Marjorie Howes Boston College author of Yeats's Nations Gender Class and Irishness Tombs, Despoiled and Haunted Jay Fellows, 1991 Walter Pater poses to criticism the challenge of how to approach a writer who is neither entirely a novelist entirely a critic nor entirely a historian but each by turn This book demonstrates the unity of all Pater's roles through the crucial concept of linguistic consciousness This idea enables the author in a manner unique within contemporary criticism to combine phenomenological and post structural methodologies that is to say attention to details of language as registers of qualities of mind with a more recent linguistic and historical emphasis The result is an attempt to present a full autobiography of the linguistic consciousness of Walter Pater This requires that the author observe Pater from the inside that he trace even replicate the motions of Pater's consciousness the author shows how fragments of language specific images and phrases link up by means of figurative and rhetorical echoes into patterns that reveal a topographic rather than a narrative or conceptual structure as the under texture of Pater's writings Eclectic Magazine and Monthly Edition of the Living Age, 1900 Lustful Maidens and Ascetic Kings Roy C. Ghost Storeys Cameron Macdonell, 2017-07-04 Most studies of modern Gothic media assume that beyond the 1830s modern Gothic architecture and literature had very little in common The work of Ralph Adams Cram 1863-1942 America's most prolific Gothic Revival architect and an author of ghost stories challenges that assumption The first interdisciplinary study of Cram's aesthetics Cameron Macdonell's Ghost Storeys deconstructs the boundaries of Gothic architecture and literature through a microhistory of St Mary's Anglican Church in Walkerville Ontario Focusing on Cram and the church's main patron Edward Walker 1851-1915 Macdonell explores the intricate intersections of Gothic aesthetics architectural ethics literature theology cultural values and community construction in an Edwardian era company town When Walker commissioned the church he believed that its economy of salvation could save him from the syphilis that afflicted his body and stained his soul However while implementing that economy Cram whose architectural theory social commentary and ghost stories were pessimistic about reviving the Gothic in the modern world also created an architecture haunted by the sickness of humanity Painstakingly researched and lavishly illustrated Ghost Storeys redefines the allegorical relationship between a marginalized church and the Gothic Revival movement as a global interdisciplinary phenomenon

Augustine's Problem Jeff Nicoll, 2016-06-03 Augustine's Problem provides a new approach to St Augustine's life and doctrine hypothesizing that his problem was not sexual addiction but sexual impotence For Augustine the problem with sex was not the seductive nature of women but the unpredictability of desire which can induce an unwanted erection or fail to provide one when even the mind would choose to have sex He extends his personal incapacity to a general impotence of the will we can never without grace choose any good Just as the impotent man cannot work on his impotence we cannot work on our salvation only God can make a difference and predestines a tiny elect The disobedience of the Garden is transferred to the disobedience of the male member guaranteeing that the sin of Eden is transferred in conception as original sin The most controversial elements of Augustine's theology are all linked to the theme of impotence as expressed in his writings from the

Confessions to the anti Pelagian works written at the end of his life

Reconstructing the Native South Melanie Benson Taylor,2012-01-15 In Reconstructing the Native South Melanie Benson Taylor examines the diverse body of Native American literature in the contemporary U S South literature written by the descendants of tribes who evaded Removal and have maintained ties with their southeastern homelands In so doing Taylor advances a provocative even counterintuitive claim that the U S South and its Native American survivors have far more in common than mere geographical proximity Both cultures have long been haunted by separate histories of loss and nostalgia Taylor contends and the moments when those experiences converge in explicit and startling ways have yet to be investigated by scholars These convergences often bear the scars of protracted colonial antagonism appropriation and segregation and they share preoccupations with land sovereignty tradition dispossession subjugation purity and violence Taylor poses difficult questions in this work In the aftermath of Removal and colonial devastation what remains for Native and non Native southerners to be recovered Is it acceptable to identify an Indian lost cause Is a deep sense of hybridity and intercultural affiliation the only coherent way forward both for the New South and for its oldest inhabitants And in these newly entangled postcolonial environments has global capitalism emerged as the new enemy for the twenty first century Reconstructing the Native South is a compellingly original work that contributes to conversations in Native American southern and transnational American studies      Aldous Huxley,

Representative Man James Hull,2004 This psychological reading of Huxley s oeuvre as a whole traces Huxley s self transformation in his books and aims to do justice to the artist and the person who was Aldous Huxley It is safe to regard as basic to his entire work the unfolding of the conflict we find so clearly delineated in his early short story Farcical History of Richard Greenow Limbo 1920 with Pearl Bellairs representing the emotional tradition that threatens the synthetic philosopher Huxley s own story is plainly visible even in Limbo and Crome Yellow 1921 but it is in Antic Hay 1923 that the pattern of the future assumes a solid foundation There we encounter in full force the tensions that follow him throughout his life on the one hand an extreme of sensuality and on the other a longing for the chaste pleasures for a quiet and mystical world completely different from that in which he found himself The question of the relations between body and mind as well as the mystery of human consciousness haunt him to the very last but after his mid life crisis depicted in Eyeless in Gaza 1936 a strong faith in the reality of a spiritual world is obvious In the end he even manages to reinstate the body in his scheme of things Series Human Potentialities Studien zu Aldous Huxley zeitgenossischer Kultur Studies in Aldous Huxley Contemporary Culture Vol 5
