Part-I: Reading Test (60 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions:

The term 'diaspora' is used to refer to people who have left their homelands and settled in other parts of the world, either because they were forced to do so or because they wanted to leave on their own. The word is increasingly used for such people as a collective group and/or a community. The world has seen many diasporas but scholars have been studying the phenomenon with great interest only in recent decades.

Among the great diasporas of history is that of the Jewish people, who were forced to leave their lands in ancient times. The movement of Aryans from Central Europe to the Indian sub-continent thousands of years ago is also a noteworthy diaspora, although the causes of this diaspora are unclear. In twentieth century history, the Palestinian diaspora has attracted a lot of attention and been a cause of concern for world leaders because of the plight of Palestinians. There have been massive diasporas in Africa, too, over the centuries, either because of war or because of the ravages of nature. But the chief reason why the phenomenon of diaspora is attracting so much attention now is globalization.

[Unit-11; Lesson-1]

1.A. Choose the correct answer from the alternatives: 1×5 = 5

a. What does diaspora mean?

- i) living in own country
- ii) travel
- iii) group of people
- iv) migration

Engaging Curriculum Bill Green,2017-09-18 Explicitly linking curriculum inquiry to English education via recurring themes of representation democracy and knowledge this book is a call for both researchers and practitioners to engage with curriculum explicitly and deliberatively as both a concept and a question The approach is broadly conceptual and constitutes an exercise in theoretical and philosophical inquiry While deeply informed by North American debates and developments this book offers a distinctive counterpoint and a strategically ex centric perspective being equally informed by the curriculum scene in Australia as well as the UK and elsewhere Divided into two sections this book first addresses matters of general curriculum inquiry while the second turns more specifically to English teaching and to associated questions of language literacy and literature in L1 education Green brings the two together through a critical examination of the Australian national curriculum especially in its implications and challenges for English teaching and with due regard for the project of transnational curriculum inquiry

The Battle of Carham Neil McGuigan,Alex Woolf,2018-11-08 Very little is known about the battle of Carham fought between the Scots and Northumbrians in 1018 The leaders were probably M el Colum II king of Scotland and Uhtred of Bamburgh earl or ealdorman in Northumbria The outcome of the battle was a victory for the Scots seen by some as a pivotal event in the expansion of the Scottish kingdom the demise of Northumbria and the Scottish conquest of Lothian The battle also removed a potentially significant source of resistance to the recent conqueror of England Cnut This collection of essays by a range of subject specialists explores the battle in its context bringing new understanding of this important and controversial historical event Topics covered include Anglo Scottish relations the political character and ecclesiastical organisation of the Northumbrian territory ruled by Uhtred material from the Chronicles and other historical records that brings the era to light and the archaeological and sculptural landscape of the tenth and eleventh century Tweed basin where the battle took place
