Good Practice Guidelines 2013 Business Continuity Institute,2013 Good Practice Guidelines 2013 Global Edition
Business Continuity Institute,2013 The Manager's Guide to Simple, Strategic, Service-Oriented Business Continuity
Rachelle Loyear, MBCP, AFBCI, CISM, PMP,2017-05-10 You have the knowledge and skill to create a workable Business Continuity Management BCM program but too often your projects are stalled while you attempt to get the right information from the right person Rachelle Loyear experienced these struggles for years before she successfully revamped and reinvented her company's BCM program In The Manager's Guide to Simple Strategic Service Oriented Business Continuity she takes you through the practical steps to get your program back on track Rachelle Loyear understands your situation well Her challenge was to manage BCM in a large enterprise that required hundreds of BC plans to be created and updated The frustrating reality she faced was that subject matter experts in various departments held the critical information she needed but few were willing to write their parts of the plan She tried and failed using all the usual methods to educate and motivate and even threaten departments to meet her deadlines Finally she decided there had to be a better way The result was an incredibly successful BCM program that was adopted by BCM managers in other companies She calls it The Three S's of BCM Success which can be summarized as Simple Strategic Service Oriented Loyear's approach is easy and intuitive considering the BCM discipline from the point of view of the people in your organization who are tasked to work with you on building the plans and program She found that most people prefer Simple solutions when they are faced with something new and different Strategic use of their time making their efforts pay off Service to be provided lightening their part of the load while still meeting all the basic requirements These tactics explain why the 3S program works It helps you it helps your program and it helps your program partners Loyear says If you follow the Three S philosophy the number of plans you need to document will be fewer and the plans will be simpler and easier to produce I've seen this method succeed repeatedly when the traditional method of handing a business leader a form to fill out or a piece of software to use has failed to produce quality plans in a timely manner In The Manager's Guide to Simple Strategic Service Oriented Business Continuity Loyear shows you how to Completely change your approach to the problems of BCM buy in Find new ways to engage and support your BCM program partners and subject matter experts Develop easier to use policies procedures and plans Improve your overall relationships with everyone involved in your BCM program Craft a program that works around the roadblocks rather than running headlong into them Best practice guidelines for the rehabilitation and translocation of gibbons

International Union for the Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (IUCN),Clare O. Campbell,Susan M. Cheyne,Benjamin M. Rawson,2015-05-28 Rehabilitation and translocation programmes are increasingly becoming an important component of conservation action plans for threatened species Translocation can help address gibbon conservation issues gibbons are recognized as one of the most threatened primate families globally by allowing gibbons held in captivity to be rescued rehabilitated and then returned to the wild These guidelines for the translocation of gibbons have been developed in collaboration with stakeholders in hylobatid conservation This process was initiated during a workshop on gibbon rehabilitation reintroduction and translocation facilitated by the IUCN SSC PSG Section on Small Apes SSA and the result of this process is the current document which is based on shared knowledge and experience to date The guidelines are designed to be a practical and useful document available for all stakeholders with the aim of equipping field projects and decision makers with the tools for scientifically sound practice in gibbon rehabilitation and translocation

Trans and Sexuality Christina Richards, 2017-08-10 Grounded in cutting edge qualitative research Trans and Sexuality explores the sexuality of people who do not identify with the gender that they were assigned at birth Arguing that whilst splitting members of the trans community into distinct groups might seem like a reasonable theoretical procedure the pervasive assumption that group membership impacts on the sexuality of trans people has unduly biased opinions in this highly contested yet dramatically under researched area Moreover whilst existing literature has taken a purely positivistic standpoint or relies on methodology that could be seen as exploitative towards trans people Richards is careful to place the real life experiences of trans research participants at the heart of the work Showing that sexuality extends beyond the bedroom this forward thinking book touches on topics such as identity sexuality and the intersections between the two Richards takes a cross disciplinary approach and considers the sexuality of trans people within the contexts of psychiatric and psychological settings including Gender Identity Clinics as well as in the broader contexts of cultural and community settings The implications of the research at hand are also explored with respect to counselling psychology and existentialist philosophy Trans and Sexuality will appeal to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of gender and sexuality counselling sociology psychotherapy psychology and psychiatry It will be of particular interest to those seeking an in depth and up to date overview of ethics and methodologies with people from marginalised sexualities and genders

Contract and Regulation Roger Brownsword, Rob A.J. van Gestel, Hans-W. Micklitz, 2017-09-29 Contract and Regulation A Handbook on New Methods of Law Making in Private Law sheds light on the darker side of contracts It begins by exploring the regulatory space in which projects are planned deals are done and goods and services are consumed then shows how a bottom up approach can be adopted in order to view this transactional space through the eyes of contractors The expert contributors explore modes of governance that do not fit nicely into traditional contract theory paying special attention to three key examples governance and codes of conduction networks and relations compliance and use

Building Culture: procurement of UK arts construction Walter Menteth, Bridget Sawyers, 2021-04-30 building culture describes how cultural buildings are conceived and procured through a review of data case studies and interrogation of the processes an invaluable resource for anyone commissioning arts and cultural buildings in the UK building culture is a uniquely comprehensive investigation that offers research guidance analysis of Covid impacts and recommendations for communities arts professionals commissioners clients architects project teams and policy makers for future best practice building culture contains Contributions by eminent architects competition programmers and a client Unique data analysis of the procurement processes of the sector Arts funding guidance and procurement analysis Resources and references building culture looks at the procurement data for 421 arts and heritage capital projects across the UK between 2013 and 2018 to establish what procurement route was taken what guidance was provided and by whom who were the consultants appointed some examples of best practice and some less good and lessons learnt Based on this evidence and previous research building culture then makes recommendations for the key funding bodies and those advising or undertaking arts and heritage capital procurement and projects In order to understand the landscape of arts and cultural buildings and their procurement it has also been required to understand the funding ecology and specifically that of the national arts funding bodies This is seen in the light of the current context as the sector responds to Covid Brexit austerity and the future challenges of a Climate Emergency Building Culture is a comprehensive survey and commentary of the processes and power of cultural development and its reach across the United Kingdom The authors then present some of the urgent and important challenges and issues of our time expertly framed through a diverse set of exemplar projects as case studies situated within the complex world of planning policy and funding regimes The result will prove an essential resource to students practitioners and others looking to understand the world of cultural development with all its many challenges and opportunities The recommendations the authors present to us here are central to a dialogue which is much needed about the values and principles needed for our society in the future Donald Hyslop Chair of Creative and Cultural Skills UK This in depth study of how cultural spaces are conceived and procured is hugely valuable to clients and design teams who often work in seeming isolation creating and adapting projects It is especially valuable as returning from the pandemic we can appreciate the strategic and symbolic significance of cultural spaces and their role in coalescing places and sustaining relationships between people The impressive depth and span of evidence gathered demonstrates how we could invest more wisely with a greater common understanding of the processes that prepare the ground for inspiring robust and sustainable cultural buildings The case studies demonstrate how this is done well Juliet Bidgood Architect and RIBA Client Adviser Best practice guide to socially and gender-inclusive development in the Kenyan intensive dairy sector Tavenner, K.,Crane, Todd,2016-08-31 Adult-Gerontology Practice Guidelines Jill C.
