The Bulletin Louisiana Library Association,1961 The American Red Cross Bulletin ,1909 New York Magazine ,1990-01-08 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea You'll Do Marcia A. Zug,2024-01-09 An illuminating and thought provoking examination of the uniquely American institution of marriage from the Colonial era through the MeToo age Perfect for fans of Rebecca Solnit and Rebecca Traister Americans hold marriage in such high esteem that we push people toward it reward them for taking part in it and fetishize its benefits to the point that we routinely ignore or excuse bad behavior and societal ills in the name of protecting and promoting it In eras of slavery and segregation Blacks sometimes gained white legal status through marriage Laws have been designed to encourage people to marry so that certain societal benefits could be achieved the population would increase women would have financial security children would be cared for and immigrants would have familial connections As late as the Great Depression poor young women were encouraged to marry aged Civil War veterans for lifetime pensions The widely overlooked problem with this tradition is that individuals and society have relied on marriage to address or dismiss a range of injustices and inequities from gender and race based discrimination sexual violence and predation to unequal financial treatment One of the most persuasive arguments against women s right to vote was that marrying and influencing their husband s choices was just as meaningful if not better Through revealing storytelling Zug builds a compelling case that when marriage is touted as the solution to such problems it absolves the government and society of the responsibility for directly addressing them The Red Cross Magazine American Red Cross. Central Committee,1912 Report of the Secretary of War, which Accompanied the Annual Message of the President of the United States, to Both Houses of the ... Congress ,1901 The Red Cross Magazine ,1911 One Dies, Get Another Matthew J. Mancini,2022-10-19 A chronicle one of the harshest most exploitative labor systems in American history In his seminal study of convict leasing in the post Civil War South Matthew J Mancini chronicles one of the harshest most exploitative labor systems in American history Devastated by war bewildered by peace and unprepared to confront the problems of prison management Southern states sought to alleviate the need for cheap labor a perceived rise in criminal behavior and the bankruptcy of their state treasuries Mancini describes the policy of leasing prisoners to individuals and corporations as one that in addition to reducing prison populations and generating revenues offered a means of racial subordination and labor discipline He identifies commonalities that despite the seemingly uneven enforcement of convict leasing across state lines bound the South together for more than half a century in reliance on an institution of almost unrelieved brutality He describes the prisoners daily existence profiles the individuals who leased convicts and reveals both the inhumanity of the leasing laws and the centrality of race relations in the establishment and perpetuation of convict leasing In considering the longevity of the practice Mancini takes issue with the widespread notion that convict leasing was an aberration in a generally progressive history of criminal justice In explaining its dramatic demise Mancini contends that moral opposition was a distinctly minor force in the abolition of the practice and that only a combination of rising lease prices and years of economic decline forced an end to convict leasing in the South
