Le Roi De Kahel:

Le roi de Kahel Tierno Monénembo, 2008 Roman librement inspiré de la vie d'Olivier de Sanderval conquérant du royaume peul du Fouta Djallon précurseur de la colonisation de l'Afrique de l'Ouest

The King of Kahel Tierno Monénembo, 2010 The story is loosely inspired by the life of Olivier de Sanderval who intent on becoming an explorer for most of his life finally set sail for Africa in 1879 after turning 40 As Monénembo tells it once there he recruits a crew of Senegalese infantrymen and travels to Fouta Djallon a land he desperately wants to rule He learns local customs that will aid him in his quest to govern During the following years of conquests and reconquests Sanderval never loses his taste for European luxury and moves between Africa and France where he publishes books on his experience and struggles to command Fouta Eventually he returns to Fouta with his grown son Georges to find war raging between locals and the French army finally extinguishing his lifelong dream

The Colonial Fortune in Contemporary Fiction in French Oana Panaïté, 2017 This book explores the colonial fortune in light of contemporary concerns with issues of fate economics legacy and debt and the persistence of the colonial in today's political and cultural conversation

Francophone Cultures and Geographies of Identity Zsuzsanna Fagyal, H Adlai Murdoch, 2014-07-03 This collection of original essays challenges French centered conceptions of francophonie as the shaping force of the production and study of the French language literature culture film and art both inside and outside mainland France The traditional view of francophone cultural productions as offshoots of their hexagonal avatar is replaced by a pluricentric conception that reads interrelated aspects of francophonie as products of specific contexts conditions and local ecologies that emerged from post colonial encounters with France and other colonizing powers The twenty one papers grouped into six thematic parts focus on distinctive literary linguistic musical cinematographic and visual forms of expression in geographical areas long defined as the peripheries of the French speaking world the Caribbean the Indian Ocean the Maghreb sub Saharan Africa Quebec and hexagonal cities with a preponderance of immigrant populations These contested sites of French collective identity offer a rich formulation of distinctly local francophone identities that do not fit in with concepts of linguistic and ethnic exclusiveness but are consistent with a pluralistic demographic shift and the true face of Frenchness that is indeed plural

Adornment, Masquerade and African Femininity Ismahane Soukeyna Diop, 2023-05-02 This book draws on a unique theoretical framework informed by clinical case studies, Fanonian and Lacanian psychoanalysis and decolonial feminism to examine the concept of adornment in African cultures. The book discusses the construction of aesthetic feminine ideals and the evolution of such ideals within the history of colonization, decolonization and globalization. Through the analysis of adornments including accessories, hairstyle, clothes and fabric, the author demonstrates how they can reflect social status and also addresses its symbolic function in rituals. At the level of the individual, it draws on clinical case studies to examine the Lacanian theory of adornment and masquerade of femininity and the extent to which this echoes ambivalent attitudes towards women in society at large. In doing so, it provides a nuanced analysis which reveals how body adornment can be a paradoxical demonstration of both strength and weakness. Building on the author's previous work in this area, this book offers an important contribution to current debates in psychoanalysis, cultural studies, critical race theory and decolonial feminism.

Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment Odile Cazenave, Patricia Célérier, 2011-02-02 By looking at engaged literature from the recent past when the francophone African writer was implicitly seen as imparted with a mission to the present when such authors usually aspire to be acknowledged primarily for their work as writers, Contemporary Francophone African Writers and the Burden of Commitment addresses the current processes of canonization in contemporary francophone African literature. Odile Cazenave and Patricia Célérier argue that aesthetic as well as political issues are now at the forefront of debates about the African literary canon as writers and critics increasingly acknowledge the ideology of form. Working across genres but focusing on the novel, the authors take up the question of renewed forms of commitment in this literature. Their selected writers range from Mongo Beti, Ousmane Sembène and Aminata Sow Fall to Boubacar Boris Diop, Vronique Tadjo, Alain Mabanckou and L'onora Miano among others.

Francophone African Narratives and the Anglo-American Book Market Vivan Steemers, 2021-03-01 In recent years the material circumstances governing the production of African literature have been analyzed from a variety of angles. This study goes one step further by charting the trajectories of a corpus of francophone African sub-Saharan narratives subsequently translated into English. It examines the role of various institutional agents and agencies: publishers, preface writers, critics, translators and literary award committees involved in the value-making process that accrues visibility to these texts that eventually reach the Anglo-American book market. The author evinces that over time different types of publishers dominated both within the original publishing space as in the foreign literary field, contingent on their specific mission, be it commercial, ideological or educational, as well as on socioeconomic and political circumstances. The study addresses the influence of the editorial paratextual framing, pandering to specific Western readerships, the potential interventionist function of the translator and the consecrating mechanisms of literary and translation awards affecting both gender and minority representation. Drawing on the work by key sociologists and translation theorists, the author uses an innovative interdisciplinary methodology to analyze the corpus narratives

Historical Dictionary of Guinea Mohamed Saliou Camara, Thomas O'Toole, Janice E. Baker, 2013-11-07 The most significant thing about Guinea is its potential It is strategically located in West Africa with a well educated and hardworking population and endowed with considerable natural resources indeed enough to make it reasonably affluent if properly utilized But this potential has never really been tapped due mainly to bad politics with military men following a charismatic politician until finally democracy has been achieved So more than half a century after achieving independence the question remains unanswered which way will Guinea turn This fifth edition of Historical Dictionary of Guinea covers the full scope of Guinea s history This is done through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 800 cross referenced entries on key events leaders governmental international religious and other private organizations policies political movements and parties economic elements and many other areas that have shaped the country s trajectory This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Guinea

Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory Oana Panaïté, 2022-06-15 Contemporary literature gathers in a commemorative site the remains of H history and its own story by erecting literary tombs Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory argues that current narratives of the aftermath enable writers to honour the past while casting off its burdensome legacy and to dismantle while reassembling affective political and aesthetic communities The genre is defined and discussed in relation to other literary forms such as trauma writing historical novels archival narratives biofiction or field literature Necrofiction fulfils in distinct ways the social and artistic function of an individual or collective act of remembrance of a lost family member or a historical figure At the same time it offers a creative space in which the authors can overcome the burden of literary tradition by incorporating existing models and devices into their own poetic art while as demonstrated by the works of five writers whose personal and artistic trajectories transcend political cultural and linguistic frontiers Linda L Patrick Modiano Assia Djebar Patrick Chamoiseau and Maylis de Kerangal By examining the ways in which fiction both reflects and resists what Achille Mbembe has defined as necropolitics Necrofiction and The Politics of Literary Memory delves into the contentious yet intimate relationship between singular models of literary remembrance and the frameworks of hegemonic discourses

Postcolonial Realms of Memory Etienne Achille, Charles Forsdick, Lydie Moudileno, 2020-02-07 An elegant yet accessible work Postcolonial Realms of Memory not only exposes the colonial blind spot that left Pierre Nora s Lieux de mmoire incomplete but begins the long task of remedying it This is a crucial intervention that the field has required for some time Gemma King Contemporary French Civilization

Le Héros et la mort dans les traditions épiques Romuald Fonkoua, Muriel Ott, 2018-10-04 Le pr sent recueil propose un long voyage travers les r cits piques du monde que l on peut suivre travers deux perspectives africaine et antillaise d une part europ enne et asiatique d autre part Les contributions montrent la pertinence du r cit pique dans ces diff rentes aires culturelles et donnent une id e assez pr cise de sa richesse ind

niable sur tous les continents et toutes les époques. Entre Afrique et Amérique, entre Asie et Europe, ces textes permettent de jeter plus d'un pont littéraire. Homère et le Mahabharata, Soundjata et les épopées de l'Ouest africain et d'Afrique centrale, les chansons de geste françaises du Moyen Âge et les épopées irlandaises médiévales, les poètes français classiques et les poètes arabes sont tous au rendez-vous devant ce tribunal de l'histoire et de la critique pour livrer leurs secrets sur le héros et la mort. Le récit pique est traditionnellement lié au genre de l'épopée mais il ne s'y résume guère. Il est porté aussi bien par le poème ou le conte que par le roman contemporain de langue française. Tierno Monénembo ou douard Glissant. Si le sujet de la mort est de ceux que la critique a longtemps traités dans les littératures européennes, il apparaît aussi comme l'un des épisodes obligés dans d'autres récits piqués ou valeur piquée du monde. Ce sont ces deux éléments diversifiés du genre et pertinence du sujet qui se dégagent d'emblée de la mise en commun de tous ces textes. Les articles qui sont donnés à lire ici proviennent d'une sélection des travaux du sixième Congrès du REARE, Réseau euro-africain de recherches sur les épopées, organisé par l'Université de Strasbourg du 27 au 29 novembre 2012 avec le soutien de l'Agence universitaire de la Francophonie, du Conseil scientifique de l'Université de Strasbourg, de la Faculté des Lettres des quipés d'Accueil 1337 Strasbourg et 3013 Grenoble 3 ainsi que de la mairie de Strasbourg.

Tierno Monénembo et le roman Bernard De Meyer, Papa Samba Diop, 2014

Le roman francophone et l'archive coloniale Josias Semujanga, Philippe Basabose, 2020-09-23. Cet ouvrage étudie comment les littératures francophones convoquent les histoires du temps de la colonie à partir des rapports que le roman entretient avec l'histoire et comment ces récits nourrissent l'imaginaire culturel dans les communautés postcoloniales. Le régime impérial fait-il partie d'une tradition transmise pour les sociétés postcoloniales et dans quelles conditions un tel héritage pourrait-il avoir un sens éthique et politique dans la modernité de ces peuples ? Comment les œuvres littéraires inscrivent-elles dans leur déploiement narratif et nonciatif cette mémoire coloniale et comment le lecteur contemporain donne-t-il sens à ce passé ? Telles sont les questions auxquelles les auteurs ont voulu répondre chacun selon sa posture critique.

Past Imperfect Pierre-Philippe Fraiture, 2021. This book offers an interdisciplinary exploration of anti-colonial thought in its existential, Marxist, religious and ethnophilosophical manifestations. Past Imperfect directly employs time in its different guises: history, historiography, memory, temporality and historicity as a tool to understand the decolonization of the humanities in Francophone Africa in the immediate post-WW2 era.

Mediating Violence from Africa George S. MacLeod, 2023-10. Mediating Violence from Africa explores how African and non-African Francophone authors, filmmakers, editors and scholars have packaged, interpreted and filmed the violent histories of post-Cold War Francophone Africa. This violence, much of which unfolded in front of Western television cameras, included the use of child soldiers facilitated by the Soviet Union's castoff Kalashnikov rifles, the rise of Islamist terrorism in West Africa and the horrific genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda. Through close readings of fictionalized child soldier narratives, cinematic representations of Islamist militants, genocide survivor testimony and Western scholarship, George S. MacLeod analyzes the ways Francophone African authors and filmmakers as well as their editors and scholarly critics negotiate the aesthetic political cultural and ethical implications of making these traumatic stories visible MacLeod argues for the need to periodize these productions within a post Cold War framework to emphasize how shifts in post 1989 political discourse are echoed contested or subverted by contemporary Francophone authors filmmakers and Western scholars The questions raised in Mediating Violence from Africa are of vital importance today How the world engages with and responds to stories of recent violence and loss from Africa has profound implications for the affected communities and individuals More broadly in an era in which stories and images of violence from terror attacks to school shootings to police brutality are disseminated almost instantly and with minimal context these theoretical questions have implications for debates surrounding the ethics of representing trauma the politicization of memory and Africa's place in a global as opposed to a postcolonial or Euro African economic and political landscape

group of contemporary French speaking writers who straddle continents Nina Bouraoui Hélène Cixous Maryse Condé Marie NDiaye Tierno Mon némo and Lionel Trouillot What these writers have in common beyond their use of French is their resistance to the centralizing power of a language their rejection of exclusive definitions and their claim for creative autonomy
