Mirror Image English Edition:

The Fictions of Translation Judith Woodsworth, 2018-02-15 In The Fictions of Translation emerging and seasoned scholars from a range of cultures bring fresh perspectives to bear on the age old practice of translation The current movement of people knowledge and goods around the world has made intercultural communication both prevalent and indispensable Consequently the translator has become a more prominent figure and translation an increasingly present theme in works of literature Embedding translation in a fictional setting and considering its most extreme forms pseudotranslation or self translation for example are fruitful ways of conceptualizing the act of translating and extending the boundaries of translation studies Taken together the various translational fictions examined in this collection yield new insights into questions of displacement migration and hybridity all characteristic of the modern world The Fictions of Translation will thus be of interest to practising translators students and scholars of translation and literary studies as well as a more general readership

Image and Incarnation Walter Melion, Lee Palmer Wandel, 2015-09-01 The doctrine of the Incarnation was wellspring and catalyst for theories of images verbal material and spiritual Section I Representing the Mystery of the Incarnation takes up questions about the representability of the mystery Section II Imago Dei and the Incarnate Word investigates how Christ's status as the image of God was seen to license images material and spiritual Section III Literary Figurations of the Incarnation considers the verbal production of images contemplating the divine and human nature of Christ Section IV Transformative Analogies of Matter and Spirit delves into ways that material properties and processes in their effects on the beholder were analogized to Christ's hypostasis Section V Visualizing the Flesh of Christ considers the relation between the Incarnation and the Passion

Illustrating the Phaenomena Elly Dekker, 2013 In this volume all extant celestial maps and globes made before 1500 are described and analysed It also discusses the astronomical sources involved in making these artefacts in antiquity the Middle Ages the Islamic world and the European Renaissance before 1500

Doppelgangers, Alter Egos and Mirror Images in Western Art, 1840-2010 Mary D. Edwards, 2020-06-15 The notion of a person or even an object having a double has been explored in the visual arts for ages and in myriad ways portraying the body and its soul a woman gazing at her reflection in a pool or a man overwhelmed by his own shadow In this edited collection focusing on nineteenth and twentieth century western art scholars analyze doppelgangers alter egos mirror images double portraits and other pairings human and otherwise appearing in a large variety of artistic media Artists whose works are discussed at length include Richard Dadd Salvador Dali Egon Schiele Frida Kahlo the creators of Superman and Nicola Costantino among many others

Two Nations in Your Womb Israel Jacob Yuval, 2008-08-19 Since it was first published in Hebrew in 2000 this provocative book has been garnering acclaim and stirring controversy for its bold reinterpretation of the relationship between Judaism and Christianity in the Middle Ages especially in medieval Europe Looking at a remarkably wide array of source material Israel Jacob Yuval argues that the inter religious polemic between

Judaism and Christianity served as a substantial component in the mutual formation of each of the two religions He investigates ancient Jewish Passover rituals Jewish martyrs in the Rhineland who in 1096 killed their own children Christian perceptions of those ritual killings and events of the year 1240 when Jews in northern France and Germany expected the Messiah to arrive Looking below the surface of these key moments Yuval finds that among other things the impact of Christianity on Talmudic and medieval Judaism was much stronger than previously assumed and that a rejection of Christianity became a focal point of early Jewish identity Two Nations in Your Womb will reshape our understanding of Jewish and Christian life in late antiquity and over the centuries

Visuality in the Theatre M. Bleeker, 2008-04-17 This book presents an exploration of the under explored terrain of visuality demonstrating the use of new theoretical insights into vision for the analysis of theatre and performance and simultaneously shows theatre and performance to be an excellent theoretical object for exploring the cultural historical and embodied character of visuality

The Naked Gaze Carlos Rojas, 2020-03-17 This is a study of visuality in early modern and modern China Its focus however is not so much on imagery per se but rather on how vision itself has been conceived imagined and deployed in a variety of discursive contexts Of particular interest is how these discourses of vision have been used to articulate issues of gender and desire and specifically processes of gendered subject formation Through detailed readings of narrative works by eight authors of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries ranging from the canonical to the popular to the esoteric the study identifies three distinct constellations of visual concerns corresponding to the late imperial mid twentieth century and contemporary periods respectively At the same time however it argues that those historical periodizations themselves do not reflect a smooth unidirectional temporal movement rather they are the result of a complex process of retrospection and anticipatory projection The goal of this volume is to use a focus on tropes of visuality and gender to reflect on shifting understandings of the significance of Chineseness modernity and Chinese modernity

Heart of Carbon Jack Bokros, 2023-01-01 This book offers a historical account of the development of the On X carbon mechanical heart valve discussing the steps involved in developing the materials and describes how the design of the valve has evolved over the years It explores both the scientific and corporate problems researchers have encountered over the years in the journey of making a mechanical heart valve The chapters provide a detailed description of the design of the mechanical leaflet based prosthetic valve with a particular focus on blood flow characteristics This book includes an overview of the state of the art in the chemistry and physics of carbon and compiles the advances in carbon based technology and its applications in cardiac and thoracic surgery This is an ideal book for bioengineers working on the chemistry and physics of carbon and other professionals involved with cardiac and thoracic surgery

Censoring Translation Michelle Woods, 2012-05-10 A play is written faces censorship and is banned in its native country There is strong international interest the play is translated into English it is adapted and it is not performed Censoring Translation questions the role of textual translation practices in shaping the circulation and reception of foreign censored theatre It examines three forms of censorship in relation to translation ideological censorship gender censorship and market censorship This examination of censorship is informed by extensive archival evidence from the previously unseen archives of Václav Havel's main theatre translator Vera Blackwell which includes drafts of playscripts legal negotiations reviews interviews notes and previously unseen correspondence over thirty years with Havel and central figures of the theatre world such as Kenneth Tynan Martin Esslin and Tom Stoppard Michelle Woods uses this previously unresearched archive to explore broader questions on censorship asking why texts are translated at a given time who translates them how their identity may affect the translation and how the constituents of success in a target culture may involve elements of censorship

Christian Mysticism and Incarnational Theology Louise Nelstrop, Simon D. Podmore, 2016-05-23 This book examines the relationship between transcendence and immanence within Christian mystical and apophatic writings Original essays from a range of leading established and emerging scholars in the field focus on the roles of language signs and images and consider how mystical theology might contribute to contemporary reflection on the Word incarnate This collection of essays re-examines works from such canonical figures as Eckhart Augustine Plotinus Pseudo Dionysius Nicolas of Cusa Teresa of Avila John of the Cross Julian of Norwich along with the philosophical thought of Iris Murdoch Jacques Lacan and Martin Heidegger and the contemporary phenomena of the Emerging Church Presenting new readings of key ideas in mystical theology and renewed engagement with the visionary and the everyday the therapeutic and the transformative these essays question how we might think about what may lie between transcendence and immanence

Tears Of Rain - Ethnicity & Hist Wim van Binsbergen, 2016-05-06 First published in 1992 This is a book about ethnicity among the Nkoya people in central western Zambia and about the historical background out of which that ethnicity is made It studies in detail the fascinating ways in which ethnicity both creates and feeds upon ethno history At the same time it assesses the possibility of reconstructing objective historical processes in that region since the sixteenth century on the basis
