France-Williams, 2013-10-18 I wanted to change the world but I couldn't find a babysitter School runs packed lunches play dates date night nappy changes homework football deadlines bedtime stories supermarket runs peace keeping juice and biscuits park trips the runs toddler groups coffee drinking mum's taxi potty training kiss it better These are our lives Like you we are busy mums who want to follow God We want to be part of his mission to the world Perhaps you had big dreams of how you'd make a difference to the world how you'd change it for the better But now all you can think about is the next feed Or perhaps you think mission is only for special Christians who are extra holy and know their Bible backwards and you feel that just ticking off each day on the calendar is an achievement Wherever you are whatever you feel we hope this book will renew your passion to serve God in your own situation We'd like to share some stories from women who have begun to do just that And we want to invite you to explore what mission looks like for a normal mum Because however ordinary we are we serve an extraordinary God and he calls us all to be a part of his mission to transform the earth bring his kingdom redeem a new humanity and build his church

Decolonizing Mission Partnerships

Taylor Walters Denyer, 2020-06-26 We all know that healthy partnerships are essential to fruitful boundary crossing ministries but how exactly do we create them What barriers must be overcome and what self-examination must we do How do the legacies of colonialism racism and unhealed trauma impact missional collaborations today In this doctoral thesis Denyer reflects on these questions as she examines the history of relational dynamics between American and Congolese United Methodists in the North Katanga Conference DR Congo By surveying memoirs magazines and journals and conducting in depth interviews Denyer presents a complex and multifaceted example of a partnership that is in the process of decolonizing More than just a history lesson Decolonizing Mission Partnerships presents the questions hard truths pitfalls and toxic assumptions we must face when attempting to be in mission together MUNI J Line Connection Project, San Francisco ,1983 Mission as Hospitality Edward L. Smither,2021-01-05 God is a missionary God God is also hospitable in his nature He makes his enemies friends and invites them to intimate communion The mission of God in Scripture often occurs through hospitality when God s people encounter the not yet people of God at table or in hospitable environments and invite them to believe This motif of mission as hospitality plays out through the Old and New Testament Scriptures and through the Eucharist It can also be observed through the witness of monks and contemporary missionaries who embraced a hospitable approach to mission For the church to participate in God s mission today a vision to win conquer or change the world should be exchanged for a conviction to welcome the stranger and make room for others while proclaiming the gospel that is to imitate the hospitable God in mission Mission to Pakkod Margaret Zabor,2024-03-22 Earth damaged by climate change and overpopulation has established 17 off world colonies by 2096 Tygaard Anderson goes to Pakkod to get a treaty for the 18th The telepathic Garaggy rebellious Lingele an autonomous AI and a sudden murder await him in this thought provoking debut novel
