Le Parler De Soi:

Chadian Sister Engages Kansas City Youth about Peace and Justice Nelkem Londadjim, 2020-10-09 A woman meets young people from various backgrounds at a U S university She is African from Chad The students eager to learn about her life ask probing questions She tells them about the war her flight her refugee status her experiences in West Africa and Algeria In turn she discovers that they are still exposed to racism in their country an outrage compounded by the murders of George Floyd and Breonna Taylor As an activist in residence she dialogues with the students about their aspirations and encourages them to become artisans of peace and justice We look forward in turn to the thoughts and writings of young people about the encounters shared here and the illustrations by a young Kenyan woman that accompany the essays

The Concept of Love in 17th and 18th Century Philosophy Herman de Dijn, 2007 Love is joy with the accompanying idea of an external cause Spinoza's definition of love manifests a major paradigm shift achieved by seventeenth century Europe in which the emotions formerly seen as normative forces of nature were embraced by the new science of the mind This shift has often been seen as a transition from a philosophy laden with implicit values and assumptions to a more scientific and value free way of understanding human action But is this rational approach really value free Today we tend to believe that values are inescapable and that the descriptive mechanical method implies its own set of values Yet the assertion by Spinoza Malebranche Leibniz and Enlightenment thinkers that love guides us to wisdom and even that the love of a god who creates and maintains order and harmony in the world forms the core of ethical behavior still resonates powerfully with us It is evidently an idea Western culture is unwilling to relinquish This collection of insightful essays offers a range of interesting perspectives on how the triumph of reason affected not only the scientific philosophical understanding of the emotions and especially of love but our everyday understanding as well

Les Cahiers Britanniques Et Américains, 1917 La Pensée logique et politique de M. Merleau-Ponty Joseph M Labaki, 2021-01-20 Maurice Merleau-Ponty is the giant phenomenologist of his time in the entire French speaking world He is not an epistemologist nor a moralist For him the beginning of the beginning is human flesh the flesh becomes word the word becomes flesh and both die There is science and there is experience perception The mother is the latter They aren't contradictory but complete and depend on each other With regard to language for him there are words and there is grammar A word is never empty but carries its own weight even a lie is full of meaning Liberty resides in grammar an individual function and independent from books It is in the grammar where singularity lives Thinking and talking are the same Wherever there is human life there is meaning and that is irrespective of age culture religion education or social position Merleau-Ponty is not a Marxist nor a communist According to him history is blind it has no mind He also finds a flaw in Freudianism Flesh is an infinite universe full of stars and black holes Following Merleau-Ponty verity is de-veil and de-veil is verity but verity is never absolute One must take a step back There is light and there is shadow they never coincide in human life The shadow is always first and no matter how one tries
