Developing Standards-Based Report Cards Thomas R. Guskey, Jane M. Bailey, 2010 Providing a clear framework this volume helps school leaders align assessment and reporting practices with standards based education and develop more detailed reports of children's learning and progress

Making Space for Active Learning Anne C. Martin, Ellen Schwartz, 2015-04-28 This powerful collection will inspire new and veteran teachers to make space for children's interests for teaching as relational and intellectual work and for new insights and ideas The authors introduce the Prospect Center's Descriptive Review of Practice a collaborative inquiry process that provides an opportunity for teachers to examine their practice and gain new perspectives from other participants The contributors to this volume respond to each child's modes of thinking as they develop curriculum or find wiggle room in curricula they are given By demonstrating how it is possible to pursue careful knowledge of craft this book offers ways of teaching that allow for continuing growth and change Book Features An inquiry methodology that assists teachers to reflect on the classroom and develop curriculum that responds to children's interests and needs Specific examples of a variety of sources teachers can draw on and think about to improve practice A method of data collection that can inform practice while allowing for the unevenness messiness and essential humanness of teaching and learning Making Space for Active Learning is a collection that stands alone and gets to the heart of what we mean by learning and teaching Each contribution reminded me of how much I miss being in the classroom and how much we're missing in current so called school reform discourse Keep this book handy A chapter at a time will restore some needed sanity about what's important Deborah Meier author and education activist This book is a moving and powerful collection of teachers work that holds the possibility of inspiring and changing new teachers practice Kathy Schultz Dean and Professor School of Education Mills College This book will add significantly to the expanding and important literature about The Prospect Processes which were developed over many years at the Prospect School and Center in Vermont The chapters all by experienced educators profit from the back and forth between inquiry and stories of classroom life each informing the other Brenda S Engel associate professor retired Lesley University

Multifaceted Assessment for Early Childhood Education Robert J. Wright, 2010 Multifaceted Assessment in Early Childhood is ideal for those on upper division undergraduate courses and first level graduate courses in early childhood education assessment The book covers the various measures used in a range of assessment dimensions and includes valuable information regarding young children with special needs and English Language Learners which has rarely been touched upon in other textbooks The chapters are focused on student accessibility and include practical applications of key concepts Features and benefits Covers a range of assessment concepts including Formative uses feedback from learning to adapt teaching Summative i.e tests quizzes Authentic focuses on complex deeper tasks Standardized STAR SAT Includes coverage of assessment for English language learners and children with special needs topics that are not provided enough coverage in other books including Wortham McAfee Puckett and Mindes Wright's writing style grabs and engages the reader in the topic. Two of our reviewers who use Wortham specifically cited Wright's writing style as a reason they would adopt our book. A McAfee reviewer is likely to switch for the same reason.

Windows on Learning Judy Harris Helm, Sallee Beneke, Kathy Steinheimer, 2007. Completely updated, this popular guide provides teachers with a proven method for documenting, collecting, analyzing, and displaying young children's work. Written by teachers for teachers, it also shows principals, curriculum coordinators, and directors of early intervention programs how to develop children's portfolios to share with parents or to use for assessment and other accountability purposes. This lively, informative book poses a remarkable challenge to teachers to grow themselves while growing young children. Being creatively accountable is hard work, and the stories told here describe both the work, how it's done, and its joyful rewards for teachers and children. Elizabeth Jones, Pacific Oaks College. This book provides a set of windows on children's lives and how teachers can enter into those lives and enrich them through high-quality teaching. The authors have created an inspiring volume, a challenging set of ideas, and an invaluable resource for early childhood educators. Samuel J. Meisels, University of Michigan. A thoughtful, up-to-date guide to assessing and documenting children's work. The authors give clear, practical advice on how to collect, analyze, and display children's work in meaningful ways. Scholastic Early Childhood Today. On first edition. Many teachers find it frustrating to hear the rich and exciting learning experiences they provide described as nothing. Windows on Learning skillfully addresses the challenge faced by early childhood educators wishing to share classroom experiences with parents, administrators, and peers. The authors offer a timely and fresh approach to documenting children's learning and work. Childhood Education on first edition.

The Art of Focused Conversation for Schools, Third Edition Jo Nelson, 2013-08-20

Why don't kids learn? Why can't students do higher-order thinking? Why do educators have endless staff meetings with few results? How can parents and teachers communicate better? The pressure upon educators to teach more to a wider range and number of students with decreasing resources and supports makes it urgent to find tools to answer such questions. The Art of Focused Conversation for Schools demonstrates how the Focused Conversation method, widely used in organizations and businesses, can effectively be used in a K-12 educational setting. Each section deals with interactions among students, staff, and parents and elaborates with over 100 sample conversations designed to make learning more meaningful, prevent and solve problems, and make communications in meetings more effective. Appendices showcase integrated curriculum examples where conversations have been used in unique combinations and list sample questions for each level of the conversation method. With a bibliography and index included and patterned after its highly successful predecessor The Art of Focused Conversation, 100 Ways to Access Group Wisdom in the Workplace, this book will be welcomed by parents, students, educators, and school administrators everywhere.
