Tucker, 2007-04-01 According to Ken Tucker television is where the mass culture action really is It s where the weasel goes pop But for such a fluid of the moment democratic yet cool medium a strangling accretion of false pieties half remembered history and misplaced nostalgia has grown up around it the prose equivalent of choking vines In this book Ken Tucker shares his zealous opinions about the best and worst of television past and present Everyone has firm beliefs about what he loves and hates about TV If TV fans think the high point of televised political wit was M A S H or that Johnny Carson was the true king of late night Ken Tucker does his damndest to convince them that they ve been hoodwinked duped by pixilated mists of memory and bad TV criticism His dazzling provocative and entertaining pieces include LOVES James Garner as TV s Cary Grant Pamela Anderson s breasts David Brinkley the only anchor who understood that being an anchor was a hollow ego trip Heather Locklear as the ultimate TV Personality Bill O Reilly why the biggest asshole on TV is a great TV personality And from his HATE lists The Sopranos as The Great Saga That Sags Miss Peggy as media star Bob Newhart Human Prozac Worst Mothers on TV Star Trek Sci Fi suckiness decked out as utopian idealism His perception and passion about this much maligned medium gives the lie to passive clich s like vegging out in front of the boob tube This book is the TV version of Michael Moore s Stupid White Men or Bill O Reilly s The No Spin Zone TV Guide: TV on DVD 2006 TV Guide, 2005-10

enthusiastically to home video games and to a myth like Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles And how are such fads related to multinational media mergers and the new world order In assessing these questions Marsha Kinder provides a brilliant new perspective on modern media How do children today learn to understand stories Why do they respond so enthusiastically to home video games and to a myth like Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles And how are such fads related to multinational media mergers and the new world order In asse Spectatorship Roxanne Samer,William Whittington,2017-10-25 Media platforms continually evolve but the issues surrounding media representations of gender and sexuality have persisted across decades Spectator The University of Southern California Journal of Film and Television Criticism has published groundbreaking articles on gender and sexuality including some that have become canonical in film studies since the journal s founding in 1982 This anthology collects seventeen key articles that will enable readers to revisit foundational concerns about gender in media and discover models of analysis that can be applied to the changing media world today Spectatorship begins with articles that consider issues of spectatorship in film and television content and audience reception noting how media studies has expanded as a field and demonstrating how theories of gender and sexuality have adapted to new media platforms Subsequent articles show how new theories emerged from that initial scholarship helping to develop the fields of fandom transmedia and queer theory The most recent work in this volume is particularly timely as the distinctions between media producers and media spectators grow more fluid and as the transformation of media structures and platforms prompts new understandings of gender sexuality and identification Connecting contemporary approaches to media with critical conversations of the past Spectatorship thus offers important points of historical and critical departure for discussion in both the classroom and the field A Dictionary of Cinema Quotations from Filmmakers and Critics Stephen M.
