Police, Provocation, Politics Deniz Yonucu, 2022-03-15 In Police Provocation Politics Deniz Yonucu presents a counterintuitive analysis of contemporary policing practices focusing particular attention on the incitement of counterviolence perpetual conflict and ethnosectarian discord by the state security apparatus Situating Turkish policing within a global context and combining archival work and oral history narratives with ethnographic research Yonucu demonstrates how counterinsurgency strategies from the Cold War and decolonial eras continue to inform contemporary urban policing in Istanbul Shedding light on counterinsurgency's affect and emotion generating divisive techniques and urban dimensions Yonucu shows how counterinsurgent policing strategies work to intervene in the organization of political dissent in a way that both counters existing alignments among dissident populations and prevents emergent ones Yonucu suggests that in the places where racialized and dissident populations live provocations of counterviolence and conflict by state security agents as well as their containment of both cannot be considered disruptions of social order Instead they can only be conceptualized as forms of governance and policing designed to manage actual or potential rebellious populations The College Courant ,1870 After Difference Paolo Heywood,2018-02-19 Queer activism and anthropology are both fundamentally concerned with the concept of difference Yet they are so in fundamentally different ways The Italian queer activists in this book value difference as something that must be produced in opposition to the identity politics they find around them Conversely anthropologists find difference in the world around them and seek to produce an identity between anthropological theory and the ethnographic material it elucidates This book describes problems faced by an activist politics of difference and issues concerning the identity of anthropological reflection itself connecting two conceptions of difference whilst simultaneously holding them apart Environmental and Climate Change in South and Southeast Asia ,2014-08-07 Based on pioneering research this volume on South and Southeast Asia offers a cultural studies perspective on the vast and largely uncharted domain of how local cultures are coping with climate changes and environmental crises The primary focus is on three countries that have high emission rates India Indonesia and Thailand Whereas the dominant discourse on climate largely reflects the view of Western cultures this volume adds indigenous views and practices that provide insight into Hindu Buddhist and Islamic responses Making use of textual materials fieldwork and analyses it highlights the close links between climate solutions forms of knowledge and the various socio cultural and political practices and agencies within societies The volume demonstrates that climate is global and plural Contributors are Monika Arnez Somnath Batabyal Joachim Betz Susan M Darlington Dennis Eucker R diger Haum Albertina Nugteren Marcus N sser Ravi Baghel Martin Seeger and Janice Stargardt Critical Thinking TACTICS for Nurses M. Museum studies as a field of academic inquiry has received little critical attention One result of this neglect has arguably been a lack of invention in museum studies another is the distancing of academic museum studies from museum practice Doing Museology Differently charts a different course A critical creative reflection on academic practice the book takes the form of a narrative account of museological fieldwork A research story unfolds challenging academic conventions at the level of its own presentation the book combines critical museum visiting with an autobiographical voice The identification of a previously underexplored interdisciplinary space leads the author to experiment with museum studies using contemporary developments in the theory and practice of human geography The new approaches to museological research and representation that emerge from this unique inquiry challenge assumed institutional and intellectual boundaries and act as a call to further creative experimentation

Conservation of Contemporary Art Renée van de Vall, Vivian van Saaze, 2023-12-30 This open access book investigates whether and how theoretical findings and insights in contemporary art conservation can be translated into the daily work practices of conservators or vice versa whether and how the problems and dilemmas encountered in conservation practice can inform broader research questions and projects For several decades now the conservation of contemporary art has been a dynamic field of research and reflection Because of contemporary art's variable constitution its care and management calls for a fundamental rethinking of the overall research landscape of museums heritage institutions private sector organizations and universities At first this research was primarily pursued by conservation professionals working in or with museums and other heritage organizations but increasingly academic researchers and universities became involved for instance through collaborative projects This book is the result of such collaboration It sets out to bridge the gap between theory and practice by investigating conservation practices as a form of reflection and reflection as a form of practice
