✓ Exclusively available on IvyPanda

Introduction

Leadership is a powerful concept that supports the needs of many professionals. Lack of leadership skills makes it impossible for many individuals to realize their goals (Abbassi, Siddiqi, and Azim 246). I possess powerful leadership concepts that can support my future goals. However, I lack some aspects and concepts that can support my future goals. The course materials have equipped me with new skills that will make me successful. I am therefore planning to use these ideas to expand my leadership competencies. This approach will support my leadership philosophy. I will use the action plan presented below to realize my potentials.

Aspects to Improve

I am planning to focus on different personal competencies. My current leadership gap can affect the targeted objectives. The first aspect is effective communication. I am usually unable to communicate effectively with different classmates and friends. A proper strategy will support my communication skills. I will be able to associate, discuss, and interact with different individuals in a proper manner.

Lack of the best communication competencies will affect the success of different individuals. The other leadership aspect is the ability to resolve conflicts. According to Cialdini (39), successful leaders should be able to deal with conflicts. A proper conflict resolution strategy makes it easier for individuals and leaders to achieve the best outcomes. The development of better conflict resolution approaches will make it easier for me to address the challenges affecting my followers.

Teamwork is a powerful concept that supports the needs of many individuals. I will focus on the best practices that can improve my skills as a team player. A leader should be able to work and interact with others. Leaders should be able to mentor their teammates. My goal is to gain new concepts that can make it easier to lead, mentor, delegate, and even empower others. I will always use such competencies to support my future goals. The other targeted leadership aspect "is involvement with others" (Abbassi
