Fahrenheit 451 Ray Bradbury, 2011-11-29 Nearly seventy years after its original publication Ray Bradbury's internationally acclaimed novel Fahrenheit 451 stands as a classic of world literature set in a bleak dystopian future. Today its message has grown more relevant than ever before. Guy Montag is a fireman. His job is to destroy the most illegal of commodities: the printed book, along with the houses in which they are hidden. Montag never questions the destruction and ruin his actions produce, returning each day to his bland life and wife Mildred, who spends all day with her television family. But when he meets an eccentric young neighbor, Clarisse, who introduces him to a past where people didn't live in fear and to a present where one sees the world through the ideas in books instead of the mindless chatter of television, Montag begins to question everything he has ever known.

Fahrenheit 451 Ray Bradbury, 2012 Guy Montag is a fireman; his job is to burn books which are forbidden.

Fahrenheit 451 Ray Bradbury, 1993 The hauntingly prophetic classic novel set in a not too distant future where books are burned by a special task force of firemen. Over 1 million copies sold in the UK. Guy Montag is a fireman. His job is to burn books which are forbidden, being the source of all discord and unhappiness. Even so, Montag is unhappy; there is discord in his marriage. Are books hidden in his house? The Mechanical Hound of the Fire Department, armed with a lethal hypodermic, escorted by helicopters, is ready to track down those dissidents who defy society to preserve and read books. The classic novel of a post-literate future. Fahrenheit 451 stands alongside Orwell's 1984 and Huxley's Brave New World as a prophetic account of Western civilization's enslavement by the media, drugs, and conformity. Bradbury's powerful and poetic prose combines with uncanny insight into the potential of technology to create a novel which, over fifty years from first publication, still has the power to dazzle and shock.

Heritage Rare Books Auction #6025 , Literature and the Visual Media David Seed, English Association, 2005 Essays on the links between film and fiction and their mutual influence. Fiction and film interrelate closely to each other, and the specially commissioned essays in this volume all consider different aspects of this relationship Beginning with discussions of Dickens and Victorian literature the contributors all leading scholars in this field demonstrate how visual devices like the magic lantern caught the interest of writers and affected their choice of subject and method The impact of the cinema on the British modernists is then discussed and the remaining essays provide detailed case studies on such subjects as Hemingway Updike and the depiction of women in contemporary fiction and film Conversations with Ray Bradbury Ray Bradbury, 2004 Presents a collection of interviews with twentieth century novelist short story writer and playwright Ray Bradbury that covers five decades of his life and works

The Shadow of the Precursor Nena Bierbaum, 2011-10-18 A shadow in its most literal sense is the projection of a silhouette against a surface and the obstruction of direct light from hitting that surface For writers and artists the shadows cast by their precursors can be either a welcome influence one consciously evoked in textual production via homage or bricolage or can manifest as an intrusive haunting prohibitive presence one which threatens to engulf the successor Many writers and artists are affected by an anxious and ambiguous relationship with their precursors while others are energised by this relationship The role that intertextuality plays in creative production invites interrogation and this publication explores a range of conscious and unconscious influences informing relations between texts and contexts between predecessors and successors The chapters revolve around intertextual influence ranging from conscious imitation and intentional allusion to Julia Kristeva's idea of intertextuality Do all texts contain references to and even quotations from other texts Do such references help shape how we read This multidisciplinary work includes chapters on the long shadows cast by Shakespeare Dante Scott Virgil and Ovid the shadows of colonial precursors on postcolonial successors the shadows cast over Kipling and Murdoch and chapters on other writers dramatists and filmmakers and their relationships with precursor figures With its focus on intertextual relationships this book contributes to the thriving fields of adaptation studies and studies of intertextuality Excel Preliminary English David Mahony, 2003
