

The background of the cover is a painting of Joan of Arc. She is depicted in full plate armor, holding a large banner in her right hand and a sword in her left. She stands over a fallen knight in armor. The scene is set in a dark, possibly battle-torn environment with smoke or mist in the background.

A Cultural History of Dress and Fashion in the Medieval Age Sarah-Grace Heller, 2018-11-01 During the medieval period people invested heavily in looking good The finest fashions demanded careful chemistry and compounds imported from great distances and at considerable risk to merchants the Church became a major consumer of both the richest and humblest varieties of cloth shoes and adornment and vernacular poets began to embroider their stories with hundreds of verses describing a plethora of dress styles fabrics and shopping experiences Drawing on a wealth of pictorial textual and object sources the volume examines how dress cultures developed often to a degree of dazzling sophistication between the years 800 to 1450 Beautifully illustrated with 100 images A Cultural History of Dress and Fashion in the Medieval Age presents an overview of the period with essays on textiles production and distribution the body belief gender and sexuality status ethnicity visual representations and literary representations

Joan of Arc Gail Patterson, 2002 Few individuals in the annals of world history have had so lasting an impact as Joan of Arc who rallied a country behind her and continues to inspire people today Although she began life as a peasant she became a key figure in the latter stages of the Hundred Years War As a teenager she experienced visions from God calling her to aid the French king Her confidence and bearing along with her fervent adherence to God and her Catholic faith belied her age and so influenced the monarch that he made her commander of one of his companies She helped lead the French forces in battle against the English in turn becoming a national icon However she was eventually captured and tried by the English in a trial rife with ecclesiastical and political overtones Convicted as a heretic Joan was sentenced and burned at the stake As a martyr she gained mythic status and the Roman Catholic Church made her a saint in 1920 This book presents a fascinating study of Joan of Arc's life based on excerpts from John A Mooney's gripping 1919 biography The overview is augmented by a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access provided through author title and subject indexes

The Life of Joan of Arc Anatole France, 2016-08-26 Scholars have been good enough to notice this book and the majority have treated it very kindly doubtless because they have perceived that the author has observed all the established rules of historical research and accuracy Their kindness has touched me I am especially grateful to MM Gabriel Monod Solomon Reinach and Germain Lefvres Pontalis who have discovered in this work certain errors which will not be found in the present edition My English critics have a special claim to my gratitude To the memory of Joan of Arc they consecrate a pious zeal which is almost an expiatory worship Mr Andrew Lang's praiseworthy scruples with regard to my references have caused me to correct some and to add several The hagiographers alone are openly hostile They reproach me not with my manner of explaining the facts but with having explained them at all And the more my explanations are clear natural rational and derived from the most authoritative sources the more these explanations displease them They would wish the history of Joan of Arc to remain mysterious and entirely supernatural I have restored the Maid to life and to humanity That is Pg vi my crime And these zealous inquisitors so intent on condemning my work have failed to discover therein any grave fault any flagrant inexactness Their severity has had to content itself with a few inadvertences and with a few printer s errors What flatterers could better have gratified the proud weakness of my heart      Midnight: Three

Women at the Hour of Reckoning Victoria Shorr,2019-03-12 Exquisite and nuanced in its storytelling Midnight crafts intimate humanizing portraits of Jane Austen Mary Shelley and Joan of Arc that ask us to behold the women behind the icons Midnight is a study in the courage of three women Jane Austen Mary Shelley and Joan of Arc Jane Austen was poor in 1802 unmarried and homeless She had outlines ideas and first drafts of her future novels but no place to sit and write them It is at this bleak moment that she receives an offer of marriage from a rich man Midnight takes us to the hour of her decision between financial security and her writing life When sixteen year old Mary Godwin elopes to France with the poet Percy Bysshe Shelley she scoffs at the cost life as an outcast Together they travel through Europe reading and writing but Midnight finds her alone eight years later pacing a terrace overlooking the Italian shore watching for Shelley to sail home over stormy seas in a shaky boat Joan of Arc imprisoned in chains kept her faith for a long year Be brave daughter of God her saints had whispered you will be saved and she believes it until she is taken to be burned at the stake Midnight is the story of Joan s final days between her terrified recantation and her heroic return to the stake      Catalogue of the library of the Peabody institute of the city of Baltimore ... Christine de Pizan Barbara K. Altmann,Deborah L. McGrady,2020-08-11 Christine de Pizan wrote voluminously commenting on various aspects of the late medieval society in which she lived Considered by many to be the first French woman of letters Christine and her writing have been difficult to place ever since she began putting her thoughts on the page Although her work was neglected in the eighteenth and nineteenth century there has been a eruption of Christine studies in recent decades making her the perfect subject for a casebook This volume serves as a useful guide to contemporary research exploring Christine s life and work as they reflected and influenced her socio political milieu      The Medieval Filmscape

William F. Woods,2014-01-23 This book is an attempt at defining the genre of medieval film by describing its features and analyzing its effects and their significance there being few works presently available that work toward such definition There are three parts the introduction enters the medieval film world describing its typical features and showing how they create a convincing sense of its time three short chapters discuss authenticity simplicity and spectacle the roots of film medievalism and six longer chapters comment on individual films Works are discussed that extend the reach of the genre such as Dreyer s La Passion de Jeanne d Arc with its emotional range or Bergman s Seventh Seal which creates a universal symbolism The author describes what goes into a medieval film and how it affects its audience while offering suggestions about why its themes are meaningful to us      Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1903

Catalogue of the Circulating Department ,1884      The Story of Rouen Theodore Andrea Cook,2022-09-15 The following book revolves around the history of Rouen a city on the River Seine in northern France It is the prefecture of the region of Normandy and the department of Seine Maritime It was formerly one of the largest and most prosperous cities of medieval Europe Rouen was the seat of the Exchequer of Normandy during the Middle Ages It was one of the capitals of the Anglo Norman dynasties which ruled both England and large parts of modern France from the 11th to the 15th centuries From the 13th century onwards the city experienced a remarkable economic boom thanks in particular to the development of textile factories and river trade Claimed by both the French and the English during the Hundred Years War it was on its soil that Joan of Arc was tried and burned alive      Clothes Make the Man Valerie R. Hotchkiss,2012-11-12 In this book the author explores medieval society's fascination with the cross dressed woman The author examines a wide variety of religious literary and historical sources which record interpretations of sartorial attempts to overcome gender hierarchy and also illustrate mainly through the device of inversion a remarkably sustained desire to examine and reexamine the nature of social gender identities      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1948 Includes Part 1A Books and Part 1B Pamphlets Serials and Contributions to Periodicals      Joan of Arc and Spirituality Bonnie Wheeler,A. Astell,2016-09-27 Joan of Arc is an unusual saint Canonized in 1920 as a virgin she died in 1431 as a condemned heretic Uneducated militant and youthful she obeyed Voices that counselled her to pursue an unprecedented vocation The various trial records provide a wealth of evidence about how Joan and others understood her spiritual life This collection explores multiple facets of Joan's prayerful life Two thirds of the essays focus on Joan in her own time the later chapters study Joan's formative influence upon modern women Taken together these essays offer new perspectives on the heroism of Joan's original way of sanctity      Catalogue Baltimore Peabody inst, libr,1883      British Museum Catalogue of Printed Books ,1895      Host Bibliographic Record for Boundwith Item Barcode 30112072131219 and Others ,1867      Chivalry and the Ideals of Knighthood in France during the Hundred Years War Craig Taylor,2013-10-10 Craig Taylor's study examines the wide ranging French debates on the martial ideals of chivalry and knighthood during the period of the Hundred Years War 1337 1453 Faced by stunning military disasters and the collapse of public order writers and intellectuals carefully scrutinized the martial qualities expected of knights and soldiers They questioned when knights and men at arms could legitimately resort to violence the true nature of courage the importance of mercy and the role of books and scholarly learning in the very practical world of military men Contributors to these discussions included some of the most famous French medieval writers led by Jean Froissart Geoffroi de Charny Philippe de Mézières Honorat Bovet Christine de Pizan Alain Chartier and Antoine de La Sale This interdisciplinary study sets their discussions in context challenging modern romantic assumptions about chivalry and investigating the historical reality of debates about knighthood and warfare in late medieval France      Les Prix Nobel ,1922 Vol for 1901 has a sketch of Alfred Nobel and his works by P T Cleve      Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Institute of the City of Baltimore ,1883
