From A Girl's Point Of View:

Otaku and the Struggle for Imagination in Japan Patrick W. Galbraith, 2019-12-06 From computer games to figurines and maid cafes men called otaku develop intense fan relationships with cute girl characters from manga anime and related media and material in contemporary Japan While much of the Japanese public considers the forms of character love associated with otaku to be weird and perverse the Japanese government has endeavored to incorporate otaku culture into its branding of Cool Japan In Otaku and the Struggle for Imagination in Japan Patrick W Galbraith explores the conflicting meanings of otaku culture and its significance to Japanese popular culture masculinity and the nation Tracing the history of otaku and cute girl characters from their origins in the 1970s to his recent fieldwork in Akihabara Tokyo the Holy Land of Otaku Galbraith contends that the discourse surrounding otaku reveals tensions around contested notions of gender sexuality and ways of imagining the nation that extend far beyond Japan At the same time in their relationships with characters and one another otaku are imagining and creating alternative social worlds

Gender and Sexuality in Senegalese Societies Babacar M'Baye, Besi Brilliant Muhonja, 2019-07-10 Drawing from the diverse fields of postcolonial studies literary studies history anthropology sociology political science environmental studies and development studies among others Gender and Sexuality in Senegalese Societies demonstrates the urgency and necessity of new research in gender and queer studies in and on Senegalese societies By focusing on subjects that have thus far been largely neglected in national and scholarly debates the chapters are subversive complex and inclusive centering within Senegalese studies themes and elements of alternative nonbinary variant and nonheteronormative gender identities sexualities and voices Contributors demonstrate that nationalist and anticolonial discourses propelled by deep and lingering socioeconomic inequalities have led in postcolonial Senegal to vitriolic scapegoating of individuals and communities with variant sexual and gender identities The chapters in this volume look inward to the voices and experiences of the Senegalese people to challenge nationalist representations of advocacy for the liberation of gender and sexual minorities in Senegal as a function of a Western neocolonialist agenda

The Equity Myth Frances Henry, Enakshi Dua, Carl E. James, Audrey Kobayashi, Peter Li, Howard Ramos, Malinda S. Smith, 2017-06-22 The university is often regarded as a bastion of liberal democracy where equity and diversity are promoted and racism doesn't exist In reality the university still excludes many people and is a site of racialization that is subtle complex and sophisticated While some studies do point to the persistence of systemic barriers to equity in higher education in depth analyses of racism racialization and Indigeneity in the academy are more notable for excluding racialized and Indigenous professors This book is the first comprehensive data based study of racialized and Indigenous faculty members' experiences in Canadian universities Challenging the myth of equity in higher education it brings together leading scholars who scrutinize what universities have done and question the effectiveness of their equity programs They draw on a rich body of survey data interviews and analysis of universities' stated policies to examine the experiences of racialized faculty members across Canada who despite diversity initiatives in their respective institutions have yet to see meaningful changes in everyday working conditions They also make important recommendations as to how universities can address racialization and fulfill the promise of equity in higher education Annual Report India. volume II Suzanne B. Hanser,Concetta Maria Tomaino,Amy Clements-Cortes,Melissa Mercadal-Brotons,2024-03-07 This Research Topic is the second volume of Music Therapy in Geriatrics Please find the first Edition here Demographic projections estimate that by 2050 the number of people aged 65 and older in the world will soar to 1.5 billion approximately one third of the total population Medical and technological advances have certainly contributed to enhanced longevity However with advanced age there is a concomitant elevation in the prevalence of chronic diseases The Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion in the U S found that in 2012 60% of older adults reported at least two of the following conditions Cancer heart disease emphysema or chronic bronchitis stroke diabetes mellitus and Alzheimer's disease These diagnoses carry the extensive costs and burdens of serious illnesses and also mean that family caregivers of loved ones with these conditions experience significant challenges placing them at extreme risk for a variety of stress related illnesses and afflictions and accounting for high rates of morbidity and mortality Power, Violence and Justice Margaret

Abraham,2023-01-05 This book brings together sociological insights theoretical perspectives and global research to contribute to a deeper understanding of the complexities of contemporary power violence and justice It explores a diverse range of urgent topics including colonialism migration race gender and intersectionality social movements security environment and education In doing so it asks what the role of sociology is and could be in moving us forward Both critical and hopeful this collection stimulates us as researchers and as human beings It challenges us to reflect respond and share in the responsibility of countering the forces that perpetrate violence subvert equality and dilute the notion of justice With contributions from an array of distinguished international scholars including several former International Sociological Association presidents this is an essential reference work for researchers across the social sciences interested in power violence social justice human rights public sociology social change and social movements Margaret Abraham is Professor of Sociology and the Harry H Wachtel Distinguished Professor at Hofstra University USA She is also a Past President of the International Sociological Association Exploring Natural Language Gerald Nelson,Sean Wallis,Bas Aarts,2002-06-27

ICE GB is a 1 million word corpus of contemporary British English It is fully parsed and contains over 83 000 syntactic trees Together with the dedicated retrieval software ICECUP ICE GB is an unprecedented resource for the study of English syntax Exploring Natural Language is a comprehensive guide to both corpus and software It contains a full reference for ICE GB The chapters on ICECUP provide complete instructions on the use of the many features of the software including concordancing lexical and grammatical searches sociolinguistic queries random sampling and searching for syntactic structures using ICECUP's Fuzzy Tree Fragment models Special attention is given to the principles of experimental design in a parsed corpus Six case studies provide step by step illustrations of how the corpus and software can be used to explore real linguistic issues from simple lexical studies to more complex syntactic topics such as noun phrase structure verb transitivity and voice Democracy & Education ,1999 Christianity, Femininity and Social Change in Contemporary China

Li Ma,2019-12-11 Women make up the vast majority of Protestant Christians in China a largely faceless majority as their stories too often go untold in scholarly research as well as popular media This book writes Protestant Chinese women into the history of twenty first century China It features the oral histories of over a dozen women highlighting themes of spiritual transformation politicized culture social mobility urbanization and family life Each subject narrates not only her own story but that of her mother as well revealing a deeply personal dimension to the dramatic social change that has occurred in a matter of decades By uncovering the stories of Christian women in China Li Ma offers a unique window onto the interactions between femininity and Christianity and onto the socioeconomic upheavals that mark recent Chinese history From a Girl s Point of View Lilian Bell,2019-09-25 Reproduction of the original From a Girl s Point of View by Lilian Bell
