Description: This film depicts the early life of Helen Keller (1880 - 1968). Although blind, deaf and mute from the age of six months, Helen Keller learned to read, write and speak. She graduated from Radcliffe College with Honors in 1904 and became world famous for her triumph over her handicaps.

In The Miracle Worker Anne Sullivan teaches Helen Keller the principal of symbolic communication, i.e., that shapes of the hand, when communicating in sign language, represent objects in the real world.

Benefits: The Miracle Worker will help introduce children to Helen Keller and Anne Sullivan. Their story shows the strength and power of human will and its ability to triumph over the most devastating handicaps. Helen Keller is one of the most remarkable people ever to have lived. She is a role model for a person who triumphs over profound handicaps. Anne Sullivan is a role model for a sensitive and innovative teacher. Without Sullivan, Keller would probably not have realized her great potential.

The film can also serve as a springboard for a discussion of the meaning and importance of symbolic language.

Possible Problems: MINOR. This movie shows the South in the period called the "Redemption" when Southern Whites regained control of the Southern Governments after the collapse of Reconstruction. The men spend their free time reliving the lost war. The Black characters in the movie are all stereotyped but they do not have important roles.

The teaching sessions sometimes degenerate into fights between Anne Sullivan and an undisciplined Helen Keller. These scenes may scare children of less than eight years.

Awards: 1962 Academy Awards: Best Actress (Bancroft), Best Supporting Actress (Duke); 1962 National Board of Review Awards: Ten Best Films of the Year, Best Actress (Bancroft); 1962 Academy Awards Nominations: Best Adapted Screenplay, Best Costume Design (B&W), Best Director (Penn).
