Dear _____,

Recipient's Name

God has presented me with an amazing opportunity. This year, I have felt the pull in my heart to go on a mission trip to _____ through _____.

Location

Name of Church

Following the will of God, I will be there from _____ to _____.

I will be staying with _____ and partnering with them to share the healing love of Jesus Christ.

During our stay, we will take on numerous tasks. Some of these include, among other acts of evangelism, the following:

I am bursting with excitement and intent to carry out God's good intentions. I know that the experience will serve not only those in the community I am venturing to but myself as well. I hope to learn how to further the mission at home and bring back tales of how I have seen God work.

Foreign Missionary Background and Indigenous Evangelization in Igboland Nkem Hyginus M. V. Chigere, 2001

Constructing Mission History Stanley H. Skreslet, 2023-01-17 Three master narratives currently dominate the analysis of modern mission history One puts foreign missionaries at the heart of the story A second emphasizes the colonial aspect of modern missions Here missionaries are not heroes but villains who are implicated in hegemonic schemes of imperial domination Thirdly mission history is subordinated to one of its outcomes the advent of World Christianity In this master narrative the concept of contextualization looms large bolstered by Sanneh's notion of translatability and emphasis on the agency of non Westerners who participate in and subtly shape the complex social processes of evangelization While all three of these master narratives are insightful none of them adequately balances concern for missionary initiative and indigenous agency Borrowing from speech act theory Skreslet offers a new analytical approach to the modern roots of World Christianity that differentiates between what a speaker might intend to communicate and the effects of what has been said or actions taken both in the moment and over time Corresponding to the concepts of illocution and perlocution as these technical terms are used in speech act theory the book is structured in two main sections Initially the focus is on expressed missionary motives Part two engages a representative set of modern era mission performances involving many more actors than just the foreign evangelizers whose stated or implied intentions are emphasized in part one Together in One Mission Arto

Hamalainen, Grant McClung, 2012-09-27 The Spirit of Development Erica Bornstein, 2005 This book is an examination of the connections between modern economic practices globalization and contemporary Christian religious belief based on an ethnographic study of NGOs in Zimbabwe It addresses issues crucial for those interested in the strengths and weaknesses of development theory and practice as well as in Protestant Christianity as a transnational religion For the Love of God Jerry M. Ireland, 2017-03-23 Compassionate missions constitutes a growing focus among evangelical denominations and agencies Because of this there exists a growing need to be guided by sound principles and best practices This edited volume sets forth both the biblical foundations and preferred methods for churches wanting to engage in compassion as part of their missionary efforts The aim throughout is that compassionate missions would be guided by indigenous principles that help establish autonomous local churches capable of being salt and light in their communities The contributors to this volume have over 200 years of missions experience Through their first hand knowledge of the challenges and pitfalls faced by missionaries engaging in compassion these authors set forth foundational principles and practical guidelines related to some of the most pressing issues confronting missionaries today These include HIV AIDS UPGs human trafficking orphans and vulnerable children gender issues and many more Pastors missionaries missions boards and educators will find this a valuable resource as the church in the twenty first century continues to engage in the Great Commission Christian Globalism at Home Hillary Kaell, 2020-06-09 An exploration of how ordinary U S Christians come to feel globally connected through the multibillion dollar child sponsorship industry Christian Globalism at Home looks at the massive charitable industry that is Christian child sponsorship from its growth in nineteenth century Protestant missions to its status as one of today s most profitable private fundraising tools Investigating two centuries of sponsorship and its related practices in American living rooms churches and shopping malls Hillary Kaell examines the myriad ways that Christians who don t travel outside of the United States have cultivated global connections and the ethical and ideological questions involved Popular child sponsorship organizations including World Vision Compassion International and ChildFund raise billions of dollars and circulate millions of letters and photos around the world annually Kaell traces the movement of money letters and images along with a wide array of the lesser known techniques of sponsorship such as playacting hymn singing eating and fasting She shows how through this process U S Christians attempt to hone globalism of a particular sort by oscillating between the sensory experiences of a God s eye view and the intimacy of human relatedness These global aspirations are buoyed by grand hopes and subject to intractable limitations since they so often rely on the inequities they claim to redress Based on extensive interviews archival research and fieldwork Christian Globalism at Home explores how U S Christians imagine and experience the world without ever leaving home Spirit of Missions , 1910 Successful Mission Teams Martha VanCise, 1996 All you need to know to plan a safe and hassle free mission trip This indispensable guide covers such common sense topics as customs currency security immunizations and fundraising Tides of Opportunity Sadiri Joy Tira, Damples

Dulcero-Baclagon, Lorajoy Tira-Dimangondayao, 2024-05-21 Hope and Hospitality for Migrating People Never have so many people left their homes and migrated to other parts of the world as we've seen in recent years. This phenomenon creates as many opportunities as challenges. We are witnessing a massive increase in urbanization, pluralization, multiculturalism, and interfaith dialogue. What are the implications for the church as it tries to reach the nations? Tides of Opportunity brings together experts from diverse backgrounds to consider the practical significance of this mass migration. The reasons for these population movements are as varied as the people. Sadiri Joy Tira explores several causes like military conflict, economic hardship, and natural disasters. The contributors not only explain such trends but suggest possible ways to engage with diaspora neighbors. Through case studies, this volume also examines lesser-known dynamics such as sex trafficking and the movement of immigrants to rural areas. This book challenges us to find more creative and integrated mission strategies for effectively reaching out to the various peoples on the move with the gospel. How will you respond to the tides of opportunity?

Financing American Religion Mark Chaves, Sharon L. Miller, 1998-11-03 Money always has been a subject of deep concern for religious leaders. In recent decades, however, this perennial concern has taken on a new urgency as a crisis situation is perceived. Financing American Religion brings together short, readable essays representing the best, most up-to-date research and thinking on the intersections of money and religion. Sociologists, historians, economists, and theologians ask who gives how much and why. They investigate how money moves and how it affects religious organizational behavior. And throughout, they explore how attitudes toward money have altered over time. Religious leaders and scholars of American religion will welcome this much-needed volume. The Acts and Proceedings of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada Presbyterian Church in Canada. General Assembly, 2002 Colonial Intimacies Erika Perez, 2018-01-25 A gem of historical scholarship. Vicki L. Ruiz, author of From Out of the Shadows: Mexican Women in Twentieth Century America. How do intimate relationships reveal, reflect, enable, or enact the social and political dimensions of imperial projects? In particular, how did colonial relations in late eighteenth and nineteenth-century southern California implicate sexuality, marriage, and kinship ties? In Colonial Intimacies, Erika Perez probes everyday relationships, encounters, and interactions to show how intimate choices about marriage, social networks, and godparentage were embedded in larger geopolitical concerns. Her work reveals, through the lens of social and familial intimacy, subtle tools of conquest and acts of resistance and accommodation among indigenous peoples, Spanish Mexican settlers, Franciscan missionaries, and European and Anglo-American merchants. Concentrating on Catholic conversion, compadrazgo (baptismal sponsorship) that often forged interethnic relations, and intermarriage, Perez examines the ways indigenous and Spanish Mexican women helped shape communities and sustained their culture. She uncovers an unexpected fluidity in Californian society shaped by race, class, gender, religion, and kinship that persisted through the colony's transition from Spanish to American rule. Colonial Intimacies focuses on the offspring of interethnic couples and their strategies for coping with colonial rule and negotiating racial and cultural identities.

P rez argues that these sons and daughters experienced conquest in different ways tied directly to their gender and in turn faced different options in terms of marriage partners economic status social networks and expressions of biculturalism Offering a more nuanced understanding of the colonial experience Colonial Intimacies exposes the personal ties that undergirded imperial relationships in Spanish Mexican and early American California Visualizing Violence in Francophone Cultures Magali Compan,2015-10-13 Visualizing Violence in Francophone Cultures brings together two complex and powerful loci of meaning violence and the visual As such it offers a comprehensive overview from which one can gain a better understanding of the complexity of the visual rhetoric of violence The visual representations of violence explored in this volume include both fictional works including for example narrative films graphic novels and theatre and non fictional genres such as news media and cultural artifacts This volume s strength is also grounded in its interdisciplinary approach by bringing together scholars from a variety of academic fields to examine a broad range of visual artifacts such as photography graphic novel films paintings objects the book offers a substantive corpus focusing on the rhetoric of violence The essays collected in this volume explore the ways in which visual expressions of violence have infiltrated diverse narrative forms and as such how they both construct and challenge general understandings of contemporary violence They all chart with cultural and historical specificity the way in which images of violence shape the visual imaginary of ethical worlds

Millard's Review of the Far East ,1930 Vol 34 includes Special tariff conference issue Nov 6 1925 The Oxford Handbook of Catholic Theology Lewis Ayres,Medi Ann Volpe,2019-03-28 The Oxford Handbook of Catholic Theology provides a one volume introduction to all the major aspects of Catholic theology Part One considers the nature of theological thinking and the major topics of Catholic teaching including the Triune God the Creation and the mission of the Incarnate Word It also covers the character of the Christian sacramental life and the major themes of Catholic moral teaching The treatments in the first part of the Handbook offer personal syntheses of Catholic teaching but each offers an account in accord with Catholic theology as it is expressed in the Second Vatican Council and authoritative documentation Part Two focuses on the historical development of Catholic Theology An initial section offers essays on some of Catholic theology s most important sources between 200 and 1870 and the final section of the collection considers all the main movements and developments in Catholic theology across the world since 1870 This comprehensive volume features fifty six original contributions by some of the best known names in current Catholic theology from the Americas Europe Asia and Africa The chapters are written in an engaging and easily comprehensible style functioning both as a scholarly reference and as a survey of the field There are no comparable studies available in one volume and the book will be an indispensable reference for students of Catholic theology at all levels and in all contexts The Missionary Herald at Home and Abroad ,1937
