Le Voile De Draupadi:

Transoceanic Dialogues Véronique Bragard, 2008 This work offers a close reading of literary works in French and in English by women writers whose ancestors originally came to the Caribbean or across the Indian Ocean as indentured labourers

Rainbow Colors Srilata Ravi, 2007-01-01 The narratives under consideration in Rainbow Colors depict Mauritius's history of competing colonial forces describe its intricate social geography of free and forced migrations and portray the anxieties of mixed race persons and cultures in postcolonies Through a rigorous analysis of novels from Loys Masson's L'étoile et la clef 1945 to Ananda Devi's Moi l'interdite 2000 this study argues that there is no single grand narrative of cultural hybridity and ethnic pluralism in Mauritius By conceptualizing literature as the overlapping space of ethnic cultural realities national and transnational identities and a poetics of alterity Rainbow Colors explores how different literary ethno topographies of Mauritius are produced at this intersection This original work considers Mauritian writing in French in its own right and not as a minor literature within the Francophone tradition Furthermore while significant monographs on ethnicity and nation have been published on the African and Caribbean novel in English and in French this is the first such single authored book length study on Mauritian novels to date

Ananda Devi Ritu Tyagi, 2013-10-10 Ananda Devi Feminism Narration and Polyphony is the first full length monograph devoted to Ananda Devi a dynamic contemporary Francophone writer Recipient of Prix Louis Guilloux and Prix Télévision Suisse Romande du Roman she is described by many as a prototype of a new generation of Mauritian writers This book analyses Devi's unconventional polyphonic narratives particularly her strategies that allow marginalized narrators to disrupt androcentric and dominant structures of narrative construction thereby creating hybrid magical spaces for feminine expression Drawing on the notion of feminist narratology that investigates the relation between gender and narrative this book focuses on a wide range of Western and non Western narrative strategies such as plot and plotlessness narrative metalepsis pluritemporality multisubjectivity myths folktales and magic It also demonstrates how her texts become the point of convergence of the West and the non West the feminine and the androcentric the real and the extra real as muted discourses resurface and traditional distinctions between categories are blurred in favor of alternate and new possibilities As this book is interdisciplinary in its approach it will appeal to a broad range of audience from those interested in Contemporary Francophone and Indian Ocean Literature to scholars in Women's Writing Post Colonial Studies and Narratology

The Mauritian Novel Julia Waters, 2019-01-08 This book analyses how the idea or the problem of belonging is articulated in a range of contemporary francophone Mauritian novels Waters explores how forms of affective belonging intersect with the exclusionary politics of belonging in novels by Nathacha Appanah Ananda Devi Shenaz Patel Bertrand de Robillard Amal Sewtohul and Carl de Souza

Convergences and Interferences, 2016-09-12 How does one imagine plurality How does one find new strategies for writing diversity and polyphony How does one read the most challenging creative and critical works of the present time This bi lingual volume of twelve English and eight French papers proposes to breach linguistic critical frontiers by placing careful analysis of texts from different language traditions in a multi lingual and multi cultural dialogue In this collection of theoretically and politically aware close readings of contemporary cultural production the focus of analysis rests on the multiple and complex global convergences and interferences of cultural influences The collection foregrounds the work of innovative writers who seek to express the ungraspable presence of cultural newness at the same time as situating themselves in the richness of detail of local lives This volume most particularly finds a balance of critical approach between the everyday attempts at negotiation and survival and the insight brought to the reader by postcolonial syncretic and feminist theoretical analysis Literary Location and

Dislocation of Myth in the Post/Colonial Anglophone World ,2017-11-01 The English speaking world today is so diverse that readers need a gateway to its many postcolonial narratives and art forms This collection of essays examines this diversity and what brings so many different cultures together Whether Indian Canadian Australasian or Zimbabwean the stories discussed focus on how artists render experiences of separation belonging and loss The histories and transformations postcolonial countries have gone through have given rise to a wide range of myths that retrace their birth evolution and decline Myths have enabled ethnic communities to live together the first section of this collection dwells on stories which can be both inclusive and exclusive under the aegis of nation While certain essays revisit and retell the crucial role women have played in mythical texts like the Mahabharata others discuss how settler colonies return to and re appropriate a past in order to define themselves in the present Crises clashes and conflicts which are at the heart of the second section of this book entail myths of historical and cultural dislocation They appear as breaks in time that call for reconstruction and redefinition a chief instance being the trauma of slavery with its deep geographical and cultural dislocations However the crises that have deprived entire communities of their homeland and their identity are followed by moments of remembrance reconciliation and rebuilding As the term postcolonial suggests the formerly colonized people seek to revisit and re investigate the impact of colonization before committing it to collective memory In a more specifically literary section texts are read as mythopoeia foregrounding the aesthetic and poetic issues in colonial and postcolonial poems and novels The texts explored here study in different ways the process of mythologization through images of location and dislocation The editors of this collection hope that readers worldwide will enjoy reading about the myths that have shaped and continue to shape postcolonial communities and nations CONTRIBUTORS Elara Berthod Niall Bird Marie Christine Blin Jaine Chemmachery Andr Dodeman Biljana ori Francuski Fr d ric Dumas Daniel Karlin Sabine Lauret Taft Anne Le Guellec Minel lodie Rimbault Winfried Siemerling Laura Singeot Fran oise Storey Jeff Storey Christine Vandamme The Future of Postcolonial Studies Chantal Zabus,2014-11-20 The Future of Postcolonial Studies celebrates the twenty fifth anniversary of the publication of The Empire Writes Back by the now famous troika Bill Ashcroft Gareth Griffiths and Helen Tiffin When The Empire Writes Back first appeared in 1989 it put postcolonial cultures and their post invasion narratives on the map This vibrant collection of fifteen chapters by both established and emerging scholars taps into this early mapping while merging these concerns with present trends which have been grouped as comparing converting greening post queering and utopia The postcolonial is a centrifugal force that continues to energize globalization transnational diaspora area and queer studies Spanning the colonial period from the 1860s to the present The Future of Postcolonial Studies ventures into other postcolonies outside of the Anglophone purview In reassessing the nation state language race religion sexuality the environment and the very idea of the future this volume reasserts the notion that postcolonial is an anticipatory discourse and bears testimony to the driving energy and thus the future of postcolonial studies Intimate Enemies Kathryn Batchelor, Claire Bisdorff, 2013-04-30 The concept of translation has become central to postcolonial theory in recent decades This volume draws together reflections by translators authors and academics working across Africa the Caribbean and the Indian Ocean areas where the linguistic legacies of French colonial operations are long lasting and complex *Famous People Around The World. variety of issues and the chapters promise to treat them with adequate justice. These features mean that this book can be approached by any person interested in India given that it offers a diverse range of interesting topics related to the country. The reader glancing through the book will find themes spanning from the analysis of postcolonial literature written in English by Indian women to sociological reflections on several diasporic situations and from crossed influences between Indian culture and that of other countries to the latest discussion topics in ancient Indian history to mention a few.

The Other Hybrid Archipelago Peter Hawkins, 2007-10-15. The Other Hybrid Archipelago presents the postcolonial literatures of the Francophone Indian Ocean islands to an Anglophone audience. The islands of Madagascar, Mauritius, Reunion, the Comoros, and the Seychelles form a region that has a particular cultural identity because of the varied mixture of populations that have settled there and the dominant influence of French colonialism. This survey concentrates on the period since the Second World War when most of the islands achieved independence except for Reunion and Mayotte which maintain a regional status within the French Republic. The postcolonial approach suggests certain recurrent themes and preoccupations of the islands' cultures and an appropriate way to define their recent cultural production while taking account of the burden of their colonial past. The rich cocktail of cultural and linguistic influences surveyed is situated in relation to the contemporary political and social context of the islands and their marginal status within the global economy.

Kala Pani Crossings, Gender and Diaspora Judith Misrahi-Barak, Ritu Tyagi, H. Kalpana, 2023-12-15. This volume explores the intersections of diaspora and gender within the diasporic and Indian imagination. It investigates the ways in which race, class, caste, gender, and sexuality intersect with concepts of home, belonging, displacement, and the reinvention of the nation, and of self. Positioning itself as a companion to Kala Pani Crossings: Revisiting 19th century Migrations from India's Perspective (Routledge, 2021), the present book examines whether indentureship and diasporic locations marginalised women and men or empowered them; how negotiations or resistances have been determined by race, class, caste, or ethnicity; how traditional standards of Indianness and gender relations have been reshaped; how ideas of home, self, and the nation have been impacted in the diaspora and in India after the 19th and early 20th century indentureship migration; and what 21st century Indians stand to gain by theorizing the legacy of 19th century indenture through a gender framework. To understand how fiction and non-fiction writers have negotiated the legacy of indentureship to create spaces where normative practices can be interrogated and challenged, the book gives pride of place to interviews with writers such as Cyril Dabydeen, Ananda Devi, Ramabai Espinet, Davina Iltis, Brij Lal, Peggy Mohan, Shani Mootoo, and Khal Torabully. Thus rooted in critical analyses but also in subjective and creative perspectives, this volume is a major intervention in understanding Indian indenture and its legacy in the diaspora and in India. It will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature history, Indian Ocean studies, migration, and South Asian studies.

Transcultural Negotiations of Gender Saugata Bhaduri, Indrani Mukherjee, 2015-09-18. Transcultural Negotiations of Gender probes into how gender is negotiated along the two axes of belonging and longing the twin desires of being located within a cultural milieu while yearning for either what has passed by or what is yet to come It also probes into the category of transculturality itself by examining how not only does it pertain to the coming together of cultures from diverse spatial locations but how shifts over time and changing performative modes and technological means of articulation within what may be presumed to be the same culture can also lead to the transcultural The volume comprises four sections Part I Be longing in Time examines negotiation of gender through transcultural acts of myths rituals and religious practices being revised and revisited over time Part II Be longing in Space studies how gender is renegotiated when people from different spaces interact as also when public spaces and domains themselves become sites of such negotiations In Part III Performing Be longing such transcultural negotiations are located in the context of changing modes of performance considering particularly that gender itself is performative The final section Modernity Technology and Be longing traces how gender becomes transculturally negotiated in a space like India with the advent of modernity and its companion technology

Coolitude Marina Carter, 2002 Coolitude is both an intellectual interpretation of and a poetic and artistic immersion into the world of the vanished coolie This collection of previously unpublished texts poems and sketches captures the essence of the Indian plantation experience and deconstructs traditional depictions of the status of the coolie in the British Empire The concept of Coolitude encompasses the experiences of first generation workers together with those of their descendants spread across the Caribbean Pacific and Indian Ocean islands today The symbolic value of the word lies in both the scope it gives us to interpret the specificities of the coolie experience and its use as a comparative tool The book embraces Coolitude in its various incarnations the shared experience of the voyaging migrants the walk from village to port town and the weeks spent on board ship All Coolies irrespective of whether they went to Fiji South Africa the West Indies or the Indian Ocean islands underwent an exile from their Indian homeland Coolitude emphasizes their shared history The concept of Coolitude parallels that of Negritude pioneered by Clive James and other African and Caribbean intellectuals in the 1950s and 1960s and could have an equally profound cultural impact this book is both politically and intellectually ambitious Marina Carter is one of the most highly regarded historians of the Indian Ocean Her co author is a poet and intellectual a veritable giant in France the list of his achievements goes one and on Crispin Bates Ph D University of Edinburgh

Routledge Handbook of the Indian Diaspora Radha Hegde, Ajaya Sahoo, 2017-09-22 The geographical diversity of the Indian diaspora has been shaped against the backdrop of the historical forces of colonialism nationalism and neoliberal globalization In each of these global moments the demand for Indian workers has created the multiple global pathways of the Indian diasporas The Routledge Handbook of the Indian Diaspora introduces readers to the contexts and histories that constitute the Indian diaspora It brings together scholars from different parts of the globe representing various disciplines and covers extensive spatial and temporal terrain Contributors draw from a variety of archives and intellectual perspectives in order to map the narratives of the Indian diaspora The topics covered range from the history of diasporic communities activism identity gender politics labour policy violence performance literature and branding The handbook analyses a wide array of issues and debates and is organised in six parts Histories and trajectories Diaspora and infrastructures Cultural dynamics Representation and identity Politics of belonging Networked subjectivities and transnationalism Providing a comprehensive analysis of the diverse social cultural and economic contexts that frame diasporic practices this key reference work will reinvigorate discussions about the Indian diaspora its global presence and trajectories It will be an invaluable resource for academics researchers and students interested in studying South Asia in general and the Indian diaspora in particular

Identity and Migration in Europe: Multidisciplinary Perspectives MariaCaterina La Barbera,2014-11-24 This book addresses the impact of migration on the formation and transformation of identity and its continuous negotiations Its ground is the understanding of identity as a complex social phenomenon resulting from constant negotiations between personal conditions social relationships and institutional frameworks Migrations understood as dynamic processes that do not end when landing in the host country offer the best conditions to analyze the construction and transformation of social identities in the postcolonial and globalized societies Searching for novel epistemologies and methodologies the research questions here addressed are how identity is negotiated in migration processes and how these negotiations work in contemporary multiethnic Europe This edited volume brings to the field a novel convergence of theoretical and empirical approaches by gathering together scholars from different countries of Europe and the Mediterranean area from different disciplines and backgrounds challenging the traditional discipline division

Francophone Women Writers Eric Touya de Marenne,2024-03-26 This anthology seeks to introduce women writers in the global Francophone world by investigating the place of feminist postcolonial and cross cultural theories in interpreting women francophone literature The book also allows the reader to examine the extent to which women writers reflect or negate the conventional archetypes of Francophone literature how they reinvent the political cultural and critical discourse of their time and place and create their own identity from objectification to subjectivity The ambition of this anthology is to explore these themes at a time when globalization is redefining the concepts of language identity space and history and transforming the rapport of each individual to the other While most research on the subject focus on specific countries or regions this volume offers a new critical introduction to Francophone women authors from a broad geographical range in North and West Africa the Near East the Pacific North America the Caribbean Islands and Europe Significantly this study assembles a broad and representative collection of texts written by women authors that will generate a fruitful and critical reflection among students and scholars The selected texts present critical issues that students and readers at large need to explore to further their knowledge of francophone literature and culture

Pilgrimage and Political Economy Simon Coleman,John Eade,2018-07-20 Pilgrimage has always had a tendency to follow and sometimes create trade routes This volume explores how wider factors behind transnational and global mobility have impacted on pilgrimage activity across the world and examines the ways in which pilgrimage relates to migration diaspora and political cooperation or conflict across nation states Furthermore it brings together case studies that explore forms of mobility where pilgrimage is juxtaposed complements or is in intimate association with other forms of movement Postcoloniality, Globalization, and Diaspora Ashmita Khasnabish, 2019-12-03 Postcoloniality Globalization and Diaspora What's Next looks forward within the field of postcolonial studies and goes beyond the notion of hybridity and postcolonial reason beyond just portraying it This volume offers a futuristic vision going beyond the common paradigms of postcolonility diaspora and globalization speculating a framework beyond master slave dialectic This new paradigm locates a humanitarian space purifying ego through various forms writing philosophizing and theorizing new ideas Authors focus on writers from Mauritius to India
