THE NETHERLANDS

The Netherlands is a country with many beautiful things to see and interesting things to do. Located in Europe, this small country has a lot to share with visitors. Some sights can be found all year long, and others are special parts of different seasons.

In the spring, the Netherlands is full of flowers! The Netherlands is famous for tulips, which can come in many different colors. Amsterdam, the capital city of the Netherlands, is a great place to visit to see tulips growing. Annually, there is an enormous tulip festival in and around the city. Another popular thing to do in Amsterdam is ride bicycles. So many people choose bicycles for transportation, that there are more bicycles than people!

In the winter, canals in the Amsterdam sometimes freeze over and are used for ice skating. A canal is a waterway dug by people. With more than 60 miles of canals, this is a useful way to get around the city. When the canals are unusable for skating, the canals can be covered with the more than 1,000 bridges.

All throughout the year, the Netherlands also offers historic landmarks, culture, and more!
