Faith Culture And Conflict A Middle Eastern Odyssey:

Faith, Culture and Conflict: A Middle Eastern Odyssey Philip Blair, 2014-11-27 An up and down journey Philip Blair accompanied by a most loyal partner and motivated by the sense that it is the road he is appointed to take forged a career living and working in three distinct professions in six countries of the Middle East Along the way there are some unexpected blips as well as a few touching occasionally amusing moments Through this engaging odyssey the reader learns both about the rich though often disturbed history of a region that has yet to find itself and of occasional personal experiences of ugly or unsavoury situations Photographs enhanced by evocative sketches by Joanna Blair help the reader stay on board through a slightly stormy voyage

Faith and Ethnicity Borght, Dirk van Keulen, Martien Brinkman, 2019-12-30 In writing In Christ there is neither Jew nor Greek the apostle Paul touched on a topic that still is hotly debated among Christians today the relationship between faith and ethnicity The Reformed Churches usually organised along regional or national lines are no exception and wrestle world wide with the issue This volume offers Asian and African perspectives especially exploring the Indonesian and South African context This and the next volume of Studies in Reformed Theology contain contributions to the fourth international conference of the International Reformed Theological Institute IRTI held in Princeton N J U S A 2001 on the theme of Faith and Ethnicity

Fear and Faith in Paradise Phil Karber, 2012-06-18 From life along the Tigris River in the 1970s to the ongoing Arab Spring uprisings Phil Karber has witnessed decades of change throughout the Middle East Fear and Faith in Paradise draws on his wealth of experience to sketch a timely and compelling portrait of the region throughout history Going beyond the endless images of terrorism and war he challenges pervasive stereotypes of Muslims and delves into the living history and cultures of Arabs Turks Kurds Persians Jews Tunisians Moroccans Armenians and others Seamlessly moving between past and present Karber skillfully develops two overarching themes How America's footprint can be shifted from a military to a humanitarian emphasis and how fear is used as a cudgel by today's monotheistic leaders to sacrifice the faithful Whether Christian Muslim or Jewish they all invoke their own vision of paradise often as incentive in hopeless conflicts that seem doomed to be repeated Karber s down to earth writing vividly conveys the region s charm and beauty against a backdrop of power struggles among competing faiths nationalisms and outside forces Atone Akanmu G. Adebayo, Sherrill Hayes, Brandon D. Lundy, 2018-02-26 The relationship between religion and conflict has generated considerable academic and political debate Although the majority of religions and spiritual traditions are replete with wisdom that propagates a broader unity among human beings these same examples have been used to legitimize hatred and fear While some studies claim that religion facilitates peacebuilding reconciliation and healing others argue that religion exacerbates hostility instigates vengeance seeking behaviors and heightens conflict But religion does not act by itself human beings are responsible for acts of peace or conflict of division or reconciliation in the name of religion This book addresses these rather complex issues from the perspective of reconciliation or atonement to advance both the frontiers of knowledge and the global search for alternative paths to peace The contributions in the volume focus in three areas 1 Reconciling Religious Conflicts 2 Reconciling Conflict through Religion and 3 Religious Reconciliations In each of these sections scholars practitioners and religious leaders address specific examples that highlight the complex intersections of religious practices with global conflict and reconciliation efforts This informative and provocative book is relevant for students and faculty in peace and conflict studies religious studies humanities social sciences and provides insights useful to practitioners and professionals working in peacebuilding and international development seeking to promote effective resolution and reconciliation efforts Christians and the Middle East Conflict Paul Rowe, John Dyck, Jens Zimmermann, 2014-06-20 Christians and the Middle East Conflict deals with the relationship of Christians and Christian theology to the various conflicts in the Middle East a topic that is often sensationalized but still insufficiently understood Political developments over the last two decades however have prompted observers to rediscover and examine the central role religious motivations play in shaping public discourses This book proceeds on the assumption that neither a focus on the eschatological nor a narrow understanding of the plight of Christians in the Middle East is sufficient Instead it is necessary to understand Christians in context and to explore the ways that Christian theology applies through the actions of Christians who have lived and continue to live through conflict in the region either as native inhabitants or interested foreign observers This volume addresses issues of concern to Christians from a theological perspective from the perspective of Christian responses to conflict throughout history and in reflection on the contemporary realities of Christians in the Middle East The essays in this volume combine contextual political and theological reflections written by both scholars and Christian activists and will be of interest to students and scholars of Politics Religion and Middle East Studies Islamic Populism in Indonesia and the Middle East Vedi R. Hadiz, 2016-02-05 In a novel approach to the field of Islamic politics this provocative new study compares the evolution of Islamic populism in Indonesia the country with the largest Muslim population in the world to the Middle East

Utilising approaches from historical sociology and political economy Vedi R Hadiz argues that competing strands of Islamic politics can be understood as the product of contemporary struggles over power material resources and the result of conflict across a variety of social and historical contexts Drawing from detailed case studies across the Middle East and Southeast Asia the book engages with broader theoretical questions about political change in the context of socio economic transformations and presents an innovative comparative framework to shed new light on the diverse trajectories of Islamic politics in the modern world

Into Thin Places Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2011-01-12 In this third volume of his Adventures in Spirituality trilogy Dr Robert Vande Kappelle travels from Amsterdam to Cairo in search of his cultural and spiritual roots inviting readers to join him in exploring fabled places across the Mediterranean World Despite the grave problems centered in this region it is the birthplace of Western civilization and the source of the world's three guiding religions Readers unfamiliar with the emergence and development of Western civilization will find Into Thin Places a compelling introduction others will discover here a new perspective Affirming the human quest for adventure meaning and wholeness Professor Vande Kappelle beckons adventurers to enjoy the wonderful experiences described in the book's travel entries Those seeking historical and cultural perspective will want to examine the numerous explanatory entries scattered throughout the narrative These vignettes expand and deepen the storyline piquing curiosity about seminal events persons and places that helped shape Western sensibility As Dr Vande Kappelle points out in his closing chapter our world is in a state of crisis precipitated by numerous factors but primarily by the loss of the sacred Whether the current crisis is curable is debatable but it will clearly require massive cultural reorientation More importantly it will require a transformation of the human spirit and a commitment of will Into Thin Places encourages readers to find thin places places transparent to the divine in their own transformative journeys of discovery

Muslims Beyond the Arab World Fallou Ngom, 2016 Muslims beyond the Arab World explores the vibrant tradition of writing African languages using the modified Arabic script Ajami alongside the rise of the Muridiyya Sufi order in Senegal The book demonstrates how the development of the Ajami literary tradition is entwined with the flourishing of the Muridiyya into one of sub-Saharan Africa's most powerful and dynamic Sufi organizations It offers a close reading of the rich hagiographic and didactic written recited and chanted Ajami texts of the Muridiyya works largely unknown to scholars The texts describe the life and Sufi odyssey of the order's founder Shaykh Ahmadu Bamba Mbakke 1853-1927 his conflicts with local rulers and Muslim clerics and the French colonial administration and the traditions and teachings he championed that permanently shaped the identity and behaviors of his followers Fallou Ngom evaluates prevailing representations of the Muridiyya movement and offers alternative perspectives He demonstrates how the Murids used their written recited and chanted Ajami materials as an effective mass communication tool in conveying to the masses Bamba's poignant odyssey doctrine the virtues he stood for and cultivated among his followers self-esteem self-reliance strong faith work ethic pursuit of excellence determination nonviolence and optimism in the face of adversity without the knowledge of the French colonial administration and many academics Muslims beyond the Arab World argues that this is the source of the resilience appeal and expansion of Muridiyya which has fascinated observers since its inception in 1883

Arab Intellectuals and American Power M.D. Walhout, 2020-10-01 Edward Said the famous Palestinian American scholar and activist was one of the twentieth century's most iconic public intellectuals whose pioneering and to some controversial work on Orientalism shaped Middle Eastern and postcolonial studies and beyond But how exactly did he arrive at his famous maxim to speak truth to power This dual biographical study examines the lives of Edward Said and the eminent Lebanese philosopher and diplomat Charles Malik a distant relative 30 years his senior whom Said knew from childhood as Uncle Charles To Said Malik was no ordinary relative in his memoir he called Malik the great negative intellectual lesson of my life and was to describe him as an ideal as I was growing up only to later claim Malik went through an ugly transformation that I could never come to terms with M D Walhout charts the development of these two remarkable figures reconstructing in the process the way in which American power in the Middle East came to have a defining effect on Arab intellectuals in the twentieth century Exploring issues of religion and nationalism Walhout shows how Said came to reject much of what Malik stood for Christian faith hardline anti Communism and the benign nature of American power He argues that the example of Malik was instrumental in the development of Said's later belief that the true vocation of the intellectual was not to compromise with power but to resist it
