Elly S Juxtapose:

Elly's Juxtapose Pauline Taylor, 2014-10 Some things need to be forgotten others cry to be uncovered When Eloise Smythe visits her aunt Tessa at Lake House it soon becomes apparent that her aunt is not alone in being glad for her company for in Lake House the past is running alongside the present and only Eloise holds the key that will make the spirits rest A fascinating story stretching from the Crusades to the present day Elly's Juxtapose follows the twists and turns of a love Contrapuntal in Integration Lisa Olson Paddock, 2000-07-26 William Faulkner's three short story collections while lacking the more obvious structural characteristics of his other works which are novelistic or episodic in nature demonstrate the concept of contrapuntal in integration Paddock explores Faulkner's conception of counterpoint in these collections where the placement of the units and the contrast between them serve to create a separate experience from reading the individual stories The author explores the rationale for the structure of These 13 Doctor Martino and Other Stories and Collected Stories Figurally Colored Narration Wolf Schmid, 2022-04-04 Figurally colored narration FCN is narrator's discourse whether in the first or third person that adopts salient features of character's text mainly valuation and designation without signaling the figural part in any way Unlike free indirect discourse FCN does not refer to current acts of consciousness but to typical characteristic segments of the character's text There are two main modes of FCN contagion of the narrator's discourse with a character's text and the more or less ironical reproduction of a character's text in narrative discourse In the latter case the narrator's criticism may refer to either the content of the character's text or to its form of expression This study begins with a definition and an example of FCN as a narrative device followed by an analysis of terms used for FCN in German Anglophone and Russian literary criticism Building on the perception of FCN as a phenomenon of interference between narrator s and character s text text interference this book analyses the function and applications of FCN in narratives written in German English and Russian Faulkner and Other Southern Writers Hans H. Towards a Poetics of Literary Biography Michael Benton, 2015-09-01 Drawing upon a wide range of biographies of literary subjects from Shakespeare and Wordsworth to William Golding and V S Naipaul this book develops a poetics of literary biography based on the triangular relationships of lives works and times and how narrative operates in holding them together Biography is seen as a hybrid genre in which historical and fictional elements are imaginatively combined It considers the roles of story telling factual data in the art of life writing and the literariness of its language It includes a case study of the biography of Ellen Terry discussion of the controversial relationship between a subject s life and works biographical criticism and through the issue of gender the social and cultural changes biographies reflect It frames a poetics on the basis of its strategy and tactics and demonstrates how the literal truth of verifiable data and the poetic truth of what is narrated are interdependent
