Visual Art Analysis University of Phoenix Stacey Pierce July 19, 2010 "Dream caused by the flight of a bee around a pomegranate, a second before waking up" By Salvador Dali, 1994, 51? 40. 5 cm, oil on canvas Thyssen-bornemisza collection. "A typical dream with a long theme, the consequences of a sudden accident that causes the awakening" –Salvador Dali. The Style the artist has used is Surrealism. , Salvador created this piece in such a way that the picture looks exaggerated and real. The painting shows highlights, shadows and shapes of a realistic pieces, and shows intently exaggerated color.

The Title of the piece tells the viewer that this painting is based about a dream and then its dramatic awakening, which obviously shows through the painting as there are main focal points that put line this "dream" which concludes to the title. This art work was painted using oils on canvas using a brush. The texture is smooth and the shadow and highlights are immaculate. (Otero, 2010) This art work does not have a political view, but rather gives the viewer the perception of what the painting is through the title of the painting.

Salvador uses symbols in the piece to represent the intentional focus of the dream, the symbols being the little pomegranate, the gun, the tigers, the fish and the big pomegranate. This art work shows brilliant and vibrant colours. Some colors being exaggerated to the fact that the color being used in the piece is not entirely true, for example, true colors of the tigers are done in a vibrant yellow which are false from the color of real tigers. The colors that Salvador uses give the piece depth, the colors used, gives way to the main focal points.

These focal points are brightened, drawing the viewer's attention toward the focal points and then toward the rest of the painting. Oranges, yellows, blues and grays are harmonious in nature. This creates a sense of rhythm as these colors often follow in the groups of warm and cool colors. The warm colors create the main focal point of the picture. Light is used through the elephant; the elephant is the lightest object in the painting. This could perhaps symbolize purity and goodness, showing that the elephant is the opposite of the tigers and gun.

Lights are also used through out the painting itself as the colors are light shades. In this circumstance, this could represent the "new morning" or the "awakening of the dream". Light creates the movement in this piece; it makes the picture flow evenly. The light also creates a sense of depth because of the highlights and shadows. The artist uses space well. The painting draws attention to the focal points by subtle detail in the background, such as the floating island and the rock coming out of the water.

This in its own way creates balance and space in the picture making things extremely even which compliments the color. To add to this balance the artist used natural three dimensional shapes which add a realistic feel to the painting. Line is used to create a sense of movement. Line...

Essays in the Art of Writing Robert Louis Stevenson, 2021-03-11 The profession of letters has been lately debated in the public prints and it has been debated to put the matter mildly from a point of view that was calculated to surprise high minded men and bring a general contempt on books and reading Some time ago in particular a lively pleasant popular writer devoted an essay lively and pleasant like himself to a very encouraging view of the profession We may be glad that his experience is so cheering and we may hope that all others who deserve it shall be as handsomely rewarded but I do not think we need be at all glad to have this question so important to the public and ourselves debated solely on the ground of money The salary in any business under heaven is not the only nor indeed the first question That you should continue to exist is a matter for your own consideration but that your business should be first honest and second useful are points in which honour and morality are concerned If the writer to whom I refer succeeds in persuading a number of young persons to adopt this way of life with an eye set singly on the livelihood we must expect them in their works to follow profit only and we must expect in consequence if he will pardon me the epithets a slovenly base untrue and empty literature Of that writer himself I am not speaking he is diligent clean and pleasing we all owe him periods of entertainment and he has achieved an amiable popularity which he has adequately deserved But the truth is he does not or did not when he first embraced it regard his profession from this purely mercenary side He went into it I shall venture to say if not with any noble design at least in the ardour of a first love and he enjoyed its practice long before he paused to calculate the wage The other day an author was complimented on a piece of work good in itself and exceptionally good for him and replied in terms unworthy of a commercial traveller that as the book was not briskly selling he did not give a copper farthing for its merit It must not be supposed that the person to whom this answer was addressed received it as a profession of faith he knew on the other hand that it was only a whiff of irritation just as we know when a respectable writer talks of literature as a way of life like shoemaking but not so useful that he is only debating one aspect of a question and is still clearly conscious of a dozen others more important in themselves and more central to the matter in hand
