Sports Market Place Directory Richard Gottlieb,2007 Working Mother ,1998-06 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Sports Sponsorship John A. Fortunato,2013-08-14 This book focuses on how the sponsorship of sports works the costs the goals evaluation and selection of the property a sponsor chooses how to activate a sponsorship how to create a brand association public relations and brand image possibilities Anything is possible in a sponsorship it is simply what the sponsor and the property can agree to during their negotiations There is for example the opportunity for product category exclusivity no competing brand at a particular location With the audience being harder to reach because of technology sponsorship continues to be a viable way to obtain brand exposure and better connect a brand with a consumer With global sponsorship spending totaling more than 51 billion it is clear that many companies see this as an important promotional communication strategy Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here IEG Directory of Sponsorship Marketing ,1994 Sport as History Tony Collins,2013-09-13

Published to mark the career of one of sports history s pioneers this book traces the evolution of sport across three continents It brings together some of sports history s leading scholars to investigate not only the history of sport but also how that history is written This Festschrift marks the retirement of Professor Wray Vamplew an internationally renowned leader in the field of sports history His 1976 book The Turf was one of the very first academic histories of sport and he has been a prolific writer scholar and teacher for almost forty years No one has played such an important role in the field of sports history across North America Europe and Australia President of the Australian Society of Sports History ASSH the British Society of Sports History BSSH the European Committee for the History of Sport CESH and the International Society for the History of Physical Education and Sport ISHPES Vamplew is currently editor of the North American Society for Sports History s NASSH journal the Journal of Sport History This collection reflects his interests and his appeal across the three continents the essays deal with sport in America Australia Britain and Ireland and focus on the themes of national and regional identity gender trade unionism in sport and historiographical debates It is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the history of sport and how it is studied today This book was published as a special issue of Sport in History

Global Practices of Corporate Social Responsibility Samuel O Idowu,Walter Leal Filho,2008-12-21 Being socially responsible on the part of corporate entities is now no longer an option it is part of their normal business obligations to all their stakeholders regardless of whether these are primary or secondary stakeholders Modern societies around the world now expect corporate entities of all shapes and forms to be socially responsible in whatever they do the Global Practices of Corporate Social Responsibility is a first attempt at bringing together in one book experts accounts of how corporate entities in twenty independent nations around the world are dealing with the issue of CSR The world today faces diverse social problems These become apparent as one moves from one country to the next interestingly society now expects corporations to help in finding solutions to these problems The problem of global warming affects us all modern corporations can no longer continue to assume that the problem will go away if nothing is done by them We can all make a little difference by our actions IEG Sponsorship Sourcebook ,2005 The Landman ,1973
