The Age of Exploration and Discovery may well have started in the 15th century but for the British the 19th century saw the rise of the British Empire and an explosion in world travel The travel narratives written during this century were profuse and by some estimates more travel narratives were written during the first half of the 19th century than in all preceding centuries These accounts tell of wondrous zoological and botanical finds of topography never before imagined and of exotic peoples as well At the time there was one publisher John Murray known for its utter domination of the travel narrative field The caliber and profile of their list was known throughout the UK and Europe and into the US as well The authors of the house included Jane Austen Lord Byron Washington Irving and Sir Walter Scott And in its list of travel writing and exploration the house boasted the authors Charles Darwin and Charles Lyell Murray s name became as synonymous with travel writing and exploration as it was with literary giants Travels into Print is a tour through the archives and files of the House of Murray and marvelous expedition in the geography of travel and exploration writing knowledge and reception in the 19th century Rather than focusing on narratives of a particular region or scientific area of interest or particular period the work uses a source that cuts across all of these areas the publisher Steeped in book files and correspondence about edits and revisions sent between Murray and his staff and explorers the book addresses the ways in which the texts were written the role of truth in the accounts correspondence as a form of production and the writings as travel documents This is a wonderful history of the book told from the perspective of a legendary book and author maker The Index of Middle English Prose: Handlist XXV Niamh Pattwell,2024 Handlist to manuscripts in Trinity College Dublin covering all 79 Middle English prose manuscripts and indexing more than 539 separate items The manuscripts in Trinity College Dublin are predominantly from the library of Archbishop James Ussher 1581 1656 A well known bibliophile of the sixteenth century he was also primate of All Ireland and fellow and professor of Trinity College Following some movement of the collection it was eventually returned to Trinity College after the Restoration at the behest of Charles II It is a significant collection both in national and international terms with over 600 manuscripts 79 of which contain Middle English prose Among the manuscripts in the collection are several Wycliffite Bibles and collections of sermons and tracts some of them unique copies The collection also contains writings by Richard Rolle Walter Hilton and William Flete and copies of Thomas Kempis s Imitation of Christ as well as the Pore Caitif and The Cloud of Unknowing both of which are anonymous There are several copies of the Brut chronicle two of which MSS 489 and 505 are illuminated translations of Giraldus Cambrensis s Expugnatio Hibernica and a copy of Robert Bale s Chronicle of London 1189 1461 Also of note are the various collections of recipes medical culinary and alchemical Dictionary style items demonstrate the trilingual nature of the Medieval period with single words being offered in English alongside Anglo Norman and or Latin words or as marginal glosses Fifteenth century instructions for the coronation of a King or Queen hidden among some later material as well as other unidentified heraldic pieces suggest that some of the manuscripts may be associated with the office of the Ulster King of Arms The current handlist covers 79 manuscripts and indexes more than 539 separate items offering a significant contribution to the understanding of the cultural world of the Medieval period
