Limpopo Provincial Hospital Post For 2015:

Family Demography and Post-2015 Development Agenda in Africa Clifford O. Odimegwu, 2019-08-27 This book is a comprehensive analysis of the structure determinants and consequences of changes in sub Saharan African families thereby representing an Afrocentric description of the emerging trends It documents various themes in the sub disciplines of family demography The first section of the book focuses on philosophical understanding of African family its theoretical perspectives and comparative analysis of family in the 20th and 21st centuries The second section covers family formation union dissolution emerging trend in single parenthood and adolescents in the family The following section describes types determinants and consequences of African family changes health childbearing youth development teen pregnancy and family violence and the last chapter provides systematic evidence on existing laws and policies governing African family structure and dynamics As such it illustrates the importance of family demography in African demographic discourse and will be an interesting read to scholars and students in the field of demography social workers policy makers departments of Social Development in countries in Africa and relevant international agencies and all those interested in understanding the African family trajectory

Global Management of Infectious Disease After Ebola Sam F. Halabi, Lawrence O. Gostin, Jeffrey S. Crowley, 2016-09-28 The 2014 2015 Ebola outbreak in West Africa shocked the world with its devastation and its rapid migration to multiple continents As the systems meant to respond to this sort of epidemic failed the disease exposed not just weaknesses in international infectious disease surveillance and management but the failures of governments humanitarian organizations and international institutions to handle the legal ethical and economic questions that arose with an event of this scale GLOBAL MANAGEMENT OF INFECTIOUS DISEASE AFTER EBOLA unites the insights of Ebola s first responders with those the world s foremost experts in law economics vaccine development and global migration to identify missed opportunities from the Ebola crisis and to apply these lessons to emerging infectious disease threats Framed with critical discussions of both the global health financing infrastructures that precipitated the response and the ethical and human rights dilemmas that resulted from it this volume is much more than postmortem to an outbreak it is a vital sometimes damning examination of where we ve been and where we re going in the face of emerging infectious diseases

Entrepreneurship and Intrapreneurship in Social, Sustainable, and Economic Development Sebastian Aparicio, Andreu Turro, Maria Noguera, 2021-01-25 Entrepreneurship and intrapreneurship have become a vehicle that offers solutions for social environmental and economic problems Even though the level of entrepreneurial activity and its diversity have been motivated through public policies social support has also played an important role in encouraging people to think of entrepreneurship as a desirable career choice This book brings together analyses of those elements required for entrepreneurial and intrapreneurial intention and action which ultimately become important leverages of development Chapters highlight the importance of rural urban university organizational and family environments for a bunch of intentions and behaviors such as green sport social corporate innovative traditional and gender entrepreneurship This entrepreneurial diversity is translated into higher development through the empowerment of women environmental consciousness and efficient production Policymakers scholars and practitioners can find different examples and cases useful for decision making learning and practice in this book Sustainable Agriculture and Food Security Walter Leal Filho, Marina

Kovaleva, Elena Popkova, 2022-07-28 This book describes initiatives and concrete examples on sustainable food production worldwide In the current world scenario where nations all over the world are struggling to accomplish the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and to ensure sustainable patterns for all this book provides a contribution towards a more comprehensive and interdisciplinary understanding of the cross cutting issues related to Sustainable Agriculture and Food Security This interdisciplinary book supports the efforts to engage a commitment from all fields of science to work together to provide knowledge that could help to address SDG2 No hunger and lead to the promotion of quality of life by means of a more sustainable food production and improved food security This book is expected to fill the gap of publications in this field It gives a special emphasis to a state of the art descriptions of approaches methods initiatives and projects from universities stakeholders organizations and civil society across the world regarding cross cutting issues in sustainable food production It includes examples of policies and practices case studies examples of projects institutional policies innovative methods and tools and research outputs which highlight the interdependence between sustainable agriculture and food security issues It is expected that the Sustainable Agriculture and Food Security will make the many benefits of sustainable food production clearer and inter alia lead to an increase in the emphasis provided to this central theme The African Food

Environments Amos Laar, Kaleab Baye, Anna Lartey, Francis Zotor, Gershim Asiki, 2023-09-05 In many respects the continent of Africa is in transition Prominent among them currently is the nutrition transition One consequence of the nutrition transition is the increase in prevalence of nutrition related non communicable diseases NCDs such as obesity type 2 diabetes cardiovascular diseases and certain cancers Although NCDs are a global public health problem the rate of increase in NCDs morbidity and mortality in some African countries is staggering This surge has been linked to modifiable environmental factors factors that facilitate the consumption of obesogenic energy dense nutrient poor foods rather than unrefined cereals fruits and vegetables It has long been recognized that the physical and social environments in which people live work and eat are critical determinants of their health More recently there has been a greater focus on the food environment as a key determinant of health Available evidence shows that unhealthy food environments drive unhealthy diets and unhealthy diet is one of four main risk factors for NCDs Principles of Biostatistics Marcello Pagano, Kimberlee Gauvreau, Heather Mattie, 2022-06-07 Principles of Biostatistics Third Edition is a concepts based introduction to statistical procedures that prepares public health medical and life sciences students to conduct and evaluate research With an engaging writing style and helpful graphics the emphasis is on concepts over formulas or rote memorization Throughout the book the authors use practical interesting examples with real data to bring the material to life Thoroughly revised and updated this third edition includes a new chapter introducing the basic principles of Study Design as well as new sections on sample size calculations for two sample tests on means and proportions the Kruskal Wallis test and the Cox proportional hazards model Key Features Includes a new chapter on the basic principles of study design Additional review exercises have been added to each chapter Datasets and Stata and R code are available on the book s website The book is divided into three parts The first five chapters deal with collections of numbers and ways in which to summarize explore and explain them The next two chapters focus on probability and introduce the tools needed for the subsequent investigation of uncertainty It is only in the eighth chapter and thereafter that the authors distinguish between populations and samples and begin to investigate the inherent variability introduced by sampling thus progressing to inference Postponing the slightly more difficult concepts until a solid foundation has been established makes it easier for the reader to comprehend them

Advances in Marine and Freshwater

Monitoring to support Aquatic Ecosystem Conservation and Restoration Elisabetta Manea,Caterina Bergami,Robert Ptacnik,2023-11-13 Conserving and restoring freshwater and marine ecosystems are priorities addressed by several European and global conservation initiatives Many management and conservation initiatives have been put in place to support the achievement of declared national and global conservation and sustainability goals Nonetheless the extent to which all these initiatives can provide lasting positive effects on conservation and restoration targets is often impaired limited by the lack of robust baseline data and systematic monitoring which in turn are constrained by the limited number of long term monitoring programs and limited dedicated funding This collection underlines the importance of monitoring in times of global change and shifting baselines and the urgency of boosting conservation strategies to ensure progression towards meeting global conservation objectives Emphasis is given also to the socio ecological contexts and dimensions of conservation efforts and the potential of societal engagement in monitoring practices a key enabling factor to turn conservation initiatives into practical actions and ecosystem protection
