

 is a happy, confident member of our kindergarten community. Her favorite centers are sorting and Lego.  loves leading our classroom calendar routines. On a recent walk,  discovered a tree with "shiny leaves", and asked me what they were. She quickly learned that they were weeping willow leaves and was able to identify and name the tree later during a classroom discussion. She has already made some good friends in our kindergarten community.

Areas of Strength:

- selects and works at a variety of centers
- shares favorite books to share with reading buddies and classmates
- quickly applies concepts learned in literacy and math

Areas for Growth:

- showing good listening skills during group discussions (sitting cross-legged with hands in her own lap and voice quiet)
- following classroom routines quickly and quietly without getting distracted  comes into our classroom each morning with a big smile.  frequently contributes to classroom discussions and asks questions. He enjoys games, problem solving questions, and reading books in his classroom.  goes to the English Language Learner group with *****.

Areas of Strength:

- strong understanding of the kindergarten math curriculum
- experimenting with writing words and short sentences without teacher support
- exploring, investigating, and asking questions about objects and events in the environment
- beginning to read books independently and confidently

Areas for Growth:

- following classroom routines
- speaking loudly and clearly during classroom discussions

 is a quiet and confident member of our kindergarten community. She is eager to participate during classroom discussions and contributes good ideas. She has been a helpful and thoughtful community member. She follows routines well and is often the first student to the carpet and the first student ready to go outside at recess and lunch.  works hard and stays focused on classroom tasks and activities.

Areas of Strength:

- identifying, describing and repeating patterns
- measuring what she already knows with what she is learning in class
- prints and draws neatly
