INSTRUCTIONS

1.	Semester test 1 is scheduled from 17:30 to 20:00 on 25 March 2022.
2.	The test consists of two sections: Section A and B. Section A is a clickUP test. Section B is a Turnitin assignment. The regulations of the WTW 134 study guide apply.
	Section A, a ClickUP test, will become available at 17:30 and must be completed by 18:30. Section B, a Turnitin assignment, will become available at 18:30, must be completed before 20:00 and submitted before 20:15.
3.	For Section B you have an extra 15 minutes to ensure that your submission is received by Turnitin before 20:15. The extra 15 minutes is NOT an extension of the completion time. The WTW 134 team will hold you accountable for a late submission due to a delayed attempt at submission. NO LATE SUBMISSIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED.
4.	If you cannot print Section B use ruled paper, number the questions clearly, answer every question on a new page and number the pages clearly.
5.	You have to use a PDF scanner to scan Section B. The pages must be upright and in focus. Your student card must be displayed in the top-right corner of every page.
6.	You have to submit Section B as one PDF file, with the pages in chronological order.
7.	If you are not successful at submitting Section B via Turnitin then you can submit Section B, as one PDF file, via Google Forms, before 20:15. The same regulations apply as for a submission via Turnitin. NO LATE SUBMISSIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED.
8.	You have to complete and submit the declaration (of originality) before 17:30.
9.	Students will be penalised for not adhering to the instructions.
10.	Cheating is a choice, not a mistake. You are not only jeopardising your own future, but the future of your fellow students.

African State Governance A. Carl LeVan, Joseph Olayinka Fashagba, Edward R. McMahon, 2016-02-05 Africa is changing and it is easy to overlook how decentralization democratization and new forms of illiberalism have transformed federalism political parties and local politics Chapters on Kenya Nigeria Ethiopia and South Africa help fill an important gap in comparative institutional research about state and local politics in Africa

A Scientific Bibliography of the Far Northern Drakensberg Rodney Moffett, 2023-04-14 This Scientific Bibliography of the Far Northern Drakensberg is a continuation by the Afromontane Research Unit of the University of the Free State ARU to document published and other similar works on the mountains of the summer rainfall area of South Africa It follows A Scientific Bibliography of the Drakensberg Maloti and Adjacent Lowlands which was published in 2020 Moffett 2020 and which covered the area between the North Eastern Cape and the North Eastern Free State The current work extends this northward by including articles and publications dating back to 1875 E Cohen on the Lydenburg goldfields reaching as far as the Wolkberg and Woodbush near Tzaneen in Limpopo Province Figure 1 shows the boundary of the area covered and although referred to as the Far Northern Drakensberg in this work it is identical to that described as the LMEE Limpopo Mpumalanga Eswatini Escarpment by Clarke et al 2022 Although slightly separate from the lower escarpment the mountainous Barberton and adjacent Eswatini area as well as the Leolo Mountains in eastern Sekhukhuneland are also included Details on how the boundary in figure 1 was determined are given in Clark et al 2022 Bibliographies on two further ranges in the summer rainfall area viz the Magaliesberg in Gauteng province and the Soutpansberg in Limpopo province are to be the subject of future compilations

Parcel of Death Gaongalelwe Tiro, 2019-08-01 Parcel of Death recounts the little told life story of Onkgopotse Abram Tiro the first South African freedom fighter the apartheid regime pursued beyond the country's borders to assassinate with a parcel bomb On 29 April 1972 Tiro made one of the most consequential revolutionary addresses in South African history Dubbed the Turfloop Testimony Tiro's anti apartheid speech saw him and many of his fellow student activists expelled igniting a series of strikes in tertiary institutions across the country By the time he went into exile in Botswana Tiro was president of the Southern African Student Movement SASM permanent organiser of the South African Student Organisation SASO and a leading Black Consciousness proponent hailed by many as the godfather of the June 1976 uprisings Parcel of Death uses extensive and exclusive interviews to highlight significant influences and periods in Tiro's life including the lessons learned from his rural upbringing in Dinokana Zeerust the time he spent working on a manganese mine his role as a teacher and the impact of his faith in shaping his outlook It is a compelling portrait of Tiro's story and its lasting significance in South Africa's history

Trust, Courts and Social Rights David Vitale, 2024-02-07 Trust Courts and Social Rights proposes an innovative legal framework for judicially enforcing social rights that is rooted in public trust in government or political trust Interdisciplinary in nature the book draws on theoretical and empirical scholarship on the concept of trust across disciplines including philosophy

sociology psychology and political theory It integrates that scholarship with the relevant public law literature on social rights fiduciary political theory and judicial review In doing so the book uses trust as an analytical lens for social rights law importing ideas from the scholarship on trust into the social rights literature and develops a normative argument that contributes to the controversial debate on how courts should enforce social rights Also global in focus the book uses cases from courts in Africa Europe Latin America and North America to illustrate how the trust based framework operates in practice

Breakthrough: Corporate South Africa in a Green Economy Godwell Nhamo, 2014-05-05 This book addresses hot issues pertaining to the manner in which corporate South Africa has engaged the emerging green global economy Firstly the book profiles the green and low carbon economy landscape in South Africa and interfaces it with global trends This way the book aligns very well in terms of the Rio 20 outcomes on The Future We Want that fully embraces the green global economy in the context of sustainable development and poverty eradication The rest of the chapters in the book profile breakthroughs from selected companies The book also comes as the second in a series that is addressing global and national concerns on the green global economy agenda The first book entitled Green Economy and Climate Mitigation Topics of Relevance to Africa was produced as part of the 17th Session of the Conference of Parties collaborative work carried out by the Institute of Global Dialogue the Africa Institute of South Africa and Unisa's Institute for Corporate Citizenship The book Breakthrough Corporate South Africa in the Green Economy comes in seven parts Part I focuses on the Green Economy Landscape This part considers both the international and national perspectives Parts II VI present different sector initiatives namely Mining and Energy Part II Banking and Insurance Part III Forest and Paper Part IV Industrial Part V and Retailing and Aviation Part VI The last part is made up of a single chapter dealing with Emerging Issues and Way Forward

Informal Sector Innovations Mammo Muchie, Saradindu Bhaduri, Angathevar Baskaran, Fayaz Ahmad Sheikh, 2017-10-02 It is well documented that the space of informal economic activity is rising across the globe This rise has been particularly significant in the least developed and developing countries especially after the onset of neo liberal policies and withdrawal of welfare state There has also been a shift in academic thinking on informal sector with attempts being made to understand the contribution of informal sector in generating employment and economic growth rather than focusing solely on exploitative labour conditions in these economic activities Indeed with the retreat of welfare state and the introduction of contract labour in the formal sector many issues related to occupational hazards and improper labour conditions do not remain unique to the informal sectors of the economy particularly in less developed countries This volume addresses a specific concern the issue of knowledge generation and innovative activities which lies at the core of sustained competitive advantage of these activities The chapters in this book were originally published in the African Journal of Science Technology Innovation and Development

South African Foreign Policy David R Black,David Hornsby,2018-04-19 This book considers the identity direction and intentions embodied in post apartheid South African Foreign Policy It aims to deepen the understanding of this evolving post apartheid foreign policy through an exploration of the nature and trajectory of key bilateral relationships from both the global South Brazil China Iran the AU and North Japan and the UK This window on the country s international relations enriches understanding of the normative and structural factors that influence not only South African foreign policy but those of what Jordaan 2003 calls emerging middle powers as they seek to position themselves as influential actors in international affairs By sketching the contours of key South African relationships the contributors offer illuminating insights into the cross pressures shaping South African foreign policy In addition they also add depth to the emerging middle power concept by exploring four areas where the tendencies and tensions of emerging middle power foreign policies are apparent regionalism multilateralism reform of global governance and approach to moral leadership This book was previously published as a special issue of Commonwealth and Comparative Politics Perspectives on the Legislature and the Prospects of Accountability in Nigeria and South Africa Omololu Fagbadebo,Fayth Ruffin,2018-08-03 This book examines the problem of accountability in two African political systems South Africa and Nigeria Despite the principle of separation of powers and the doctrine of checks and balances among the institutions of governance a burgeoning governance crisis stifles the potential of accountability and good governance Legislative oversight in the two countries remains largely ineffective while citizens are left to face the consequences of the mismanagement of public resources by political elites This book critically assesses how the legislative institutions in South Africa and Nigeria have been unable to harness the requisite constitutional powers to ensure accountability in government and explores the feasibility of their effectiveness The book begins with a comparative analysis of the principles tradition and powers associated with legislative capability in South Africa and Nigeria The chapters explore constitutional provisions and analyze the capacity of each legislature to function within its respective political environment The book also examines the process and challenges associated with the various measures and mechanisms available for legislatures to ensure accountability in the two countries Researchers scholars and students of African politics will find this book useful in their understanding of the problems associated with the simmering governance crisis in South Africa and Nigeria

South Africa's Constitution at Twenty-one Jean Meiring, 2017-10-01 In the new South Africa there is nobody not even the president who is above the law that the rule of law generally and in particular the independence of the judiciary should be respected Nelson Mandela In late 1996 South Africa's Constitution acquired the force of law Its Bill of Rights enshrined a range of fundamental rights to which all South Africans are entitled In a marked breach with the past citizens rights would no longer depend upon the pigment of their skin or other idiosyncratic features Today 21 years since its inception the Constitution has acquired an almost mythical status both at home and abroad Yet crucially its primary impact has been on the nuts and bolts of people's lives It means that the death penalty is no longer a sentencing option and gays and lesbians can get married and adopt It affects directly the types of contracts and commercial arrangements the courts will countenance and on people's rights to land As such it impacts on each and every South African's daily life and shapes the country and society we live in This collection of essays explores what the Constitution means for South Africans and for the world both through its definition of legal rights and through the seepage into the real world of those rights and the culture that has arisen around them The contributors range from former Constitutional Court judges to activists writers and philosophers who look soberly at what has been achieved and what still needs to be done

Safari Nation Jacob S. T. Dlamini, 2020-04-22 Safari Nation opens new lines of inquiry in the study of national parks in Africa and the rest of the world The Kruger National Park is South Africa's most iconic nature reserve renowned for its rich flora and fauna According to author Jacob Dlamini there is another side to the park a social history neglected by scholars and popular writers alike in which blacks meaning Africans Coloureds and Indians occupy center stage Safari Nation details the ways in which black people devoted energies to conservation and to the park over the course of the twentieth century engagement that transcends the stock black figure of the laborer and the poacher By exploring the complex and dynamic ways in which blacks of varying class racial religious and social backgrounds related to the Kruger National Park and with the help of previously unseen archival photographs Dlamini's narrative also sheds new light on how and why Africa's national parks often derided by scholars as colonial impositions survived the end of white rule on the continent Relying on oral histories photographs and archival research Safari Nation engages both with African historiography and with ongoing debates about the land question democracy and citizenship in South Africa

Women and Climate Change in Bangladesh Margaret Alston, 2015-02-11 Bangladesh is by no means a high emitter of carbon but it is nevertheless one of the countries most critically affected There is a significant risk of damage to lives and livelihoods due to climate change in the form of cyclones flooding and storm surges and slow onset impacts such as droughts sea level rises and river basin erosion Moreover Bangladeshis are especially vulnerable as a high proportion of people live in extreme poverty This book assesses the impact of climate change in Bangladesh and presents the findings of a three year in depth study undertaken at village level in different districts of the country It examines national policies contrasting them with what is actually happening at village level It outlines the impact of climate change on livelihood strategies and health and focuses particularly on the impact on gender relations showing that although women have a significant role to play in helping communities cope with the effects of climate change cultural customs and practices often work against this The book argues for and puts forward policy proposals for recognising women s active contribution and supporting gender equality as a critical strategy in global adaptation to climate challenges

Oral history in South Africa Sekgothe Mokgoatšana, 2025-05-06 Colonial and apartheid era historical narratives in South Africa often disregard oral testimonies leaving significant gaps in understanding the country s rich and complex past This scholarly book explores the methodologies and ethics of oral history to address these omissions and to elevate oral testimonies as vital tools in historical scholarship This book brings together ten chapters authored by leading academics and researchers It critically examines how oral history methodologies can be contextualised within South Africa's diverse and multifaceted society. Rather than focusing on Eurocentric approaches, it emphasises the need to rethink the ethics and practices of oral history from an Afrocentric perspective. Through its transdisciplinary and interdisciplinary lens, spanning history, indigenous knowledge studies, museum and archival studies, and folklore, this book advocates for the recognition of interviewees as knowledge holders, fostering meaningful exchanges rather than mere knowledge extraction. The authors emphasise the need to protect and expand oral history archives, ensuring the representation of marginalised voices and redressing past injustices. With original research, this volume sheds light on the transformative potential of oral history in South Africa, offering new arguments and perspectives. It aims to inspire scholars, researchers, and specialists to rethink conventional practices and to bridge the divide between written and oral histories. This is essential literature for scholars and practitioners in history, oral history, theology, museum studies, and related fields, as it reimagines the role of oral testimonies in producing inclusive and credible historical narratives.
