At daylight I was half-awakened by the sound of chopping. Again it was so even in texture that I went back to sleep. When I left my bed in the cool morning, the boy had come and gone, and a stack of kindling was neat against the cabin wall. He came after school in the afternoon and worked until time to return to the orphanage. His name was Jerry he had been at the orphanage since he was four. I could picture him at four, with the same grave gray-blue eyes and the same—independence. No, the word that comes to me is 'integrity' It is bedded on courage, but it is more than brave. It is honest, but it is more than honesty. The axe handle broke one day. Jerry said the woodshop at the orphanage would repair it. I brought money to pay for the job and he refused it. "I'll pay for it," he said. "I broke it. I brought the axe down careless." "But no one hits accurately every time." I told him. "The fault was in the wood of the handle. I'll see the man from whom I bought it." It was only then that he would take the money. He was standing back of his own carelessness. He was a free-will agent and he chose to do careful work, and if he failed, he took the responsibility without subterfuge.

Charting an Asian Trajectory for Literacy Education Su Li Chong,2021-03-14 Weaving outwards from a centripetal force of biographical stances this book presents the collective perspectives of literacy researchers from Brunei China Hong Kong Malaysia Singapore the Philippines and Taiwan It represents the first all Asian initiative to showcase the region s post colonial multilingual and multicultural narratives of literacy education This book provides a much needed platform that initiates important conversations about literacy as a sociocultural practice in a region that is both challenged and shaped by sociocultural influence unique to Asia's historical and geopolitical trajectory. Driven by the authors' lived experiences of becoming literate as well as their empirical research work in later years, each chapter brings decades of biographical narratives and collective empirical research findings to bear. Within the book are negotiations about literacy across and within home and school contexts, transactions of literature, text and reader, and considerations of the literacy policy practice nexus. These trajectories, while divergent in their issues, come together as shared lived experience located in local contexts considered through global perspectives. As Asia looks set to become the 21st century's new economic and labour force, the need to understand the sociocultural milieu of this region cannot be understated. This book on literacy education in Asia contributes to the larger narrative.

THE TRIAL BY FIRE : MEMOIRS OF A COLLEGE PRINCIPAL G. Ramachandram, 2017-03-07

This autobiography is a rare story of the courage and the conviction of a person holding a position of power and authority, taking on the high and the mighty, refusing to buckle under pressure and do what is unethical and illegal, risking his career, time and again. The author had a journey in defiance, fighting relentlessly against the corrupt system. During his two decades long tenure, he had to quite often face the trials by fire in order to secure his college with a solid foundation of perennial values: transparency and commitment to truth. The autobiography is in four parts. Part I, Blissful ignorance, narrates the life of a rustic village boy and how he transformed. Part II, Awakening, is about the author's struggle to find meaning and purpose for existence and becoming a teacher by accident. Part III, Rise, is regarding his appointment as the Principal, the conspiracy to scuttle the appointment and his legal battles. Part IV, Turbulence, is about his uninterrupted nerve-racking duel with multiple authorities to reinstate the truth and justice and protect the institution of Principal. And by taking a high moral ground and displaying mental toughness, he weathered a turbulent period of calculated verbal assaults aimed at making him dispirited and crippled. This is the first time that such an autobiography is penned by the Head of any educational institution, giving a gripping account of his torrid times. The book makes an interesting and inspirational reading. It is rich, engaging and very truthful. The heads of educational institutions, particularly the future generation of academic administrators, will profit by the book.
