Matric Maths Papers February March 2014:

Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy. The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages. Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools. The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully. The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience.

Teacher Education in Professional Learning Communities Xuefeng Huang, 2018-06-20 This book explores the unique experiences of a sister school network in Canada and China contextualized through the lens of the Reciprocal Learning Project which supports the relationship between a school network and teacher education exchange program of two countries. Huang uses theoretical viewpoints from teacher learning and comparative education research to analyse and interpret what has happened in the emerging cross cultural school network. The book juxtaposes teacher learning and comparative education research from Shanghai and Ontario as teachers in the two places interact and provides detailed descriptions of teacher collaboration to show how these collaborations were initiated, developed and sustained as well as the impact brought about from these collaborations. The book offers a unique opportunity to examine how Canadian and Chinese teachers receive and react to opportunities of cross cultural collaboration and learning.

Special Duty Richard J. Samuels, 2019-10-15 The prewar history of the Japanese intelligence community demonstrates how having power over much but insight into little can have devastating consequences. Its postwar history of limited Japanese power despite growing insight has also been problematic for national security. In Special Duty Richard J. Samuels dissects the fascinating history of the intelligence community in Japan. Looking at the impact of shifts in the strategic environment, technological change and past failures, he probes the reasons why Japan has endured such a roller coaster ride when it comes to intelligence gathering and analysis and concludes that the ups and downs of the past century combined with growing uncertainties in the regional security environment have convinced Japanese leaders of the critical importance of striking balance between power and insight. Using examples of excessive hubris and debilitating bureaucratic competition before the Asia Pacific War, the unavoidable dependence on US assets and popular sensitivity to security issues after World War II and the tardy adoption of image processing and cyber technologies, Samuels' bold book highlights the century long history of Japan's struggles to develop a fully functioning and effective intelligence capability and makes clear that Japanese leaders have begun to reinvent their nation's intelligence community.

Common Sense Mathematics Ethan D. Bolker,Maura B. Mast,2016-05-04 Common Sense Mathematics is a text for a one semester college level course in quantitative literacy The text emphasizes common sense and common knowledge in approaching real problems through popular news items and finding useful mathematical tools and frames with which to address those questions We asked ourselves what we hoped our students would remember about this course in ten year s time From that ten year perspective thoughts about syllabus what topics should we cover seemed much too narrow What matters more is our wish to change the way our students minds work the way they approach a problem or more generally the way they approach the world Most people skip the numbers in newspapers magazines on the web and more importantly even in financial information We hope that in ten years our students will follow the news confident in their ability to make sense of the numbers they find there and in their daily lives Most quantitative reasoning texts are arranged by mathematical topics to be mastered Since the mathematics is only a part of what we hope students learn we ve chosen another strategy We look at real life stories that can be best understood with careful reading and a little mathematics
