place at the back of the line What's symbolic in the chow hall is deadly serious on the battlefield Great leaders sacrifice their own comfort even their own survival for the good of those in their care Too many workplaces are driven by cynicism paranoia and self interest But the best ones foster trust and cooperation because their leaders build what Sinek calls a Circle of Safety that separates the security inside the team from the challenges outside Sinek illustrates his ideas with fascinating true stories that range from the military to big business from government to investment banking
