Lockhart, 2024-03-19 All of us at times encounter heartache death challenges failures disappointments and other trials How do you overcome these difficulties Do you hold onto your hidden and silent issues At what moment will you no longer internalize your doubts and fears your failures and unforgiveness your pain and brokenness Holding onto painful problems indefinitely will not add value or meaning to your life In Encouragement for Those Who Suffer in Silence author Rev Dr LaRuth E Lockhart addresses common issues often held in secret by many challenges that can cause you to become broken and to suffer in silence She communicates that you can't receive comfort until you face and admit what ails you. You must let go and let God have control of every aspect of your life. He is the God of all healing, comfort, and restoration. Using her personal experience of suffering silently and with the word of God as her source, Dr. LaRuth encourages you to give voice to the silent issues that bind you and to graciously receive healing for your pain and restoration through Jesus Christ, the savior.
