Rutledge, 2019-02-28 Of Angie Estes the poet and critic Stephanie Burt has written that she has created some of the most beautiful verbal objects in the world In The Allure of Grammar Doug Rutledge gathers insightful responses to the full range of Estes's work from a review of her first chapbook to a reading of a poem appearing in her 2018 book Parole that approach these beautiful verbal objects with both intellectual rigor and genuine awe In addition to presenting an overview of critical reactions to Estes's oeuvre reviews by Langdon Hammer Julianne Buchsbaum and Christopher Spaide also provide a helpful context for approaching a poet who claims to distrust narrative Original essays consider the craft of Estes's poetry and offer literary analysis Ahren Warner uses line breaks to explore a postmodern analysis of Estes's work Mark Irwin looks at her poetic structure Lee Upton employs a feminist perspective to explore Estes's use of italics and B K Fischer looks at the way she uses dance as a poetic image Doug Rutledge considers her relationship to Dante and to the literary tradition through her use of ekphrasis An interview with Estes herself in which she speaks of a poem as an arranged place where experience happens adds her perspective to the mix at turns resonating with and challenging her critics The Allure of Grammar will be useful for teachers and students of creative writing interested in the craft of non narrative poetry Readers of contemporary poetry who already admire Estes will find this collection insightful while those not yet familiar with her work will come away from these essays eager to seek out her books

Beyond Good and Evil..... Is Paradise Dr. Adrianna Scheibner,2014-08-28 Asleep to the All Embracing Presence of God we dream of good and evil The answer that would take us out of this drama of pain suffering and never ending conflicts is so simple it defies all human logic For how can a mere conscious awareness of the Presence of Spirit reverse all the laws of the world Beyond every restriction of time space distance and limits of any kind Conscious awareness of the Presence of God as One with All is The Key that allows Gods unlimited Power to manifest in our actual experience there is no order of difficulty in miracles Gods Laws supersede all laws that pertain to the material reality It is simple because no one needs to practice what he already is we just need to realize it YET as Nelson Mandela has said Our greatest fear is not that we are inadequate but that we are powerful beyond measure It is our light not our darkness that frightens us We ask ourselves Who am I to be brilliant gorgeous handsome talented and fabulous Actually who are you not to be You are a child of God Your playing small does not serve the world There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you We were born to make manifest the glory of God within us It is not just in some it is in everyone And as we let our own light shine we consciously give other people permission to do the same As we are liberated from our fear our presence automatically liberates others
