Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2012 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2009 Short Stories Lucy Montgomery, 2024-04-15 The land dropped abruptly down from the gate, and a thick shrubby growth of young apple orchard almost hid the little weather-grey house from the road. This was why the young man who opened the sagging gate could not see that it was boarded up and did not cease his cheerful whistling until he had pressed through the crowding trees and found himself almost on the sunken stone doorstep over which, in olden days, honeysuckle had been wont to arch. Now only a few straggling uncared-for vines clung forlornly to the shingles, and the windows were as has been said, all boarded up. The whistle died on the young man's lips, and an expression of blank astonishment and dismay settled down on his face. A good, kindly, honest face it was, although perhaps it did not betoken any pronounced mental gifts on the part of its owner. What could have happened, he said to himself, Uncle Tom and Aunt Sally can't be dead. I'd have seen their deaths in the paper if they were. And I'd a thought if they'd moved away, it'd been printed too. They can't have been gone long; that flower bed must have been made up last spring. Well, this is a kind of setback for a fellow. Here I've been tramping all the way from the station, thinking how good it would be to see Aunt Sally's sweet old face again and hear Uncle Tom's laugh, and all I find is a boarded-up house going to seed. So, I might as well toddle over to Stetsons and inquire if they haven't disappeared too.
