Women of Fire and Spirit Cynthia Hoehler-Fatton, 1996-04-11 The African Christian Roho religion or Holy Spirit movement is a charismatic and prophetic movement that arose in the Luo region of western Kenya This movement has fascinated students of history and religion for more than sixty years but surprisingly has not been extensively studied This book fills that lacuna In Women of Fire and Spirit Cynthia Hoehler Fatton uses the extensive oral histories and life narratives of active participants in the faith giving them full voice in constructing the history of their Church In doing so she counter balances the existing historical literature which draws heavily on colonial records Hoehler Fatton s sources call into question the paradigm of schism that has dominated the discussion of African independent Christianity Faith rather than schism or politics emerges here as the hallmark of Roho religion Hoehler Fatton s book is doubly unusual in foregrounding the role of women in the evolution and expansion of their Church She traces the gradual transformation of women s involvement from the early years when drawing on indigenous models of female spirit possession women acted as soldiers headed congregations and served as pastors to the present condition of Western style institutionalization and exclusion for women Despite this marginalization women members continue to be inspired by the defiance of past heroines Drum ,1997 Debates of the National Assembly (Hansard) South Africa.
