French Modern Norms And Forms Of The Social Environment:

French Modern Paul Rabinow, 1989 Paul Rabinow's study of space and society power and knowledge in France from the 1830s through the 1930s uses tools from anthropology philosophy and cultural criticism to make fascinating connections between diverse protagonists and domains In each of these domains ranging from medicine to the layout of colonial cities Rabinow describes the creation of norms and the search for forms adequate for understanding and regulating what became known as modern society He also focuses on an unexplored middle ground between the masters of high culture and the experiences of ordinary life which he calls middling modernism Paul Rabinow is Professor of Anthropology at the University of California at Berkeley His most recent books include Michel Foucault Beyond Structuralism and Hermeneutics with Hubert Dreyfus and The Foucault Reader

French Modern Paul Rabinow, 1995 Housing and the City Katharina Borsi, Didem Ekici, Jonathan Hale, Nick Haynes, 2022-06-28 Housing and the City explores housing histories theories and projects in diverse geographies It presents a geographically dispersed history of the twentieth century modern housing project and its social diagram juxtaposed with case studies from the past and the present that suggest that we can live and work differently While the contributions are diverse in their theoretical approach and geographical situation their juxtaposition yields transversal connections in the conception of the home and the city and highlights the diversity of architectural solutions in the formation of housing and its communities The collection also reveals architecture's contribution to the construction of the self and communities the individual and the collective as both urban spatial entities and socio-political concepts Housing and the City provides essential reading for students academics and practitioners interested in the history theory or current design of housing At a time when cities are witnessing new ways of working changing social demographics increased geographical mobility and mass migrations as well as the pervasive threat of the climate crisis all trends exacerbated by the Covid 19 pandemic Housing and the City presents a historical and theoretical reflection on the question what does it mean to be at home in the city in the twenty first century

Empires of Intelligence Martin Thomas, 2008 Empires of Intelligence argues that colonial control in British and French empires depended on an elaborate security apparatus Thomas shows the crucial role of intelligence gathering in maintaining imperial control in the years before decolonization

Architecture and Urbanism in the British Empire G. A. Bremner, 2016 A comprehensive overview of the architectural and urban transformations that took place across the British Empire between the seventeenth and mid-twentieth centuries exploring the built heritage of Britain's former colonial empire as a fundamental part of how we negotiate our postcolonial identities

Cultures of Confinement Frank Dikötter, Ian Brown, 2018-07-05 Prisons are on the increase from the United States to China as ever larger proportions of humanity find themselves behind bars While prisons now span the world we know little about their history in global perspective Rather than interpreting the prison's proliferation as the predictable result of globalization Cultures of Confinement underlines the fact that the prison was never simply imposed by colonial powers or copied by elites eager to emulate the West but was reinvented and transformed by a host of local factors its success being dependent on its very flexibility Complex cultural negotiations took place in encounters between different parts of the world and rather than assigning a passive role to Latin America Asia and Africa the authors of this book point out the acts of resistance or appropriation that altered the social practices associated with confinement The prison in short was understood in culturally specific ways and reinvented in a variety of local contexts examined here for the first time in global perspective

The SAGE Handbook of Architectural Theory C. Greig Crysler, Stephen Cairns, Hilde Heynen, 2012-01-10 The SAGE Handbook of Architectural Theory documents and builds upon some of the most innovative developments in architectural theory over the last two decades Bringing into dialogue a range of geographically institutionally and historically competing positions the book examines and explores parallel debates in related fields The book is divided into eight sections Power Difference Embodiment Aesthetics Pleasure Excess Nation Spectacle Modernity History Memory Tradition Design Practice Production Technology Science Virtuality Nature Landscape Sustainability City Metropolis Territory Creating openings for future lines of inquiry and establishing the basis for new directions for education research and practice the book organizes itself around specific case studies to provide a critical interpretive and speculative enquiry into the relevant debates in architectural theory A methodical authoritative and comprehensive addition to the literature the Handbook is suitable for academics researchers and practitioners in architecture urban geography cultural studies sociology and geography

Patrick Geddes and Town Planning Noah Hysler-Rubin, 2013-12-16 Patrick Geddes is considered a forefather of the modern urban planning movement This book studies the various and even opposing ways in which Geddes has been interpreted up to this day providing a new reading of his life writing and plans Geddes scrutiny is presented as a case study for Town Planning as a whole Tying together for the first time key concepts in cultural geography and colonial urbanism the book proposes a more vigorous historiography exposing hidden narratives and past agendas still dominating the disciplinary discourse Written by a cultural geographer and a town planner this book offers a rounded full length analysis of Geddes vision and its material manifestation functioning also as a much needed critical tool to evaluate Modern Town Planning as an academic and practical discipline The book also includes a long overdue model of his urban theory

The Columbia History of Twentieth-century French Thought Lawrence D. Kritzman, Brian J. Reilly, 2006 Unrivaled in its scope and depth The Columbia History of Twentieth Century French Thought assesses the intellectual figures movements and publications that helped shape and define fields as diverse as history and historiography psychoanalysis film literary theory cognitive and life sciences literary criticism philosophy and economics More than two hundred entries by leading intellectuals discuss developments in French thought on such subjects as pacifism fashion gastronomy technology and urbanism Contributors include prominent French thinkers many of whom have played an integral role in the development of French thought and American British and Canadian scholars who have been vital in the dissemination of French ideas

Urban Modernity Miriam R. Levin, Sophie Forgan, Martina Hessler, Robert H. Kargon, Morris Low, 2010-04-16 How Paris London Chicago Berlin and Tokyo created modernity through science and technology by means of urban planning international expositions and museums At the close of the nineteenth century industrialization and urbanization marked the end of the traditional understanding of society as rooted in agriculture Urban Modernity examines the construction of an urban centered industrial based culture an entirely new social reality based on science and technology The authors show that this invention of modernity was brought about through the efforts of urban elites businessmen industrialists and officials to establish new science and technology related institutions International expositions museums and other such institutions and projects helped stem the economic and social instability fueled by industrialization projecting the past and the future as part of a steady continuum of scientific and technical progress The authors examine the dynamic connecting urban planning museums educational institutions and expositions in Paris London Chicago Berlin and Tokyo from 1870 to 1930 In Third Republic Paris politicians administrators social scientists architects and engineers implemented the future city through a series of commissions agencies and organizations in rapidly expanding London cultures of science and technology were both rooted in and constitutive of urban culture in Chicago after the Great Fire Commercial Club members pursued civic ideals through scientific and technological change in Berlin industry scientific institutes and the popularization of science helped create a modern metropolis and in Meiji era Tokyo Edo modernization and Westernization went hand in hand
