Matigari African Writers Series:

Matigari Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, 1989 Lyrical and hilarious in turn Matigari is a memorable satire on the betrayal of human ideals and on the bitter experience of post independence African society Publisher's blurb Contemporary Voices From The Margin Peter Ukpokodu, Omiunota N. Ukpokodu, 2012-06-01 Traditionally American educators and communities have looked to Europe and Asia for ideas for rethinking and reforming education for America's diverse children This book Contemporary Voices from the Margin African Educators on African and American Education brings together new voices of diverse African born teacher educators and Africanist scholars who share personal experiences as well as research based perspectives about education in Africa and America that will be valuable to rethinking and reforming education for America's struggling schools The book is a comprehensive work of experienced educators and scholars in the field of teacher education and African Studies The editors of the book invited a diverse group of African born teacher educators and scholars from different countries of Africa who teach in the U S The contributors share a common African experience but they are geographically diverse in countries of origin and research Their knowledge about African communal living as well as colonial powers and imperialism as they operated in various African countries enables them to compare and contrast various educational models and practices including traditional ones They are also diverse in their fields of specialization but have expertise in multicultural education urban education and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U S discourses in public education and teacher preparation programs Given that these scholars were born or socialized and educated in as well as taught schools and colleges in their respective African countries before settling in the United States they bring a wealth of experience and insights into what it means to successfully educate children and youth The book is divided into three parts Part 1 examines African processes and practices of education both formal and informal as contributing authors share perspectives about African indigenous education including cultural socialization and formal western type education and organization of schools Part 2 focuses on patterns and structures of formal western type education in selected African countries Part 3 explores cross cultural perspectives on American education The contributors provide chapters of stimulating and rich perspectives that will engage the discourse on rethinking and reforming education and schooling for America's diverse students The African Writers' Handbook James Gibbs, Jack Mapanje, 1999 African Books Collective and the Dag Hammarskjöld Foundation organised the African Writers Publishers Seminar in Tanzania in 1998 Major African writers and publishers hammered out a New Deal for relations between the two This practical manual includes the New Deal statement and carries forward the work of the seminar Intended for the aspiring or not yet established creative writer the answers are given on how to get published how publishing works relations with publishers and how to find resources With an introduction by Niyi Osundare the book is in two parts First respected African writers and publishers contribute their experiences and perspectives on writing and publishing in Africa Dapo Adeniyi Walter Bgoya Henry Chakava

Cyprian Ekwensi Taban lo Liyong Kole Omotoso Onsonye Tess Onwueme Femi Osofisan Niyi Osundare and the late Ken Saro Wiwa Yvonne Vera and Paul Tiyambe Zeleza A massive amount of practical information and resource materials is given on prizes writers organisations magazines vanity and self publishing literary agents censorship book fairs resources for writers on the Internet and more James Currey Mary Jay Michael Norton and Hans Zell also contribute African Literatures in English Gareth Griffiths,2014-09-19 Here is an introduction to the history of English writing from East and West Africa drawing on a range of texts from the slave diaspora to the post war upsurge in African English language and literature from these regions African Biblical Studies Andrew M. Mbuvi,2022-09-22 Andrew M Mbuvi makes the case for African biblical studies as a vibrant and important emerging distinct discipline while also using its postcolonial optic to critique biblical studies for its continued underlying racially and imperialistically motivated tendencies Mbuvi argues that the emergence of biblical studies as a discipline in the West coincides with and benefits from the establishment of the colonial project that included African colonization At the heart of the colonial project was the Bible not only as ferried by missionaries who often espoused racialized views to convert heathens in the distant lands but as the text used in the racialized justification of the colonial violence Interpretive approaches established within these racist and colonialist matrices continue to dominate the discipline perpetuating racialized interpretive methodology and frameworks On these grounds Mbuvi makes the case that the continued marginalization of non western approaches is a reflection of the continuing colonialist structure and presuppositions in the discipline of biblical studies African Biblical Studies not only exposes and critiques these persistent oppressive and subjugating tendencies but showcases how African postcolonial methodologies and studies that prioritize readings from the perspective of the marginalized and oppressed offer an alternative framework for the discipline These readings while destabilizing and undermining the predominantly white Euro American approaches and their ingrained prejudices and problematizing the biblical text itself posit the need for biblical interpretation that is anti colonial and anti racist A Grain of Wheat Ngugi wa Thiong'o,Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o,2008 Set in 1963 A Grain of Wheat tells the story of Kenya on the verge of Uhuru its independence day The novel focuses on Mugo a man affected by his childhood the years in the State of Emergency and his own demons within This novel was recognised as o Crisis and Commonwealth Charles Reitz,2013-08-29 Crisis and Commonwealth Marcuse Marx McLaren advances Marcuse scholarship by presenting four hitherto untranslated and unpublished manuscripts by Herbert Marcuse from the Frankfurt University Archive on themes of economic value theory socialism and humanism Contributors to this edited collection notably Peter Marcuse Henry Giroux Peter McLaren Zvi Tauber Arnold L Farr and editor Charles Reitz are deeply engaged with the foundational theories of Marcuse and Marx with regard to a future of freedom equality and justice Douglas Dowd furnishes the critical historical context with regard to U S foreign and domestic policy particularly its features of economic imperialism and militarism Reitz draws these elements together to show that the writings by Herbert Marcuse and these formidable authors can ably assist a global movement toward intercultural commonwealth The collection extends the critical theories of Marcuse and Marx to an analysis of the intensifying inequalities symptomatic of our current economic distress It presents a collection of essays by radical scholars working in the public interest to develop a critical analysis of recent global economic dislocations Reitz presents a new foundation for emancipatory practice a labor theory of ethics and commonwealth and the collection breaks new ground by constructing a critical theory of wealth and work A central focus is building a new critical vision for labor including academic labor Lessons are drawn to inform transformative political action as well as the practice of a critical multicultural pedagogy supporting a new manifesto for radical educators contributed by Peter McLaren The collection is intended especially to appeal to contemporary interests of college students and teachers in several interrelated social science disciplines sociology social problems economics ethics business ethics labor education history political philosophy multicultural education and critical pedagogy

Navigating Modernity Albert J. Paolini, 1999 Paolini is concerned with the connections among postcolonialism globalization and modernity and he offers one of the first detailed statements of those connections to be undertaken in the field of IR Focusing on the Third World and particularly sub Saharan Africa he questions dominant notions of identity and subjectivity in the social sciences

BOOK JACKET Twentieth-century Caribbean and Black African Writers Bernth Lindfors, Reinhard Sander, 1993 Profiles more than thirty Caribbean and Black African writers of the twentieth century presenting primary and secondary bibliographies and illustrated biographical essays that chronicle each writer's career in detail

African Writers C. Brian Cox, 1997 Annotation The Scribner Writers Series has set the standard for literary reference for more than 25 years In addition to addressing the lives and careers of important writers the articles discuss the themes and styles of major works and place them in pertinent historical social and political contexts for today's readers Novelists playwrights essayists poets short story writers and more recently genre writers in science fiction and mystery are all expertly discussed in the more than 16 sets comprising this series Two volumes of original essays present 65 African writers from 17 countries writing in English French Portuguese Arabic and indigenous languages Subjects span the late 19th century to the present Included are Najib Mahfuz Andre Brink Wole Soyinka Nadine Gordimer Alan Paton and many more

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-10-03 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume's 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation. The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism. Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe, Nadine Gordimer, George Lamming, Jamaica Kincaid, V S Naipaul, Zoe Wicomb, J M Coetzee and many others. Africa Writes Back James Currey, 2022-10-31.

June 17, 2008 is the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart by Heinemann. This publication provided the impetus for the foundation of the African Writers Series in 1962 with Chinua Achebe as the editorial adviser. Africa Writes Back: The African Writers Series and the Launch of African Literature captures the energy of literary publishing in a new and undefined field. Portraits of the leading characters and the many consultants and readers providing reports and advice to new and established writers make Africa Writes Back a stand out book. James Currey's voice and insights are an added bonus.

Afrikaans Literature: Recollection, Redefinition, Restitution, 2023-12-14

Matatu is a journal on African literatures and societies dedicated to interdisciplinary dialogue between literary and cultural studies, historiography, the social sciences and cultural anthropology. Matatu is animated by a lively interest in African culture and literature including the Afro Caribbean that moves beyond worn out clichés of cultural authenticity and national liberation towards critical exploration of African modernities. The East African public transport vehicle from which Matatu takes its name is both a component and a symbol of these modernities based on Western technology. These days usually Japanese technology it is a vigorously African institution. It is usually regarded with some anxiety by those travelling in it but is often enough the only means of transport available. It creates temporary communicative communities and provides a transient site for the exchange of news, storytelling and political debate. Matatu is firmly committed to supporting democratic change in Africa to providing a forum for interchanges between African and European critical debates.

to overcoming notions of absolute cultural ethnic or religious alterity and to promoting transnational discussion on the future of African societies in a wider world Matatu will be published as journal as of 2016 All back volumes are still available in print Zeitschrift Für Afrikastudien ,1989 Ngũgĩ Wa Thiong'o Charles Cantalupo,1995 In 1994 over 200 students from Universities world wide gathered in celebration of the work of Ngugi wa Thiong o The best papers and discussions are collected here The Beautiful Ones are Not Yet Born Ayi Kwei Armah,1988 An unnamed hero resists the temptations of easy bribes and satisfactions only to be scorned for his honesty even by those he loves Weep Not, Child Ngugi wa Thiong'o,Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o,1987 Two small boys stand on a rubbish heap and look into the future One boy is excited he is beginning school the other his brother is an apprentice carpetner Together they will serve their country the teacher and the craftsman But this is Kenya and times are against them In the forests the Mau Mau are waging war against the white government and two brothers Njoroge and Kamau and the rest of their family need to decide where their loyalties lie For the practical man the choice is simple but for Njoroge the scholar the dream of progress through learning is a hard one to give up P 4 of cover ALA Bulletin ,2002 A Grain of Wheat Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o,1986 In this ambitious and densely worked novel we begin to see early signs of Ngugi s increasing bitterness about the ways in which the politicians are the true benefactors of the rewards of independence African Publishing Review ,1994
