Lake Snakes D. E. Tidball, 2019-03-15 A cloud passed over the sun casting a broad dark shadow across the field As the sun reappeared he was just hanging there now dangling off the tree stand She stood up stretched walked over mounted her horse left the cover at the edge of the woods and trotted across the field toward the hanging man Charles Again a little louder Charles Hearing a familiar voice he opened his eyes startled at seeing her face so close She sat on her horse about three feet away He tried to reach out but his arms were numb and hung limp at his sides barely moving He could only watch as she turned her horse around and walked over to a tree She dismounted and walked back to where he was hanging and picked up his rifle off the ground Get me down he ordered and realized how weak his voice sounded He cleared his throat and loudly demanded Get me down now repeating the statement trying to sound as if he had some power in the situation He looked down at her She was smiling at him He tried to change his tone pleading Please please help me Gritting his teeth he forced a smile but his rage got the better of him When I get down you re dead You re dead The threat was an echo she d heard so many times already Yeah she continued to smile I know I am going to kill you he vowed again Not today She pulled the trigger
