

Part 1: Design

10 marks

1. Identify listed issues: Each learner in the group generates possible design ideas, then shares these ideas, providing as much detail as possible.
2. Evaluate and design: Teams evaluate individual design ideas and collectively develop a final design idea based on the strengths of each member's ideas.
3. Design brief: Write a design brief with detailed specifications for the final design idea, covering essential tasks or uses, materials, safety, and functionality.
4. Flow chart: Teams discuss how to proceed with the design and construction phases, and each learner creates a flowchart to outline the steps to be taken.

Part 2: Pricing and Bidding

10 marks

1. Working drawings: Each learner is responsible for creating detailed plan drawings for an aspect of the plan, using first-angle orthographic projection. Ensure that you add a suitable scale, correct line types, and dimensions.
2. Budget: Prepare a budget for the "real-life" situation, including necessary materials and labour costs. Ensure that your budget is realistic and based on real market costs.
3. Model of a viable solution: Build a scale model of your final design idea. The model should be constructed neatly and show intelligent use of materials, design practice, safety, when working with tools and materials.

Part 3: Evaluation

10 marks

1. Evaluation instrument: Collaborate as a team to create an evaluation instrument. This instrument will be used to assess your team's solution and another team's solution. You will use this during the presentation phase.

Part 4: Communication

10 marks

1. Team Presentation: Teams will present their tender bid to the "Tender board" (your teacher and classmates). Each team member must be responsible for presenting a specific aspect of the project. Your presentation should include drawings, plans, the budget, the model, and written responses.

Community Issues – The Contractors

In this Mini-PAT (Practical Assessment Task), you will act as part of a contracting company competing for a contract to design and build a structure that addresses a problem facing a community. The project will focus on identifying a problem, investigating possible solutions, designing a structure, costing the project, and evaluating the final solution. You will be working in a group.

1. Scenario Introduction: A community lives on a major river's far bank. The river is wide and deep, preventing the people from reaching the city on the opposite side. This means that the people cannot take advantage of the work opportunities, the excellent medical and educational facilities, and the wide range of shops available in the city.

2. Investigation: Teams discuss possible structures to solve

teaching children how to read while enabling them to build good habits so they fall in love with reading Many teachers find the independent reading workshop to be the component of reading instruction that meets this challenge because it makes it possible to teach the reading skills and strategies children need and guides them toward independence intention and joy as readers In Growing Readers Kathy Collins helps teachers plan for independent reading workshops in their own classrooms She describes the structure of the independent reading workshop and other components of a balanced literacy program that work together to ensure young students grow into strong well rounded readers Kathy outlines a sequence of possible units of study for a yearlong curriculum Chapters are devoted to the individual units of study and include a sample curriculum as well as examples of mini lessons and reading conferences There are also four Getting Ready sections that suggest some behind the scenes work teachers can do to prepare for the units Topics explored in these units include print and comprehension strategies reading in genres such as poetry and nonfiction connecting in school reading and out of school reading developing the strategies and habits of lifelong readers A series of planning sheets and management tips are presented throughout to help ensure smooth implementation We want our students to learn to read and we want them to love to read To do this we need to lay a foundation on which children build rich and purposeful reading lives that extend beyond the school day The ideas found in Growing Readers create the kind of primary classrooms where that happens Federal Register ,1977

The Sixth Borough Myron S. Lubell,2013-04-03 In 1951 Miami Beach Florida was one of the most popular resort cities in America the warm weather and tranquil beaches of this tropical paradise attracted thousands of winter visitors mostly Jewish tourists who made the two day drive from New York In addition the resident population of this small island was primarily from New York Thus the city of Miami Beach was sometimes referred to as the SIXTH BOROUGH of New York However if you ventured off the island and crossed the beautiful expanse of Biscayne Bay you were in another world you were in the deep south where Jews were often envisioned as demons with horns colored people were second class citizens and racial laws were reminiscent of Nuremberg and Berlin Myron Lindell was twelve when he moved from Chicago where he was a secular Jew barely aware of his religious or ethnic heritage But In Miami Beach on a Jewish Island he had an odd feeling he was different He survived the move by blending fantasy with reality and if reality was more than he could handle he escaped by writing adolescent observations in a journal creating imaginative short stories and essays which he rarely shared with anyone except his father a few teachers and a street smart female classmate This compilation of memoirs is not a documentary it is just a testimony to the value of simple memories Too often historians have forgotten the individual view the poetic view which might be closer to reality than the consensus Resources in Education ,1998 Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office United States.
