Liazos, 2015-12-03 Unlike other family textbooks that mostly emphasize conflicts and problems this book also features the joys and pleasures of family living and its mutually nourishing qualities Its perspective reflects polls surveys and student essays indicating that most people value their families Families everywhere provide love support and sustenance to their members but they do so in many different arrangements Understanding the wide variety of families historically and across cultures gives the student a better basis for understanding how families change and a better grasp of more controversial changes such as the gradual acceptance by Westerners of same sex marriage and child rearing by single people Liazos offers two poignant chapters not found in other texts Family Living Chapter Six focuses on the social value of caregiving and family meals Kin and Community Chapter Seven focuses on relationships among kin and the larger community Christian

Identity amid Islam in Medieval Spain Charles L. Tieszen, 2013-05-30 In Christian Identity amid Islam in Medieval Spain Charles L. Tieszen explores a small corpus of texts from medieval Spain in an effort to deduce how their authors defined their religious identity in light of Islam and in turn how they hoped their readers would distinguish themselves from the Muslims in their midst It is argued that the use of reflected self image as a tool for interpreting Christian anti Muslim polemic allows such texts to be read for the self image of their authors instead of the image of just those they attacked As such polemic becomes a set of borders authors offered to their communities helping them to successfully navigate inter religious living

EVOLUTION Leonid E. Grinin, Andrey V. Korotayev, Every time we work on this Yearbook we are focused on making at least a small step forward to gradual elaboration of a megaevolutionary paradigm which is designed to create a united scientific field for cross disciplinary studies The present volume is the seventh issue of the Evolution Yearbook series Our Yearbooks are designed to present to its readers the widest possible spectrum of subjects and issues from universal evolutionism to the analysis of particular evolutionary regularities in the development of biological abiotic and social systems culture cognition language etc The main objective of our Yearbook is the creation of a unified interdisciplinary field of research within which scientists specializing in different disciplines could work within the framework of unified or similar paradigms using common terminology and searching for common rules tendencies and regularities Global evolution in connection with the Big History becomes the main subject of our Yearbook We strive to arrange each issue in such a way that the line from cosmic evolution to the human future is evident The title of this issue Evolutionary Aspects Stars Primates and Religion is fully justified The volume consists of three sections Megaevolution and Cosmic Evolution Biosocial and Social Evolution Reviews and Notes This Yearbook will be useful both for those who study interdisciplinary macroproblems and for specialists working in focused directions as well as for those who are interested in evolutionary issues of Cosmology Biology History Anthropology Economics and other areas of study More than that this edition will challenge and excite your vision of your own life and the new discoveries going on around us

Anthropology & Education Quarterly ,2000 Freedom through Submission: Muslim-talk in Contemporary Denmark Johannes Renders,2021-03-01 In Freedom through Submission Johannes Renders explores Danish Muslim statements on human freedom Within a context where public talk of Islam is largely mediated by an incessant succession of controversies the notion of freedom is weaponized both by and against a growing Muslim community Danish Muslims take issue with liberal associations of the notion with autonomy and choice and seek to reconfigure the public debate that pits freedom against Islam This book brings out a sophisticated and reflective Muslim discourse in which freedom is something individuals must simultaneously exercise surrender and achieve through a cultivated relinquishing of the will to Allah American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Law and Anthropology Michael D. A. Freeman,David Napier,2009-11-19 Law and Anthropology the latest volume in the Current Legal Issues series offers an insight into the state of law and anthropology scholarship today Focussing on the inter connections between the two disciplines it also includes case studies from around the world

Human Nature and the Evolution of Society Stephen K. Sanderson,2018-05-04 If evolution has changed humans physically has it also affected human behavior Drawing on evolutionary psychology sociobiology and human behavioral ecology Human Nature and the Evolution of Society explores the evolutionary dynamics underlying social life In this introduction to human behavior and the organization of social life Stephen K Sanderson discusses traditional subjects like mating behavior kinship parenthood status seeking and violence as well as important topics seldom included in books of this type especially gender economics politics foodways race and ethnicity and the arts Examples and research on a wide range of human societies both industrial and nonindustrial are integrated throughout With chapter summaries of key points thoughtful discussion questions and important terms defined within the text the result is a broad ranging and comprehensive consideration of human society thoroughly grounded in an evolutionary perspective

Reading and All that Jazz Peter Mather,Rita McCarthy,2003 This book analyses the primary relevant rules of international law applicable to extra territorial use of force by states against non state actors Force in this context takes many forms ranging from targeted killings and abductions of individuals to large scale military operations amounting to armed conflict Actions of this type have occurred in what has become known as the war on terror but are not limited to this context Three frameworks of international law are examined in detail These are the United Nations Charter and framework of international law regulating the resort to force in the territory of other states the law of armed conflict often referred to as international humanitarian law and the law enforcement framework found in international human rights law The book examines the applicability of these frameworks to extra territorial forcible measures against non state actors and analyses the difficulties and challenges presented by application of the rulesto these measures The issues covered include among others the possibility of self defence against non state actors including anticipatory self defence the lawfulness of measures which do not conform to the parameters of self defence the classification of extra territorial force against non state actors as armed conflict the war on terror as an armed conflict the laws of armed conflict regulating force against groups and individuals the extra territorial applicability of international human rights law and the regulation of forcible measures under human rights law Many of these issues are the subject of ongoing and longstanding debate The focus in this work is on the particular challenges raised by extra territorial force against non state actors and the book offers a number of solutions to these challenges
