From Medjugorje to Spiritual Blogger Eva Scrivano-Conti, 2014-12-18 Lifelong Lessons from Medjugorje When Eva Scrivano Conti visited the mystical city of Medjugorje in southern Bosnia where the Virgin Mary appears to share messages with God's beloved children she did not guess that the experience would stay with her for a lifetime inspiring and informing her spirituality Eva was moved to write a book and start a blog to share her experiences and blessings Mary the Mother of Jesus Christ gives clear guidance in her messages to pray without ceasing for salvation and for humankind Jesus and Mary have both let us know that prayer is the way to communicate with God In her blog Eva shares stories prayers songs and resources to lift you up This contemplative loving book will inspire you to pray and strengthen your spiritual life and your relationship with God

The Holy Highway Eva Scrivano-Conti, 2022-12-20 The holy highway is a daily journey to the heart of God Everyone is invited to take this journey I began taking this journey in 1990 when I went to this holy magical place called Medjugorje Since that time the Holy Spirit has led me to know that prayer reading holy scripture daily and helping others through encouragement and inspiration is essential in reaching the heart of God and that is why I have written an inspiration for each new day

The Vatican Prophecies John Thavis, 2015-09-15 The process by which these supernatural events are authenticated is expertly told by John Thavis one of the world's leading Vaticanologists In fact that a book on so secretive and complex a topic is so deeply researched beautifully written and artfully told is something of a small miracle itself James Martin S J author of Jesus A Pilgrimage From the New York Times bestselling author of The Vatican Diaries a fascinating behind the scenes look at how the Vatican investigates claims of miraculous events Apocalyptic prophecies and miraculous apparitions are headline grabbing events that often put the Catholic Church's concept of rational faith at odds with the passion of its more zealous followers To some these claims teeter on the edge of absurdity Others see them as evidence of a private connection with God For the Vatican the issue is much more nuanced as each supposed miraculous event could have serious theological and political consequences In response the Vatican has developed a highly secretive and complex evaluation system to judge the authenticity of supernatural phenomena Former journalist John Thavis uses his thirty years experience covering the Vatican to shed light on this little known process revealing deep internal debates on the power of religious relics private revelations exorcisms and more Enlightening and accessible to Catholics and non Catholics alike the book illustrates the Church's struggle to balance the tension between traditional beliefs and contemporary skepticism Ritual, Performance and the Senses Michael Bull, Jon P. Mitchell, 2020-05-18 Ritual has long been a central concept in anthropological theories of religious transmission. Ritual Performance and the Senses offers a new understanding of how ritual enables religious representations, ideas, beliefs, values to be shared among participants. Focusing on the body and the experiential nature of ritual, the book brings together insights from three distinct areas of study: cognitive neuroanthropology, performance studies, and the anthropology of the senses. Eight chapters by scholars from each of these sub-disciplines investigate different aspects of embodied religious practice, ranging from philosophical discussions of belief to explorations of the biological processes taking place in the brain itself. Case studies range from miracles and visionary activity in Catholic Malta to meditative practices in theatrical performance and include three pilgrimage sites: the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem, the festival of Ramlila in Ramnagar, India, and the mountain shrine of the Lord of the Shiny Snow in Andean Peru. Understanding ritual allows us to understand processes at the very centre of human social life and humanity itself, making this an invaluable text for students and scholars in anthropology, cognitive science, performance studies, and religious studies. Mary the Perfect

Contemplative: Carmelite Insights on the Interior Life of Our Lady Barbara Hughes, 2022-04-25 Mary the Perfect Contemplative is a fresh and beautiful portrait of the Mother of God. From her immaculate conception to her bodily assumption into heaven, Mary was set apart by God as the vessel of humanity's redemption. Thrice favored as daughter of the Father, mother of the Son, and spouse of the Holy Spirit, Mary was endowed with supernatural gifts that enabled a contemplative life of grace. Unlike us, she was conceived without sin. Yet her reliance on faith without the full vision of God's plan of salvation during her earthly life makes her for us the perfect model of faith. Pondering in her heart the mysteries she encountered throughout her life, she is the perfect contemplative. Author Barbara Hughes O.C.D.S. looks to Sacred Scripture as the primary and essential reference for her portrait of our Lady. For colorful detail, she draws on two thousand years of Sacred Tradition sourced in the writings of the church fathers, saints, and theologians. Finally, Hughes finds further depth and exquisite details of Mary's interior life in the mystical writings of the Carmelite saints and Doctors of the Church. The saints of Carmel, the canonized brothers and sisters of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, are invaluable guides that help us navigate the mystical waters of contemplation and union with God, which Mary exemplifies. Saints John of the Cross and Teresa of Jesus teach us the importance of living by faith, especially when God appears to be absent or when his plans are veiled to the eyes of even the holiest people, such as Mary. This book is for all of Mary's beloved children to offer them an intimate portrait of their Blessed Mother. Hearing God's Voice: Towards a Theology of Contemporary Pentecostal Revelatory

Experience Tania M. Harris, 2023-09-25 The revelatory experience, or in common parlance, hearing God's voice, is prized by Pentecostal Charismatic Christians for its contribution to spirituality, yet remains one of the most problematic areas of church life. Theological tensions and pastoral fallout have plagued the experience since the time of the New Testament. Drawing on the tools of practical theology this book presents the findings of a unique and ground breaking study among Australian Pentecostals With a theological framework modelled on New Testament practice and undergirded by the accountability of the local church many of the problems associated with revelatory experience can be addressed and the experience fully harnessed for kingdom purpose

Religion, Media, and Marginality in Modern Africa Felicitas Becker, Joel Cabrita, Marie Rodet, 2018-02-02 In recent years anthropologists historians and others have been drawn to study the profuse and creative usages of digital media by religious movements At the same time scholars of Christian Africa have long been concerned with the history of textual culture the politics of Bible translation and the status of the vernacular in

Christianity Students of Islam in Africa have similarly examined politics of knowledge the transmission of learning in written form and the influence of new media Until now however these arenas Christianity and Islam digital media and old media have been studied separately Religion Media and Marginality in Modern Africa is one of the first volumes to put new media and old media into significant conversation with one another and also offers a rare comparison between Christianity and Islam in Africa The contributors find many previously unacknowledged correspondences among different media and between the two faiths In the process they challenge the technological determinism the notion that certain types of media generate particular forms of religious expression that haunts many studies In evaluating how media usage and religious commitment intersect in the social cultural and political landscapes of modern Africa this collection will contribute to the development of new paradigms for media and religious studies Contributors Heike Behrend Andre Chappatte Maria Frahm Arp David Gordon Liz Gunner Bruce S Hall Sean Hanretta Jorg Haustein Katrien Pype and Asonzeh Ukah
