Brazilian Horror Cinema in the Twenty-First Century Stephanie Dennison, Laura Loguercio Cánepa, 2025-02-25 Brazil's pressing socio political questions as seen through the country's horror film influenced audio visual production between 2008 and 2022 Since the 2008 release of Embodiment of Evil the third instalment in the Coffin Joe trilogy which began with At Midnight I'll Take Your Soul Brazil's audiovisual industry has been producing an increasing number of unsettling often violent and frequently dystopian films reflecting the wide ranging social cultural environmental and economic problems the country is facing This edited volume by scholars from Brazil the United Kingdom and the United States discusses a broad selection of Brazilian audio visual productions released between 2008 and 2022 which through their use of aesthetic and narrative devices borrowed from horror cinema shed light on the country's pressing socio political questions. Mostly by first time directors these productions bear witness to a second Golden Age of Brazilian horror cinema reflected in new specialised festivals such as CineFantasy RioFan CRASH and Fantaspoa and ultimately serve to illustrate in audio visual form the tensions at the heart of Brazilian society in the second decade of the twenty first century. A

Cinema Gabriel Eljaiek-Rodríguez, 2018-09-26 The Migration and Politics of Monsters in Latin America proposes a cinematic cartography of contemporary Latin American horror films that take up the idea of the American continent as a space of radical otherness or monstrosity and use it for political purposes The book explores how Latin American film directors migrate foreign horror tropes to create cinematographic horror hybrids that reclaim and transform monstrosity as a form of historical rewriting By emphasizing the specificities of the Latin American experience this book contributes to broad scholarship on horror cinema at the same time connecting the horror tradition with contemporary discussions on violence migration fear of immigrants and the rewriting of colonial discourses Werewolves, Wolves and the Gothic, 2017-09-15 Wolves lope across Gothic imagination Signs of a pure animality opposed to humanity in the figure of the werewolf they become liminal creatures that move between the human and the animal Werewolves function as a site for exploring complex anxieties of difference of gender class race space nation or sexuality but the imaginative and ideological uses of wolves also reflect back on the lives of material animals long persecuted in their declining habitats across the world Werewolves therefore raise unsettling questions about the intersection of the real and the imaginary the instability of human identities and the worldliness and political weight of the Gothic This is the first volume concerned with the appearance of werewolves and wolves in literary and cultural texts from the mid nineteenth century to the present Drawing on representations of werewolves and wolves in literature film television and visual culture the essays investigate the key texts of the lycanthropic canon alongside lesser known works from the 1890s to the present The result is an innovative study that is both theoretically aware and historically nuanced featuring an international list of established and emerging scholars based in Britain Europe North America and Australia Image Embodiment Lars C. Grabbe, Patrick Rupert-Kruse, Norbert M. Schmitz, 2016-10-24 In the new media environment how are bodies and images related How can in other words the human body be integrated with and reformulated in relation to the sensory and perceptual dimension In response to this question Image Embodiment looks not just to images and surface appearances but addresses at a deeper level the media that act as the supports for aesthetics To think about visual culture in the twenty first century necessarily implies the thinking of the specific role of media technologies A view to media not only teases out the technical infrastructure of images but brings with it the potential for addressing the different sense modalities and realities of the human body Recent theories of the sensory turn are effectively highlighting innovative approaches for an autonomous image science and media theory in general Image Embodiment provides one part of the discourse to synchronize the concepts of image and body which is then able to connect the perspectives of philosophy of mind perceptual theory and media as well as image science This volume monitors and discusses the relation of media and the human body and refers to images embodiment and the sensory turn within the perspective of an autonomous image science

Grand-Guignol Cinema and the Horror Genre Mario DeGiglio-Bellemare, 2023-02-14 Grand Guignol Cinema and the Horror Genre traces important contributions of the Parisian Grand Guignol theatre's Golden Age as theoretical considerations of embodiment and affect in the development of horror cinema in the twentieth century This study traces key components of the Grand Guignol stage as a means to explore the immersive and corporeal aspects of horror cinema from the sound period to today The book is a means to explore the Grand Guignol not only as a historical place and genre but also theoretically as a conceptual framework that opens up an affective mapping of Grand Guignol attractions in cinema This study's restoration of a long Grand Guignol tradition in cinema makes it a significant contribution to new theorizations of horror It brings seemingly disparate traditions into conversation as American Canadian French and Italian cinema are all important sites for thinking through cinematic embodiment These four countries have developed their own important genres and movements of Grand Guignol cinema the slasher the French Films of Sensation Canadian body horror and the giallo The Grand Guignol famously operated in a dead end of Chaptal Street in the Pigalle district of Paris this study offers affective and corporeal readings that open up new byways beyond the dead end of psychoanalytic readings that continues to be dominant in horror genre scholarship

Lost Highways, Embodied Travels: The Road Movie in American Experimental Film and Video Kornelia Boczkowska, 2023-02-06 Often identified as one of the most genuine and enduring American film genres the road movie has never been explored in the context of experimental filmmaking To fill this gap Lost Highways Embodied Travels provides the first book length study of over eighty unique and often obscure films and videos and situates them within the corporeal turn in American avant garde cinema so far mostly associated with body genres and sexually explicit films Drawing on unpublished archival materials the book offers a fresh take on both past and current practices of the experimental film community for scholars students makers and film buffs

The Matrix of Visual Culture Patricia Pisters, 2003 This book explores Gilles Deleuze's contribution to film theory According to Deleuze we have come to live in a universe that could be described as metacinematic His conception of images implies a new kind of camera consciousness one that determines our perceptions and sense of selves aspects of our subjectivities are formed in for instance action images affection images and time images We live in a matrix of visual culture that is always moving and changing Each image is always connected to an assemblage of affects and forces This book presents a model as well as many concrete examples of how to work with Deleuze in film theory It asks questions about the universe as metacinema subjectivity violence feminism monstrosity and music Among the contemporary films it discusses within a Deleuzian framework are Strange Days Fight Club and Dancer in the Dark Screening the Nonhuman Amber E.

George,J.L. Schatz,2016-04-27 Screening the Nonhuman draws connections between how animals represented on screen translate into reality In doing so the book demonstrates that consuming media is not a neutral act but rather a political one The images humans consume have real world consequences for how animals are treated as actors as pets and in nature The contributors propose that altering the representations of animals can change the way humans relate to non humans Our hope is for humans to generate more ethical relationships with non humans ultimately mediating reality both in terms of fiction and non fiction To achieve this end film television advertisements and social media are analyzed through an intersectional lens But the book doesn't stop here Each author creates counter representational strategies that promise to unweave the assumptions that have led to the mistreatment of humans and non humans alike Contemporary Argentine Women

Filmmakers Mirna Vohnsen,Daniel Mourenza,2023-07-06 This edited volume offers a wide ranging picture of Argentine women filmmakers contribution to the film industry from the 1980s to the present by bringing together the work of highly acclaimed and emerging directors Through thirteen critical essays by leading scholars in the field of Argentine cinema the book acknowledges that contemporary women filmmakers have transformed the cinema of Argentina by questioning challenging and debunking hegemonic patriarchal systems of representation With a focus on women's voices and experiences the contributions redress both the under representation of women and girls onscreen and the perpetuation of stereotypes while exploring the innovative aesthetics used by these filmmakers Transnational Horror Cinema Sophia

Siddique,Raphael Raphael,2017-02-24 This book broadens the frameworks by which horror is generally addressed Rather than being constrained by psychoanalytical models of repression and castration the volume embraces M M Bakhtin's theory of the grotesque body For Bakhtin the grotesque body is always a political body one that exceeds the boundaries and borders that seek to contain it to make it behave and conform This vital theoretical intervention allows Transnational Horror Cinema to widen its scope to the social and cultural work of these global bodies of excess and the economy of their grotesque exchanges With this in mind the authors consider these bodies potentials to explore and perhaps to explode rigid cultural scripts of embodiment including gender race and ability Gender and Contemporary Horror in Film Samantha
