Rural Education Across the World Simone White, Jayne Downey, 2021-03-22 This book brings together authors from United States South Africa United Kingdom China Canada and Australia to provide insights and case studies from across a range of contexts to explore the interplay between the notions of rurality innovation and education The book reveals a hopeful and resilient approach to innovative rural education and scholarship collectively and provides important evidence to speak against an often deficit view of rural education Three patterns are revealed namely the importance of place attentive strategies the importance of joined up alliances to maximise resources and networks and finally the need to utilize alternative methodologies and frameworks that have a starting point of difference rather than deficit for any rural initiative or approach By drawing from international examples and responding in innovative ways to rural education challenges this book provides an opportunity to share international insights into innovations interventions and partnerships that promote and support rural education in its broadest sense

Condemned Again Skhumbuzo Letlaka, 2015-01-31 The work was conceived over a number of years and it relates to the manner in which African leaders govern their countries after independence Its main focus is on the South African politics under apartheid where racism and racial segregation was the order of the day and where white supremacy implied black inferiority It looks at a number of issues including humiliation and brutality that led to the United Nations declaring apartheid as crime against humanity It focuses on the processes leading to the build up of pressures that forced the racist government to accede to the demands of the international community and also bow to internal pressures which were exerted by the South African people themselves This book is written by a comrade who grew up in the township of Clermont a student of politics under the tutelage of Archie Gumede a man who rubbed shoulders with radicals such as Patrick Terror Lekota and Diliza Mji amongst others and a staunch Catholic whose wedding was conducted by Archbishop Denis Hurley Skhumbuzo Letlaka is a product of a township struggle stay aways consumer boycotts strikes school boycotts street committees and their tight discipline kangaroo courts and the application of the Mandela Plan
