit a rich spirituality based on each gospel's unique understanding of Jesus and what it means to be his disciple In this study Fr Patrick Hartin looks at each gospel and asks such questions as Who is Jesus and What transformation does this encounter with Jesus invite Hartin thoroughly unpacks these questions and then follows with examples of people who embody the transformative power of these spiritualities from Saint Francis and

The Problem of Blasphemy: The Fourth Gospel and Early Jewish Understandings Jerry D. Truex, 2010-11-11 This doctoral thesis provides evidence that during the later part of the first century certain Jewish Christians who produced and propagated the Fourth Gospel were perceived to be blasphemous and therefore cut off kareit from the synagogue as reflected in John 9 22 12 42 and 16 2 This study reviews recent research on blasphemy offers analysis based on hundreds of ancient Jewish texts and examines seven Jewish traditions pertaining to blasphemy including cursing God naming The Name and sinning with a high hand A composite portrait of blasphemy is sketched and compared with the theological claims of the Fourth Gospel Three theological claims of the Fourth Gospel stand out as potentially blasphemous Jesus is equal with God Jesus and the Johannine Community constitute the New Temple and Judean religious leaders are not of God The perception of blasphemy and the inability to tolerate it explains why some Jewish Christians could not remain in the synagogue

The Gospel of Matthew and Its Readers Howard W. Clarke, 2003-08-07 The Gospel of Matthew and Its Readers is a biblical commentary with a difference Howard Clarke first establishes contemporary scholarship s mainstream view of Matthew s Gospel and then presents a sampling of the ways this text has been read understood and applied through two millennia By referring forward to Matthew s readers rather than back to the text s composers the book exploits the tensions between what contemporary scholars understand to be the intent of the author of Matthew and the quite different indeed often eccentric and bizarre ways this text has been understood assimilated and applied over the years The commentary is a testament to the ambiguities and elasticity of the text and a cogent reminder that interpretations are not fixed nor texts immutably relevant And unlike other commentaries this one gives space to those who have questioned rejected or even ridiculed Matthew s messages since Bible bashing like Bible thumping is a historically significant part of the experience of reading the Bible     Workbook for Lectors, Gospel Readers, and Proclaimers of the Word® 2026 María Enid Barga ,Fr. Stephen Lampe,Eric J. Wagner,Deborah Wilhelm,2025-08-01 Workbook for Lectors Gospel Readers and Proclaimers of the Word 2026 provides insightful commentaries and practical advice for those who proclaim the Word of God at Mass It includes this year s readings in large print for practice commentaries that deepen the reader s understanding of Scripture and margin notes to help the reader proclaim the Word of God with confidence     The Gospel in the Dock Bryan M. Christman,2021-08-10 C S Lewis famously penned the phrase God in the Dock and proposed that there was a great divide between ancient and modern humans in that our ancestors would have rightly seen themselves in the dock before God while we moderns have placed God there before us But what if what God s love most desires for us the gospel or good news of the only way of life for humanity has been in the dock before us from the time of Adam and Eve And what if it is also the case that the gospel is often in the dock as though it is not good even for the church This book builds upon and expands the life and death stakes Lewis proposed by demonstrating that the gospel way of faith itself has been placed in the dock by us and in many ways ruined our relationships with God with our own selves with one another and even with the natural world itself which we are meant to steward for its good In these pages the reader will discover why the gospel that requires faith is good news but why we so tragically default to our divisive and self destructive ways
