Theorizing Women & Leadership

Julia Storberg-Walker, Paige Haber-Curran, 2017-01-01 Theorizing Women and Leadership New Insights and Contributions from Multiple Perspectives is the fifth volume in the Women and Leadership Research Theory and Practice series. This cross disciplinary series from the International Leadership Association enhances leadership knowledge and improves leadership development of women around the world. The purpose of this volume is to provide a forum for women to theorize about women's leadership in multiple ways and in multiple contexts. Theorizing has been viewed as a gendered activity (Swedberg, 2014) and this series of chapters seeks to upend that imbalance. The chapters are written by women who represent multiple disciplines, cultures, races, and subject positions. The diversity extends into research paradigm and method, and the chapters combine to illuminate the multiple ways of knowing about and being a woman leader. Twenty-first century leadership scholars acknowledge the importance of context, and many are considering post-heroic leadership models based on relationships rather than traits. This volume contributes to this discussion by offering a diverse array of perspectives and ways of knowing about leadership and leading. The purpose of the volume is to provide readers with not only interesting new ideas about women and leadership but also to highlight the diverse epistemologies that can contribute to theorizing about women leaders. Some chapters represent typical social scientific practices and processes, while others represent newer knowledge forms and ways of knowing. The volume contributors adopt various epistemological positions ranging from objective researcher to embedded co-participant. The chapters link their new findings to existing empirical or conceptual work and illustrate how the findings extend, amend, contradict, or confirm existing research. The diversity of the chapters is one of the volume's strengths because it illuminates the multiple ways that leadership theory for women can be advanced. Typically, research based on a realist perspective is more valued in the academy. This perspective has indeed generated robust information about leadership in general and women's leadership in particular. However, readers of this volume are offered an opportunity to explore multiple ways of knowing, different ways of researching, and are invited to de-center researcher objectivity. The authors of the chapters offer conceptual and empirical findings, illuminate multiple and alternative research practices, and in the end suggest future directions for quantitative, qualitative, and mixed methods research.

The

Role of Leadership Educators Kathy L. Guthrie, Daniel M. Jenkins, 2018-02-01 Leadership as a discipline, leadership education as a field, and leadership educator as a profession are still in their infancy and rapidly evolving. As professionals in higher education we are constantly asked to provide opportunities for students to learn leadership whether that is inside or outside of the classroom. However, very little if any professional development occurs in how to create such learning opportunities. This book provides resources for leadership educators in three sections. The first section sets the stage for leadership education and the professional work of leadership educators, culminating with a variety of professional development resources for leadership educators. The second section introduces a leadership learning framework, provides characteristics and examples of strong leadership programs and assessment practices, and describes the transformative practice of leadership education. The third and final section offers specific instructional and assessment strategies ranging from discussion, case study, and reflection to team-based and service learning, to self-assessments, role play, simulation, and games to fulfill learning outcomes.

Be a Leader in Nursing - E-Book Heather Henry, 2022-02-24 Nursing leadership is now regarded as a core competency to improve clinical outcomes, and nurses need to develop leadership skills from the very start of their career. Be a Leader in Nursing provides a comprehensive practical guide for nurses through their leadership journey. Written by practising nurse leader Heather Henry, the book focuses on real-world application of leadership models at all levels, from the first moments of a student placement to effective management roles later in a nurse's career. The enjoyable and approachable text helps the reader to understand, recognize, and practise leadership skills, making the book suitable for student nurses covering leadership as part of their curriculum, as well as nurses already practising in the system. It will also be invaluable to instructors teaching leadership skills to nursing students. Co-designed with current student nurses, contemporary and relevant content, quotes, and real case studies to connect principles with practice. Clear learning outcomes, practice activities, and reflective practice to support learning. Easy to read and accessible chapters can be read in one sitting. Practical time-out activities and how-to guides to help you to practise leadership skills as you learn. Content consistent with the Nursing and Midwifery Council's NMC Standards of proficiency for pre-registration nursing education and the Healthcare Leadership Model. Includes current issues such as leading through social media, leadership in multidisciplinary teams, and crises such as pandemics and managing failure. Companion videos share nurses' leadership experiences.
