A Postcolonial Woman's Encounter with Moses and Miriam Angeline M.G. Song,2015-09-01 This book is grounded in a theorization of the author's personal story including growing up as a female adoptee of a single parent in a patriarchal context and current material context as an immigrant in New Zealand

Postcolonial Discipleship of Embodiment Jin Young Choi,2015-08-05 Jin Young Choi rereads discipleship in the Gospel of Mark from a postcolonial feminist perspective developing an Asian and Asian American hermeneutics of phronesis Colonized subjects perceive Jesus body as phantasmic Discipleship means embodying the mystery of this body while engaging with invisible placeless and voiceless others

The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim,Knud Jørgensen,Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga,2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today's multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world's largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities

Islamic Reform and Colonial Discourse on Modernity in India Jose Abraham,2014-12-09 In Kerala Vakkom Moulavi motivated Muslims to embrace modernity especially modern education in order to reap maximum benefit In this process he initiated numerous religious reforms However he held fairly ambivalent attitudes towards individualism materialism and secularization defending Islam against the attacks of Christian missionaries The Literary Imagination in Israel-Palestine H. Cohen,2016-04-30 This book presents a cutting edge critical analysis of the trope of miscegenation and its biopolitical implications in contemporary Palestinian and Israeli literature poetry and discourse The relationship between nationalism and demographics are examined through the narrative and poetic intrigue of intimacy between Arabs and Jews drawing from a range of theoretical perspectives including public sphere theory orientalism and critical race studies Revisiting the controversial Brazilian writer Gilberto Freyre who championed miscegenation in his revisionary history of Brazil the book deploys a comparative investigation of Palestinian and Israeli writers preoccupation with the mixed romance Author Hella Bloom Cohen offers new interpretations of works by Mahmoud Darwish A B Yehoshua Orly Castel Bloom Nathalie Handal and Rula Jebreal among others Colonial Contexts and Postcolonial Theologies M. Brett,J. Havea,2014-12-17 Colonial Contexts and Postcolonial Theology focuses on what postcolonial theologies look like in colonial contexts particularly in dialogue with the First Nations Peoples in Australia and the Asia Pacific The contributors have roots in the Asia Pacific but the struggles theologies and concerns they address are shared across the seas Liturgy in Postcolonial Perspectives C. Carvalhaes,2015-06-10 This book brings Christian Jewish and Muslim scholars from different fields of knowledge and many places across the globe to introduce expand the dialogue between the field of liturgy and postcolonial decolonial thinking Connecting main themes in both fields this book shows what is at stake in this dialectical scholarship History Below the Global Lorenzo Kamel,2024-04-02 History Below the Global aims to foster an entangled knowledge of global history and to place others at the centre stage to better understand the fluid world which we inhabit Relying on primary sources in seven languages and books written by hundreds of African Asian Middle Eastern and South American scholars Lorenzo Kamel examines the colonality of power in historical research and sheds light on the largely neglected roles of the others and their modernities in history The book provides three elements combined Firstly a thorough analysis of the process of accumulation knowledge piece by piece which underpins some of the major achievements in human history Secondly a view on pre colonial perspectives and the process through which the latter have been swallowed up by Eurocentric and solipsistic perceptions Lastly a study of the roots and outcomes of colonialisms and their echoes in our present These three elements are addressed by combining multiple methodologies and approaches in the awareness that the history analysed as well as the historiographical trajectories that underlie it are ultimately inter penetrable as well as themselves the result of a process of accumulation History Below the Global challenges the view that first and foremost the West for bad and for good is and was the centre the proactive actor which did and undid This volume will be of value to all those interested in global history the history of colonialism post colonial studies modern and contemporary history The Postcolonial Gramsci Neelam Francesca Rashmi Srivastava,Baidik Bhattacharya,2012 The importance of Antonio Gramsci s work for postcolonial studies can hardly be exaggerated and in this volume contributors situate Gramsci's work in the vast and complex oeuvre of postcolonial studies. Specifically this book endeavors to reassess the impact on postcolonial studies of the central role assigned by Gramsci to culture and literature in the formation of a truly revolutionary idea of the national a notion that has profoundly shaped the thinking of both Frantz Fanon and Edward Said. Gramsci as Iain Chambers has argued has been instrumental in helping scholars rethink their understanding of historical political and cultural struggle by substituting the relationship between tradition and modernity with that of subaltern versus hegemonic parts of the world. Combining theoretical reflections and re-interpretations of Gramsci the scholars in this collection present comparative geo-cultural perspectives on the meaning of the subaltern passive revolution hegemony and the concept of national popular culture in order to chart out a political map of the postcolonial through the central focus on Gramsci.

Beyond Reason Sanjay Seth, 2021 Introduction Part I Modern western knowledge under challenge Unsettling the modern knowledge settlement Defending reason a postcolonial critique Part II Postcolonialism and social science The code of history The anachronism of history International relations amnesia and empire Political theory and the bourgeois public sphere Epilogue Knowledge and politics

Religion and the Secular Timothy Fitzgerald, 2014-12-05 Religion has dominated colonialism since the 16th century Religion and the Secular critically examines how religion has been used to subject indigenous concepts to the needs of colonial powers Essays present the colonial relationship from the perspective of colonized cultures including Mexico Guatemala Vietnam India Japan South Africa and Canada and colonizing powers namely England Germany and the United States The volume offers a historical and ethnographical analysis of the relationship between the sacred and the secular examining religion in relation to politics economics and civil power

Postcolonial challenges to the study of religion Willy Pfändtner, 2008

John and Postcolonialism Musa W. Dube Shomanah, Jeffrey Staley, 2002-09-19 An exciting collection of essays connecting postcolonialism and the Gospel of John written by a group of international scholars both established and new from Hispanic African Jewish Chinese Korean and African American backgrounds It explores important topics such as the appropriation of John in settler communities of the United States and Canada and the use of John in the colonisation of Africa Asia Latin America and New Zealand The interpreters represent communities of borderland dwellers women in colonised settings minority ethnic groups within colonised centres and others In an era of rapid globalisation increased travel rising diasporic communities and neo colonialism it is crucial that biblical scholars find ways to address this world with critical skill and sensitivity This book fills this need

Religion and Global Culture Jennifer I. M. Reid, 2003-02-22 Religion and Global Culture draws together the work of a group of historians of religion who are concerned with situating the contemporary study of religion within the cultural complexity of the modern world The writing of each of the volume's contributors relates to the work of leading historian of religion Charles H Long who has identified religious meanings in the contacts and exchanges of the colonial and postcolonial periods Together with Long these scholars explore religious practices in a variety of globalized contexts chapters consider such varied subjects as the rituals of African immigrant communities in the United States the making of Mohawk sweet grass and black ash baskets the religious experience of prisoners in the Nazi holding camp of Westerbork and the regional repercussions of contemporary multinational business By locating religion in the conflicted and cooperative relationships of the colonial and postcolonial periods Religion and Global Culture calls on scholars of religion to reconfigure their interpretive stances from the perspective of the material structures of the modern globalized world Comparing Cultures and Religions in a Postmodern World Basile Sede Noujio, 2021-03-22 Culture and religion are basic to every human society and the history of a people always sustains her cultural and religious values We decided to use the African culture and religion as our departing point for the mere fact that Africa is generally considered as the cradle of civilization and it is a very historic and controversial continent However while examining some prominent world cultures and religions in a comparative manner our major focus is on the Christian Thomistic culture religion as illustrated by Jacques Maritain in comparison with the African culture religion as expressed by Joseph Ki Zerbo Both thinkers consider that in the midst of multiculturalism and globalization authentic humanism or personalism that is based on the sacredness of the human person should be endorsed as a new civilization or culture Only such a culture can make the future of humankind essentially meaningful and interesting Shifting from all mediocre standards of culture which are based on relativism supported by postmodern thinkers there is a need to get back to the original culture that is based on authentic and objective standards The major difference that we noticed between the Thomistic Christian ideas and those of the Africans is that while Jacques Maritain appeals for Thomistic humanism to grow from the formal classrooms and the books into the streets and the fields Ki Zerbo explains that African humanism has always existed in the streets and in the fields it might never even have existed in the books and in the classrooms The global reaction toward the killing of George Floyd in USA defying all fears of the COVID 19 intensifies the argument that a culture which qualifies one race as being superior over another has to be reexamined and radically eradicated and replaced by authentic humanism

Spiritual Encounters Nicholas Griffiths, Fernando Cervantes, 1999-01-01 Spiritual Encounters is a comparative and theoretically informed look at the religious interactions between Native and colonial European cultures throughout the Americas Religion was one of the most contentious dramatic and complex arenas of confrontation between Natives and Europeans during the colonial era This volume fully explores the significance of colonial religious encounters Case studies organized by theme showcase previously unexamined sources and offer interpretations that shed new light on Native European religious encounters in the New World One group of studies examines the extent to which Native peoples internalized Christianity and the cultural mechanisms that enabled them to do so Other chapters assess in detail the often uneasy relationship between Christianity and coexisting indigenous religious practices involving sorcery and healing A third set of essays looks at the broader political and economic forces underlying Native colonial religious encounters An introduction and epilogue by the editors provide valuable summaries of the broad patterns characterizing the religious interactions between the West and the Other in the colonial Americas      Colonial Transformation and Asian Religions in Modern History David W. Kim, 2018-10-12 The localisation of a region group or culture was a common social phenomenon in pre modern Asia but global colonialism began to affect the lifestyle of local people What was the political condition of the relationship between insiders and outsiders The impact of colonial authorities over religious communities has not received significant attention even though the Asian continent is the home of many religions including Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Taoism Islam Shintoism and Shamanism Colonial Transformation and Asian Religions in Modern History presents multi angled perspectives of socio religious transition It uses the cultural religiosity of the Asian people as a lens through which readers can re examine the concepts of imperialism religious syncretism and modernisation The contributors interpret the growth of new religions as another facet of counter colonialism This new approach offers significant insight into comprehending the practical agony and sorrow of regional people throughout Asian history      Christianity, Islam, and Orisa-Religion J.D.Y. Peel, 2016 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s open access publishing program for monographs Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more The Yoruba of southwestern Nigeria are exceptional for the copresence among them of three religious traditions Islam Christianity and the indigenous orisa religion In this comparative study at once historical and anthropological Peel explores the intertwined character of the three religions and the dense imbrication of religion in all aspects of Yoruba history up to the present For over 400 years the Yoruba have straddled two geocultural spheres one reaching north over the Sahara to the world of Islam the other linking them to the Euro American world via the Atlantic These two external spheres were the source of contrasting cultural influences notably those emanating from the world religions However the Yoruba not only imported Islam and Christianity but also exported their own orisa religion to the New World Before the voluntary modern diaspora that has brought many Yoruba to Europe and the Americas tens of thousands were sold as slaves in the New World bringing with them the worship of the orisa Peel offers deep insight into important contemporary themes such as religious conversion new religious movements relations between world religions the conditions of religious violence the transnational flows of contemporary religion and the interplay between tradition and the demands of an ever changing present In the process he makes a major theoretical contribution to the anthropology of world religions
